On June 24, 1946, The Cleveland Law School and The John Marshall School of Law became affiliated under the name of the Cleveland-Marshall Law School. The Cleveland Law School was founded in 1897 and the John Marshall School of Law was established in 1916.

The Cleveland-Marshall Law School is operated not for profit and is designed to meet the requirements of students who seek a legal education by attending evening classes.

The school is a member of the League of Ohio Law Schools and is approved by the Veterans Administration to give instruction under the G.I. Bill of Rights.

The members of the faculty are either judges or lawyers who have had extended teaching experience.

The Case method of instruction used in most day schools has been adapted in the main so as to serve the best interests of serious-minded students.

An excellent law library is maintained for use of students at all times.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Regular Students. Applicants who seek admission to the Ohio Bar must present credentials showing satisfactory completion of at least two years study (60 semester hours or 90 quarter hours) at an approved college and are required to register with the Supreme Court of Ohio when they begin the study of law. A check for $6.00 made payable to Seba H. Miller, clerk, must accompany application.

Advanced Standing. Students in good standing from law schools approved by the American Bar Association or the League of Ohio Law Schools may be admitted to advanced standing upon submitting credentials showing that they have satisfactorily pursued a course of legal study equivalent to that required in this school for the period preceding the date when such students are admitted. At least one full year of work will be required in residence at the Cleveland-Marshall Law School to qualify such student for a degree. No credit will be given for instruction received by private tuition or by correspondence.

Special Students. A limited number of applicants may be admitted as special students upon presenting satisfactory evidence of sufficient education to enable them to pursue legal study to their advantage. Such students will be subject to the same rules and regulations as regular students and to the same charges. A special student who completes the full course will be entitled to a Certificate of Law Study. The Bachelor of Law degree will be conferred only on those special students who display unusual scholastic ability.

Early registration is advisable and all students are required to register in person. The office is open for consultation and registration during the summer months from 10:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M., or later by appointment. A personal interview prior to registration is invited. Telephone MAin 2533.

ATTENDANCE, EXAMINATIONS, GRADES, AND DISMISSAL OF STUDENTS

Students are required to attend classes with substantial regularity. Attendance upon less than 80% of the total sessions of any course will be deemed cause for withholding credit for that course, except by special permission of the instructor in charge.

The following system of grading is used: A, excellent (93-100); B, good (83-92); C, fair (68-82); D, poor, but passing (60-67); F, failure (below 60).

Credit points will be awarded to each student as follows: For each hour of work in which the student receives a grade of A, 4 points; for each hour of B, 3 points; for each hour of C, 2 points; for each hour of D, 1 point.

A student's weighted average is determined by dividing the total number of credit points awarded to him by the number of hours of work taken.

A weighted average of 2 credit points (C) is required for graduation.

A student who fails to secure a weighted average during the academic year of at least 1 credit point shall be dropped from the school. A student who secures a weighted average below 2 credit points shall be on probation during the following year. A student who fails to secure a weighted average of 2 credit points (C) during the year he is on probation shall be dropped from the school. A minimum of seventy-two (72) semester hours of credit and one hundred and forty-four (144) credit points plus a final comprehensive examination are required for graduation.

Any student, who in the opinion of the faculty committee lacks the aptitude to pursue successfully the practice of law, may be dropped by a vote of the faculty committee, even though he may meet the above minimum requirements.
