Journal of Cultural Encounters, Conflicts, and Resolutions

The main focus of this journal is borders studies as a discipline dedicated to examining encounters, conflicts and resolutions within national, political, social, cultural, religious, racial, and educational borders. It analyzes borders as a physical, psychological and symbolic experience that affects relationships and negotiations among people around the world. The journal is interdisciplinary in nature, it is unique in the field, and it creates a venue for attracting scholars from the humanities and the social sciences.
