Hello Richard -

Well, it looks like the throes of the season of fall are coming upon us again. It is a great season in New England.

Why not write a few lines to Cindy Cooper as she is in process with the article in the next few weeks - whatever you want to say, I am sure she will consider.

I have a favor to ask - I know that you have a very good memory and coupled with your interest in interior design you probably remember things in great detail. Would you please draw out diagrams of the three floors of (our) the Sheppard house in Boy - I am especially interested in areas that I dimly remember, but would you also put in things of interest, like furniture etc. that you think important. Please, also point out the window where you cut yourself. I would appreciate it.

Best and Peace -
Living Room: dark orange green

Vivid orange, white, variegated woodwork, striped wallpaper. Striped patterned carpet. Bellflower "orchids."

Kitchen painted bluish grey, accents the right colors.

I found a chip. To date, applied to all kitchen tables. (Sarah Gaff)

Remade the spot, where I added, beige on cream edging window. The sink splash was off the right, and presented a problem removing the stain on sink.

Office was painted dark orange red, on Excel paper.

Loudspeaker, light colored in place of orange.

Shopping in Texas, Virginia, antique linens, white to a gray with floral prints.

Facing out marble, the mirror with woodwork, would not cut as intended. By giving the furniture another touch.

Amanda, knew with the morning, a long event.
Chips between painted dark teal green, white woodwork.
Brown, wood patterned linoleum floor covering.

Guest room:
Walls painted slate blue white woodwork.
Twin beds flanked by lamps, inches apart.
Mattress selected a double memory foam type.
Walls: life green.
Floors in both sunroom and powder room:

Stained glass yellow joint on ensuite:
Landing all battens with a slip in the kitchen and din. room.

Stained glass in side and wall was removed by us.
Need new abatement suit to protect.

Was unsure in the bathroom, dealt with this early.

Avoid morning washing the window.
