The Jewish Independent Publishing Company

The Cleveland Jewish Society Books were published from 1915 to 1925 by the Jewish Independent Publishing Company, a locally owned publisher that published the weekly Jewish Independent. The books were similar in appearance to the Cleveland Blue Book, a guide for society’s elite. The listings in the Cleveland book listed individuals by country club. The Jewish books list individuals by congregations. In many cases there are separate lists of the congregations’ ladies auxiliary, along with information on social service agencies. The book also included advertisements.

The books are a valuable resource for those conducting genealogy researches within the time period. The advertisements and information on the various social service agencies provide insight into the times. Eight editions were published over the ten year period.

PREFACE

Never before in the history of Cleveland has an effort been made to compile in one volume the manifold activities, including the history, of the Cleveland Jewish Community.

With the knowledge that the city has a Jewish population of one hundred thousand—a large city in itself—the necessity and convenience of such a compilation became evident.

Anyone may at a glance ascertain by reading this volume the religious, social, philanthropic, charitable and other activities of the community. It is intended to show not merely the object of each organization, but its officers, trustees and membership list as well.

What are the various synagogues in Cleveland? Who are the rabbis, officers and leading spirits? What nationalities do they represent? Are they Orthodox or Reform?

How about the clubs and the different charities, the fraternal and other organizations?

Whatever you wish to know regarding them will be answered in this book.

You may see at a glance that this directory is something Cleveland should have had decades ago, but on the supposition that it is never too late to begin a good thing we offer this volume to the Cleveland community, trusting that it will be duly appreciated.

THE EDITOR.
Cleveland in 1837 When the First Jewish Pioneers Arrived

This is a picture of Cleveland's business center at the time the two Jewish pioneers, Simson Thorman and Aaron Lowentritt, decided to call Cleveland home. The original is in possession of the Western Reserve Historical Society.

The roadway on which you'll notice an omnibus going east, represents Euclid Ave. looking west, near where East 6th St. is located. The cows pasturing on the meadow is the site of the Garfield and the Guardian buildings. The court house is on the Public Square near the foot of Euclid Ave. The little frame cottages on the south of the street are the sites of the May Co. and other great business structures. The Williamson building site is represented by a cottage adjoining the cow pasture on the west.
History of the Jewish Community

This is the story of how the Jewish community of Cleveland has grown from one to a population of practically 100,000.

The first Jewish settler of Cleveland was Simson Thorman, who arrived here in 1837. He was a native of Unseleben, Bavaria, Germany. He reached New York in 1835, two years later he came to Cleveland, where he had the distinction of being not only the first arrival but the first Jewish bridegroom, marrying Miss Regina Klein, who came here with her parents later.

Mr. Thorman was a member of the city council, was identified with the early history of the B'nai B'rith, was one of the organizers of Anshe Chesed congregation, but later joined Tifereth Israel, now known as The Temple. He died in Terre Haute, Indiana, thirty-four years ago, and is buried in old Willet street cemetery this city.

The pioneer's son, Samuel Thorman, was the first Jewish child born in Cleveland. His other children: Mrs. Joseph Erlanger, Mrs. Philip Schloss, Mrs. Kaufman Hays, Mrs. Jacob Wiener, Mrs. M. M. Wiener, Frank Thorman, Judah Thorman, Simon Thorman.

What was Cleveland in 1837, the year of Simson Thorman's arrival?

The city census of 1833 gives Cleveland's population as 5,080. The first United States census following the arrival of the first Jewish immigrants was taken in 1840, showing a population of Cleveland of 6,071, and of Ohio City, now the West Side of 1,577, making a total population of what is now the city of Cleveland of 7,648, three years after Simson Thorman had decided that this was a good place to settle in.

Being the only Jew in town Simson Thorman was naturally quite lonesome, but his yearning for companions in faith was at an end when Aaron Lowentritt, of Schoeningen, also Bavaria, hung up his hat on the peg of a Cleveland tavern.

Restrictive legislation against Jews in Germany caused quite an exodus from that country and other Jewish immigrants from Germany soon landed in Cleveland, but the first arrivals were young men without families. So when in 1839 Samson Hoffman settled here with his family and being the first Jewish family in Cleveland, the young men made the Hoffman home their rendezvous, the sight of little ones carrying them back to their homes in the Vaterland.

By and by there was a Minyan and a little over, so the Jewish settlers thought it about time to form a sort of a congregation. It wasn't much of a congregation, but it was a start and was named the Israelitische Society. When they met to organize they found that they had a membership of twenty. Pioneer Thorman was the chairman and Isaac Hoffman, the spiritual leader. It was a strictly Bayerische Shule and among the members of this Cleveland's first historic congregation, besides the two already named, were Simon Newmark, Simon Thorman, Moses Alsbacher, Gerson Strauss, S. L. Coleman and Kalman Roskopf.

This happened in 1839 and a year later the first cemetery was bought. The congregation had to go out of town to make the burial ground purchase and for one hundred dollars what is now the Willet street cemetery on the West Side, was secured.

In 1842 came the inevitable split, the seceders from the Israelite Society forming the Anshe Chesed Society, each only a handful worshiping at different places, one in a hall on South Water street and the other in a hall in Farmers' block on Prospect street. Rev. Asher Lehman was in charge of the thirty seceders.

Later on followed a reunion of the warring factions, and the offshoot of the two was the Israelite Anshe Chesed Society, now the Euclid Avenue Temple, worshiping in the new temple on Euclid avenue, corner of East Eighty-second street.

Leonard Case presented this congregation with a lot on Ohio street, now Central avenue, which was exchanged for property on Eagle street where, at a cost of $1,500, the first Anshe Chesed synagogue was built. Prior to the erection of the synagogue on Eagle street, the united congregation worshiped in a room in Farmers' block, under the leadership of S. L. Stearn.

owing to then raging revolutions in Germany and with the new settlers came differences of opinion regarding modes of worship and another split much more serious than the first followed, resulting in the formation of the Tifereth Israel congregation two years later, with forty-seven members worshiping in private homes and in a hall in Kelly's block, on Superior street. The first temple of this congregation was dedicated in 1854 on Huron street, a bequest from Judah Touro of $3,000 making the purchase of the land possible. This congregation now worships in the Temple, at the corner of Central avenue and East Fifty-fifth street, and a new temple much further east following the migration of the Jewish population is one of the things of the near future.

Tifereth Israel was regarded as the Reform and Anshe Chesed the Orthodox congregation.

Anshe Chesed had its Shechet, also a committee to zealously guard the meat sold to members of the congregation, to see that it contained the necessary Kosher seal. The first move in the direction of Reform in this congregation was the abbreviation of the Sabbath service. In November, 1868, it was decided to engage a cantor and leader of the choir who was also able to preach in both German and English and teach the Sabbath school besides. The first rabbi of the congregation was Rev. E. Hertzman, who was elected in 1860 at a salary of $600 a year. For this sum he was obliged to conduct services in Hebrew, chant the prayers, deliver an occasional sermon and to teach an hour a day in the religious school.

In December, 1860, Eagle street temple was enlarged and rededicated by Rabbi Isaac M. Wise, of Cincinnati. There was some trouble a year later when the organ was introduced, some of the members objecting to the innovation.

Rabbi Hertzman served one year only and at the close of his ministry Rabbi Gustave M. Cohen was elected in July, 1861, serving the congregation five years. Rabbi Cohen introduced the voluntary choir. In 1865 there was a serious disagreement between congregation and rabbi. A short time later the rabbi resigned and took with him a score or more influential members of the congregation.

Then came Rabbi Nathan, who remained one year and on his resignation Rabbi Cohen was triumphantly reinstated as spiritual head at double the salary of his former rabbinate.

Rabbi Isidor Kalisch was the first teacher, minister and chazan, from 1850 to 1855, at a salary of $400 a year.

Four years following the dedication of this synagogue Hebrew and Sunday schools were established, the teachers being Benjamin F. Peixotto, Jacob Engelhart, Miss Lehman, Miss Louisa Koch and Miss Hannah Cohen.

Tifereth Israel was the Reform congregation of the city and as far back as 1861 an organ and choir were installed, then followed the adoption of a new prayer book by Dr. Merzbacher. Rev. Wolf Fassbinder served as rabbi from 1855 to 1857; Jacob Cohen from 1857 to 1860.

In 1866 Rev. O. M. Cohen was the cantor, choir leader and Sabbath school teacher, and about the same year at the suggestion of Rabbi Isaac M. Wise, of Cincinnati, the Minhag America prayer book was adopted.

Rev. Dr. Jacob Mayer, of Cincinnati, was elected rabbi in 1867 when reform followed reform in quick succession. He resigned in 1874 and was succeeded by Dr. Aaron Hahn, at present an honored member of the Cleveland bar.

Rabbi Moses J. Gries, who came from Chattanooga, Tenn., was Dr. Hahn's successor. He was elected in 1893 for a three-year term, and has been the successful spiritual head of the congregation ever since. About the time Rabbi Gries first took charge of the pulpit of Huron Temple, the members began the agitation of a new temple. A lot was purchased at the corner of what is now East Fifty-fifth street and Central avenue, and a building committee with the following members was appointed: Julius Feiss, Martin A. Marks, Jacob Goldsmith, M. Ullman, Leopold Einstein, Dr. S. Wolfenstein, Kaufman Hays, Sol Sloss, F. H. Einstein, F. Muhlhauser, I. B. Heller, A. J. Steinfeld, I. J. Lehman, Marcus Feder.

July 16, 1893, the cornerstone was laid, Rabbi Gries, Rabbi Machol and Rabbi Isaac M. Wise making the addresses. April 20, 1894, Huron Temple was abandoned and Tifereth Israel worshiped with Anshe Chesed until the dedication of the new temple, September 21 to 24 of the same year. Dr. Wise came to Cleveland to speak at the dedication.

This illustration is of peculiar interest. It was taken at the last picnic given by the Anshe Chesed congregation in Forest City Park some seventeen years ago and represents not only the rabbi, but the active workers in that temple at that time, some of whom have passed away since.

and the then rare fellowship meeting was one of the features, also confirmation exercises. The Temple has been known as an Open Temple and has been an institutional house of worship since its dedication, the first of the kind among Jewish places of worship in the world. The study of Hebrew in the Sabbath school was abandoned twenty years ago.

The presidents of Tifereth Israel from 1850, the date of its organization, up to the present time have been as follows: A. Schwah, M. Wolf, Selig Hexter, D. Kaufman, S. Wolf, S. Hyman, M. Ezekiel, A. Halle, Kaufman Hays, S. Mann, J. Rohrheimer, S. Sampliner, H. Richman, M. Grossman, Martin A. Marks, A. Lewenthal and B. Lowenstein. Mr. Lowenstein is the present president of the congregation.

Several years ago at an annual meeting of the Temple congregation it was decided that the present temple is not only too small but too far removed from the membership and a committee was appointed to look for an available site some place much further east. At this writing no decision as to the location has been reached.

The Hungarian Congregation, B'nai Jeshurun, was organized in 1865 with a handful of members worshiping for a number of years in private residences and public halls for the great Holy Days until 1887, when the members moved into the Anshe Choused synagogue on Eagle street, after the dedication of the Anshe Chosed Seovill avenue synagogue. About eight years ago it erected a beautiful temple on Seovill avenue and East Fifty-fifth street.

There have been a number of secessions from the first Hungarian congregation, mainly due to differences of opinion concerning mode of worship, the most important of these offshoots being the Heeb Zedek synagogue on Seovill avenue, at the corner of East Thirty-eighth street, Rabbi H. A. Liebovitz, and Knesseth Israel on East Forty-sixth street, Rabbi Goldberger.

Herman Sampliner was the father of B'nai Jeshurun. He surrendered two rooms in his home, on California alley, where a congregation of sixteen was organized, and worshiped. A Sepher Torah was bought. The second year of its existence it had a membership of twenty-five and worshiped in the residence of Mr. Lerner, on St. Clair street, now avenue. The third year the congregation removed to the home of Mr. Weil, on Hamilton street, now avenue, and for the great holidays when about 400 attended, Gallagher's Hall, corner of Superior and Erie street, now East Ninth, was rented. The site is now occupied by the modern Cuyahoga Hotel. Mr. Sampliner remained the president and Mr. Salzer the religious teacher and chazan. In the fourth year a synagogue was established in what was then known as Halle's Hall, on Superior street, near the present location of the Arcade, and in 1875 Rev. M. Klein was engaged as rabbi, cantor, teacher and collector. The next step was a synagogue on Michigan street, now Prospect avenue, in what had been a German theater, also the purchase of land in Glenville for a cemetery.

Notwithstanding desertions and an attempt to organize a Hungarian Reform congregation which failed, the congregation prospered and at the time of the removal of Anshe Chessed from Eagle street to Seovill avenue, B'nai Jeshurun bought the Eagle street property for $15,000. Simultaneously with the removal to the first real synagogue, in 1887, Rabbi Sigmund Drechsler was engaged as spiritual head, remaining the congregation's beloved rabbi until the day of his death.

B'nai Jeshurun is now prospering in its location fronting on East Fifty-fifth street at Scovill avenue. Rabbi Drechsler was succeeded by Rabbi A. E. Dobrin and after the latter's resignation Rabbi Samuel Schwartz was selected, installed June 18, 1909, and re-elected. Rabbi Schwartz resigned to take up a rabbinate in Jacksonville, Fla., and he was succeeded by Rabbi Jacob Klein, who came here from Peoria, Ill. His work here has been successful to a marked degree.

The first Polish congregation, Anshe Emeth, was organized forty-eight years ago with a synagogue near the Central market house. At present it has a pretty place of worship on East Thirty-seventh street, Rabbi Samuel Margolies having been the spiritual leader since 1904.

This is the fourth congregation in the Jewish history of Cleveland. Prior to the erection of the synagogue on East Thirty-seventh street, it worshiped on Erie street, now East Ninth, near Woodland avenue, in what had formerly been a Christian church. Among its members are some of the oldest and best known Jewish families. The present synagogue was dedicated in July, 1904.

Beth Hamidrash Hagodol congregation, now worshiping on Woodland avenue and East Twenty-seventh street, was organized a year or so following Anshe Emeth. The other congregations are as follows:

- Agudath Achim, Scovill avenue and East Thirty-seventh street, Rabbi B. Gittelsohn.
- Chevra Kadisha, 2641 East Forty-seventh street, started many years ago by Bohemian Jews.
- Oheb Zedek, Homestead avenue, near Broadway.

Camp Wise, through the united efforts of the Council and the Alliance, was opened in 1907. Mr. Samuel D. Wise gave the use of his property free, but later he changed his mind and deeded it unconditionally to the Camp Wise Association instead of merely permitting it to use it. It includes more than seventeen acres along the lake front east and contains a number of buildings suited to country life. During the summer it gives new life and energy to boys and girls and some men and women. Volunteer workers, young men and young women, are in charge.

There is no better orphan asylum in the wide world than the Jewish Orphan Asylum, on Woodland avenue. It was founded by the B'nai B'rith and was dedicated July 14, 1868. The first superintendent and matron were Mr. and Mrs. I. Aufrecht. Dr. S. Wolfenstein took charge in July, 1878, and the great honor conferred upon him on the occasion of his seventieth birthday a short time ago is still fresh in the minds of all. At Dr Wolfenstein's resignation, he was succeeded by Mr. Simon Peiser.

The asylum is always filled to its capacity, which means 500 boys and girls. Recently the project to sell the property and move into the country has been determined upon. The mortuary record of this institution is most remarkable, the death rate being the smallest of any similar institution in the world.

Associated with the orphan asylum is the Educational League for the higher education of orphans and a thriving Alumni Association, both of which are national.

The Montefiore Home for Aged and Infirm Israelites is also located on Woodland avenue at East Fifty-fifth street. It was founded in 1881 by District No. 4, Kesher Shel Barzel, a fraternal order now out of existence. It has accommodations for sixty men and women and is under the efficient management of Superintendent Samuel Friedman.

The Orthodox Old Home, on Scovil avenue, east of East Fifty-fifth street, is conducted on a strictly Kosher plan and the laws of traditional Judaism are observed in the institution. It has grown from a frame house into quite an imposing structure. It came into being at a time...

when members of the Orthodox community determined that this city must have a home for old men and women where they can spend their declining years amidst strictly Orthodox surroundings.

The Hebrew Relief Association was organized about forty years ago, although prior to that time as far back as the ’50s Jewish charitable societies existed in the city. It does the combined work of the local Jewish charities. Mr. Alex S. Newman is the superintendent and Mr. Sigmund Shlesinger the president. The home of the association is on East Fortieth street, near Woodland avenue, the business being conducted in the Isaac N. Glauber memorial building.

The Jewish Relief Society is entirely supported by the Orthodox Jews of the city.

The Hebrew Free Loan Association was organized in 1905 and reorganized two years later. It has a large contributing membership list, loans money without interest and helps the poor to help themselves. Mr. Samuel Friedman is the president.

The home for little orphans, known as the Jewish Infant Orphans’ Home, with Superintendent Rosenberg at the helm, is one of the finest institutions in town. It cares for infants from the day they are born until they are five years old. The society was organized by a handful of enthusiastic women and was known as the Infant Orphans’ Mothers’ Society. Later a house was bought on East Thirty-seventh street, and in 1907 the Home on East Fortieth street was opened. Another purchase of the adjoining property was made later.

The first step toward the building of Mount Sinai Hospital was taken in 1900, when the Jewish Women’s Hospital Society was organized. Two years later a house was bought on East Thirty-seventh street and was dedicated as a hospital in May, 1903.

At this writing the new Mount Sinai Hospital, at East One Hundred and fifth street and Ansel road, is on the point of completion and in a short time will be dedicated as one of the best equipped hospitals in the country.

The East End Dispensary, located on East Fifty-fifth street, is doing excellent work and will be associated with the new Mount Sinai.

Immigrants too poor to locate, wayfarers who are stranded without funds find temporary quarters in the Montefiore Shelter Home, located on Orange avenue, and opened in 1904. It furnishes shelter and meals until the moneyless stranger finds work or a friend or relative to take him in.

However, these are not all the Jewish charitable societies of the city. There are scores and scores of them and it would be impossible to name them all. Among the oldest of these is the Daughters of Israel, which was organized in 1860; the Ladies Progressive Society, which passed its thirtieth anniversary, and a new organization known as the Instant Aid Society.

Final resting places for the dead?

Cleveland has many of them and include picturesque Mayfield and Willet cemeteries, the joint property of the Temple and Euclid Avenue Temple. There is also the Chesed Shel Emeth Cemetery Association, which is one of the best charities in the city and gives the poor free burial.

On Lansing there are cemeteries for Agudath Achim, Ohel Chesed, Beth Hamidrash Hagodol, Oheb Zedek and Knesseth Israel congregations. Then there is the Glenville cemetery for the B’nai Jeshurun congregation, and a Hungarian cemetery in Fir avenue, the Ohavu Amunah place of burial is on Harvard avenue, the Anshe Emeth on Fir avenue, B’nai Abraham on Fir avenue, the Chevra Kadisha on Baxter avenue.

New Equipment Gives You Better Telephone Service

AUTOMATIC RINGING

Automatic ringing equipment gives you faster telephone service. Your telephone now rings automatically every $5\frac{1}{4}$ seconds, until you answer.

AUTOMATIC DISCONNECT AND INSTANTANEOUS RECALL

These improvements enable you to attract the attention of the operator by a single movement of the receiver hook, and give you rapid service when you make two or more calls in quick succession.

AUTOMATIC SELECTIVE RINGING SERVICE

By means of this system your telephone bell rings only when you are wanted and not when your party line neighbor is called. It is, in fact, selective ringing, done automatically.

These improvements have been installed at great expense and are now working in our Central, Union, Crest and Princeton Exchanges. Other exchanges will be equipped at an early date.

CLEVELAND
During an experience meeting at a colored church, a brother who had recently been converted, arose and said:

"Brethren, I've been a sinner—a low-down, contemptible, black-hearted sinner—despise many yea's, and I neber knew it."

"Don't let that fa' molest you any, brudder," put in a sympathetic old deacon. "De rest ob us knew it all the time."

Each new advertiser who finally tries The Jewish Independent and finds that results roll in with regularity and promptness, flatters himself that he has discovered a new medium. He has not. The rest of us knew it all the time.

CHURCH—SCHOOL—OPERA AND SPECIAL FURNITURE

Cleveland, Ohio

THEODOR KUNDTZ is recognized as one of the foremost woodworkers of the day. In 1875, at Cleveland, Ohio, he started a small cabinet factory with a few employees. He was skilled in the knowledge and mastery of woodworking craft, having been trained at the bench in the art of cabinet making and the working of woods, from the age of fourteen. This training, combined with his great inventive genius, thoroughness for building the best, and personal supervision of the work, well fitted him for establishing this industry. Thus commenced what has since developed into one of the great industrial successes in the City of Cleveland.

Today, the KUNDTZ plant, employing nearly twenty-five hundred workmen and covering many acres, is considered one of the largest and most complete woodworking establishments of present times. Its products are well known and stand with a high reputation, the result of nearly a half-century of practical manufacturing experience, and during all these years the name of KUNDTZ has been the guarantee of absolute reliability and excellence of production.

The liabilities on all property are very small. There are at present 257 members. A. H. Liebovitz is the rabbi, and F. Deutsch, cantor.

There are 100,000 Jews in Cleveland, and they do not all read the same newspaper. Neither do they wear the same kind of hat, go to the same synagogue, or vote the same ticket.

If you really want to "cover" the territory, use The Jewish Independent. "The Best Jewish Newspaper in America."
Ohavu Amunah Congregation

The Ohavu Amunah congregation was organized in 1882. The late Rev. E. Rothschild and Rev. Platrowitz were the organizers. The temporary house of worship was on Central Ave. and East 9th St. In 1883 the first synagogue was built on Hill St. In 1898 the congregation moved into another synagogue, located on East 22d St. Rev. R. Rogoff was cantor for several years and Rabbi Fremer and the late Rabbi Ravinson were the spiritual leaders. In 1908 they moved to the present synagogue, located on Scovill Ave. and East 37th St. In 1909 they extended a call to Rabbi N. H. Ebin, former rabbi of Scranton, Pa., who has been with them since.

Kneseth Israel Congregation

When B'nai Jeshurun was organized about half a century ago, the Hungarians of this city could scarcely muster up members enough for a Sabbath Minyan. Today there are three powerful Hungarian congregations in Cleveland, the Kneseth Israel on East Forty-sixth street between Woodland avenue and Scovill avenue, being the latest. The synagogue is of recent construction and is an ornament to that part of the city.

Rabbi Leo Goldberger is the spiritual leader. The ritual is strictly Orthodox.

INQUIRE, 720 CUYAHOGA BUILDING
Beth Tephilah Congregation

In 1912 at the Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur services held in Virginia Hall, the need of a congregation for East-end Jews was recognized. The first meetings were held at the residence of B. Folkman. The congregation was organized and acquired Virginia Hall as the temporary meeting place and for services on Saturdays and holidays. An active campaign was inaugurated to raise funds for the proposed temple, the Jews of the East End responded nobly and many became members of the new congregation. Beth Tephilah—The House of Worship—was chosen as the name of the new congregation. Sufficient funds were raised to purchase the property of Wright's Hospital on E. 105th St., corner of Hampden Ave. The hospital was remodeled and dedicated as a synagogue August 26, 1915. The temple contains meeting rooms for the congregation and the Sisterhood, also a kitchen for the use of the Sisterhood and rooms for the Sunday and Hebrew schools.

Daily Hebrew school and Sunday school sessions are conducted by the congregation with large enrollments. Much of the work in establishing the congregation is credited to President Louis Sands. Active workers of the congregation who assisted Mr. Sands are Messrs. Adolph Klein, Ben Folkman, Sol Krieger, Louis Arnoff, Charles Bleier and M. Tronstein.

PLUMBING and HEATING

4420-4422 EUCLID AVENUE
From a few isolated Jewish families here and there a few years ago, the Jewish community on the West Side has grown to quite respectable proportions. The latter part of 1910 an agitation for a synagogue was started. Mr. Henry Landau was the leader in the movement. Meetings were held and the assembly hall, 2525 Lorain avenue was rented, in which temporary services were held. Late in January, 1911, the following officers were elected: George Schactel, president; Jacob Heimlich, vice president; H. Harvey Drucker, secretary; J. Bower, treasurer; Alexander Silber, Ph.Unger and R. Landy, trustees.

Later, a ladies' auxiliary was formed, of which Mr. Henry Landau was elected president.

The congregation has a Sabbath school and Hebrew school and is worshiping in its own synagogue. S. Kramer is the president; Mr. Shapiro, vice president, and R. Landy, treasurer.

The Jewish Independent stands alone in character and in policy. It seeks to cover the news and achievements of all the Jewish people and it does this in a way that leaves little to be desired.
Indeed, truly speaking, loving your hats is, and should be, very significant to all ladies of fashion. Husbands and sweethearts also are oftimes more concerned than they appear to be. There is a vast difference between MERE hats and hats you truly love. To love your hats does not mean simply to pay liberally for them. But, after giving your precious time to their selection, to be ABSOLUTELY satisfied, to know that they are NOT mere conjectures, but masterpieces produced by master minds in a master shopp and of materials made by masters of the art, harmoniously combined in the most pleasing proportions, and scientifically conforming to the individual for whom designed, making absolute their correctness of style and workmanship. The above essentials are necessary for truly lovely and smart hats and no shopp in the country is equipped, qualified and able to offer them better than LANGER’S, importers of French Millinery. A true master shopp replete with art and skill.

Council of Jewish Women

The Cleveland Council of Jewish Women is the result of the amalgamation of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, the Ladies' Sewing Society, the Personal Service Society and the Progressive Mission. This took place about twenty years ago, when a beginning was made with 271 members. Rabbi Moses J. Gries was the first president. In 1896 Mrs. Moses B. Schwab was elected to that office and ten years later she was succeeded by Mrs. Abraham Wiener, who served in that capacity until the election of Mrs. Siegmund Joseph, who in turn was succeeded by Mrs. Nathan Rosewater and Mrs. Julius Fryer, the present executive.

In February, 1896, the Cleveland Council became a section of the National Council, resigning from that body in June, 1908.

The Cleveland Council does a tremendous amount of work, the Council Educational Alliance on Woodland avenue, one of the most complete settlement houses in the world, being its principal charge. This building, formerly the Excelsior Club, represents in land, building and equipment about $100,000.

The first Alliance building was the princely gift of Mr. M. Joseph, absolutely without conditions.

Through the generosity of Mr. Samuel D. Wise, who gave for that purpose nearly twenty acres of land on the lake shore east, including the cottages and houses on the property, a summer camp for boys and girls and known as Camp Wise, was opened in 1907.

The Council is also conducting the Martha House, named after Martha Wolfenstein, as a home for working girls. The Home is located on East Forty-sixth street.

For the Best of Homes and Buildings

The number of owners of fine homes throughout the United States, who use the Mouat Vapor System, is steadily increasing. Architects are quick to see the advantage of anything that will help to make an ideal home and those who have knowledge about the Mouat System are specifying it as the best heating system that money can buy. The greatest evidence of this system's merit, however, is the fact that seven prominent Cleveland architects have installed it in their own homes.

Naturally there must be good reasons for these results, and there are many of them. The Mouat System is very quick to act, furnishes just the amount of heat wanted on all occasions, and is recognized as a fuel conserver. On account of its automatic operation, working under the natural laws of heat expansion and gravity, and because one firing of hard coal usually lasts 12 hours, it requires little attention and produces the best of results.

Satisfactory graduation of heat is guaranteed. Each individual can readily regulate the heat in his own room without affecting other rooms. No heat is generated that is not used.

A postcard will bring an interesting booklet which contains more facts about the Mouat System—a system that can give you heating comfort such as you have always wanted. Write today.

Last week I called on an advertising manager whose wares are used in every progressive home.

He told me his advertising appropriation for the year was already settled for distribution.

I reasoned out with him the special pulling qualities of The Jewish Independent, giving a few of its records along traceable lines, telling him what other advertisers told me it had done for them, bringing the story down to one of his competitors.

In answer said he: "You have told me a convincing story, but the Board of Directors have already decided."

"Then," replied I, "you are in the position of the old darkey who went fishing for eels.

"Getting a bite, and hauling out a magnificent bass, he looked at it in disgust, unhooked and flung it back, saying: 'Wen I goes a-eeelin' I gone a-eeelin'!""

Taking the “T” Out of Can’t

“It can’t be done!” Many predicted disaster. Few prophesied success. Nevertheless The Jewish Independent pushed all obstacles aside and today stands alone in its field, the “Greatest Jewish Newspaper in America.” Are you reading it?

Excelsior Club

Here is the story of the Excelsior Club:

The Excelsior Club grew to its present proportions from a humble beginning.

Cleveland, in 1872, was a small town. Her Jewish population was quite large, but scattered, and Cleveland Jews needed a social club. Mr. Solomon Austrian and a few others decided to call a meeting to organize a club for the promotion of the social and intellectual side of the Jew. Twenty-two responded, and the meeting was held October 20, 1872, in Halle's Hall, on Superior street, nearly opposite the old city hall. Mr. A. Wiener was chairman, and Mr. Meyer Weil the secretary. Two weeks later another meeting was held; thirty had then signed the membership roll. At a subsequent meeting a name was chosen.

December of the same year, the first permanent officers were elected as follows: President, S. Austrian; vice president, A. Wiener; secretary, B. Landau; treasurer, J. Sloss. Directors: Dr. James Horwitz, Meyer Weil, Ferdinand Strauss.

That was the beginning of the Excelsior Club.

After the inaugural ball, which was held in December, 1872, arrangements were made for the use of Weisgerber's Hall, Prospect and Brownell, where the halls and other social entertainments of the club were given. But at that time the club had no permanent home.

A little less than a year later, in October, 1873, the Corlett frame building on Erie street, now East Ninth, at the corner of Summer, next to Erie cemetery, was leased at $1,000 a year. This little house was fitted up for club requirements, consisting of a ball room, stage, reading room, parlors, dining room and the like, but in May, 1875, it was decided to find more commodious quarters, and arrangements were entered into with Mr. L. Halle, who was about to erect a building at the corner of...
Woodland and Erie, the second and third floors of which were fitted up to suit the needs of the growing club.

In October, 1877, when the club membership list had grown to seventy, it took possession.

This remained the home of the club for more than ten years. The present home of the Educational Alliance was built by the Excelsior Club and upon property that had been owned by Dr. Horwitz, on Woodland avenue, opposite East Thirty-eighth street, and was opened with a stag party, December 24, 1887.

But the first real event was a New Year's ball, December 31, of that year.

There were innovations in plenty with the advent of the elegant new club house. Bowling clubs flourished, open air concerts were given, a gymnasium was introduced and dramatic and literary entertainments were constant features.

Excelsior Club IV, being on so prominent thoroughfare and a new building, is well known by all Clevelanders. It has few if any peers among club buildings in the United States. The cost of the building was $150,000. The property which has been purchased for $30,000, is 600 feet in depth, and fronts 100 feet on the north side of Euclid avenue, some 400 feet east of Wade Park entrance, and a short distance west of the entrance to the College for Women.

There are more people in Cleveland who read The Jewish Independent than read any other Jewish newspaper.
Independent Order B’nai B’rith
Cleveland Lodge, No. 16

Early in B’nai B’rith history Cleveland had three lodges, Solomon Lodge, No. 16; Montefiore Lodge, No. 54, and Baron de Hirsch Lodge, No. 454. The last named of these was organized in 1896 and in the course of its career had the following presidents:

1896—Dr. Marcus Rosenwasser.
1897—Rabbi Moses J. Gries.
1898—Michael A. Moses.
1899—Samuel Friedman.
1900—First half, Herman S. Kanton.
1901—First half, Charles A. Klein.
1901—Second half, Nathan Loeser.

Solomon is the pioneer among the Cleveland lodges and Montefiore a fairly close second. In course of time, the members of these lodges decided to have one strong organization, so steps were taken to consolidate. On Sunday, February 9, 1902, in the chapel of the Jewish Orphan Asylum, the members of these three lodges were made one. Jacob Furth, of St. Louis, then vice president of the Order, was in charge of the consolidation exercises. The united lodge was named Cleveland Lodge, No. 16, of which the first officers were: J. C. Bloch, president; A. Lewenthal, vice president; Dr. S. Wolfenstein, monitor; Joseph Hays, treasurer; Jonas Cohen, recording secretary; Dr. Leo Wolfenstein, financial secretary.

Since the consolidation Cleveland Lodge had the following presidents:

1902—Joseph C. Bloch.
1903—Sig. Shlesinger.
1904—E. A. Schwarzenberg.
October 10, 1915, Cleveland Lodge began a ten day campaign for an additional thousand members. The "drive" was conducted by the then vice president, William R. Weidenthal. There were ten teams of ten members and one captain in each team, and on the memorable night at the Hotel Statler at the close of the campaign a banquet was given at which Hon. Simon Wolf, of Washington, was the guest of honor. Initiations preceded the banquet. A thousand members were added to the membership, making a total of 1500.

Recently the Jewish Men's Association was amalgamated with the Cleveland Lodge, I. O. B. B., the members of the former not having reached the age of twenty-one remaining a distinct organization, though a B'nai B'rith adjunct.

Flushed with victory over the membership campaign, the lodge went one step further and acquired ownership of the leasehold of the Standard Club property on Euclid avenue, corner of East Seventy-first street, one of the most desirable spots for the purpose in Cleveland. The building is complete in every detail and fitted for the purpose of a B'nai B'rith Home. Ownership is through the Fraternal Building Company, a stock concern composed of B'nai B'rith members. At the first meeting in the new home, $20,000 in stock was subscribed, which paid for the building, all the contents and the leasehold. At this writing efforts are on foot to purchase the land, which has a value of $80,000.

District Grand Lodge, No. 2, of which Mr. Samuel J. Kornhauser, of Cleveland, is the president, will meet in this city the latter part of May, 1916, when the capacity of the new B'nai B'rith Home will be given a thorough test.

There are 100,000 Jews in Cleveland, and they do not all read the same newspaper. Neither do they wear the same kind of hat, go to the same synagogue, or vote the same ticket.

If you really want to "cover" the territory, use The Jewish Independent. "The Best Jewish Newspaper in America."

Hungarian Benevolent and Social Union

Some thirty-five years ago, when the Hungarian population of Cleveland was comparatively small, they gave their "affairs" in Schieley's Hall, St. Clair avenue; Gesangverein Hall, then on Ontario street near High; Hale's Hall on Superior avenue, or National Hall on the Public Square.

About that time the younger element of the Hungarians gave a masquerade and the day after they were so elated over their success that they considered the advisability of starting a permanent organization. Henry Newman and others mingled freely among the Hungarians, obtained a large number of signatures, and the Hungarian Benevolent and Social Union was the result.

A permanent organization was effected in 1881 and the first officers elected were as follows: Ben. Schlesinger, president; H. Sandrovitz, vice president; Louis Meth, recording secretary; A. Klein, financial secretary; J. Farkash, treasurer.

Here are the officers for 1882: Henry A. Newman, president; A. J. Haas, vice president; J. C. Bloch, recording secretary; A. Klein, financial secretary; J. Farkash, treasurer.

The organization has prospered amazingly since, new acquisitions being recruited constantly. The object, as the name indicates, is social and benevolent, and during the thirty-five years of the society's existence it has been a great factor for good in the community. Meetings are held the second Sunday of each month.

Independent Aid Society

Twenty years ago Mr. Joseph Folkman requested a few of his friends to meet at his residence, 161 Orange St., for the purpose of discussing the advisability of instituting a new society and the Cleveland Independent Aid Society, now increased to 500 representative men, was the result. The growth of the society necessitated a change of its meeting place from Joseph's Folkman's kitchen, on Orange St., to its present quarters. The society was named by its father, Joseph Folkman, and its first recording secretary, Herman Feniger. The objects are to help afflicted members; to assist the worthy poor, and to aid charitable organizations and beneficial institutions.

The first officers were: Joseph Folkman, president; Adolph Spitz, vice president; Herman Feniger, recording secretary; Adolph Sicherman, financial secretary; David Friedman, treasurer; Jacob Engel, L. Feuer; M. M. Neuman, trustees.

The tenth anniversary of the society was commemorated at the Chamber of Commerce, October 31, 1905. Ten years later the twentieth anniversary was observed with a dance in Chamber of Commerce Hall.

Hungarian Aid Society

Mr. Morris Black, father of Colonel Louis Black and of the late Joseph Black, was one of the city's Hungarian pioneers, and at the organization of the Hungarian Aid Society, in 1863, was elected the first president. The celebration of its golden jubilee took place in the Eagles' Hall, October 28, 1913.

The society was organized in a little red brick house located at what was then the corner of Hamilton and Erie streets, in the home of Mr. Black. The first officers elected at that meeting were: Morris Black, president; David Black, vice president; Joseph Perley, recording secretary; Herman Sampliner, treasurer; Dr. James Horwitz, trustees.

On the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary, Henry A. Newman was the toastmaster. An address was delivered by Colonel Louis Black, which was reminiscent of the early days, when the society was organized in his fathers' home. The other speakers were Dr. Aaron Hahn, Mr. Joseph H. Sampliner, Dr. Harris Cooley, Mr. Ben J. Schwartz and Mr. S. H. Littman. The present officers are:

- A. H. Klaus
  Financial Secretary

- E. Frankel

Ladies' Hungarian Aid Society

Only recently the Ladies' Hungarian Aid Society celebrated its golden jubilee at Baumoel's. The society was organized in 1865, when the Hungarians of the city were a mere handful. Mrs. Morris Black, Mrs. James Horwitz, Mrs. Theresa Loveman, Mrs. J. S. Perley, Mrs. Jacob Cohen and Mrs. Judd were among the charter members.

Charity was the watchword of the society from the very beginning, not only to its own members in distress, but to others, irrespective of...

Second—To assure the community a fair and equitable distribution of the funds collected, to the end that the greatest number may benefit in the largest measure possible.
Third—To insure to the public a full and detailed accounting of the distribution of funds, both of the central body and the constituent organizations.
Fourth—To enable the institutions to give their full time and attention to the work before them.
Fifth—To investigate proposed philanthropic undertakings and advise as to their necessity or merit.
Sixth—To represent for the community an organized effort for good.
The Federation was organized about thirteen years ago with the following officers: Charles Eisenman, president; Julius Feiss, vice president; Meyer Weil, treasurer; Edward M. Baker, secretary.
It will be noticed that with the exception of Meyer Weil, who passed away, these officers have been at the helm since the Federation organized.

Mount Sinai Hospital

Early in the summer of 1916 the new Mount Sinai Hospital, located on an elevation, overlooking Wade Park and East One Hundred and fifth street on the East and Ansel road on the West, will be ready to receive patients. Though Jewish, it will harbor patients of all religious faiths. A kosher kitchen for the Orthodox patients will be one of the features. Mr. Frank E. Chapman, the superintendent, is already in charge and attends to the proper furnishing of what promises to be one of the greatest institutions of the kind in the country.

The memorable campaign for $500,000 for the purchase of the property and the construction of the building was swift and wonderfully successful, Mr. Baruch Mahler, the chairman of the Finance Committee, being the man behind the gun, who managed the financial end of the campaign.

The first meeting to discuss the advisability of building a new hospital and devising ways and means was held December 9, 1912. When time for action was at hand the committee went at it with such enthusiasm and vim that within the short time of a few months, without publicity, incident to campaigns similar to this about one-half million dollars was pledged by the Jewish community of this city. Practically for the first time in the history of Cleveland all the elements among the Jewish people were united in a bond of fellowship and brotherhood including the Orthodox, Reform and Conservative, and all pitched in for one grand united effort and again illustrated the old adage that there is strength in union.

The quick work of the beginning of the actual construction is due to the efforts of Chairman S. P. Halle, of the Building Committee, who has made a close study of hospital construction here and in other cities.

George P. Post & Sons, of New York, are the architects, who have been working in conjunction with Dr. S. S. Goldwater as expert. Dr. Goldwater is the superintendent of Mount Sinai Hospital, New York, and recently resigned as health commissioner of New York.

The hospital proper will contain 258 beds and patients of all creeds or of no creed will be admitted. There will be a children's ward, also a maternity ward and the entire building will be strictly fireproof. The construction is of brick, concrete and steel. The main building is four stories high and there are three wings of three stories, a power house, laundry, etc., of two stories. The estimated cost of the ground, building and furnishings is $600,000.

The first shovelful of earth was lifted on Sunday, February 7, 1915, by President Feiss, in the presence of the board and the cornerstone was laid on Sunday, June 6, 1915. Mayor Newton D. Baker and Mr. Paul Feiss, president of the Hospital Association, made the principal addresses. The invocation was given by Dr. S. Wolfenstein. The cornerstone was laid by Mr. B. Mahler, chairman of the Finance Committee; Mr. Salmon P. Halle, chairman of the Building Committee, and Mr. Charles Eisenman, president of the Federation of Jewish Charities.

Mayor Blankenburg, of Philadelphia, was present at the ceremony.

Jewish Women's Hospital Society

A group of enthusiastic young women originated the Jewish hospital project. The organization is still in existence and its members are working with as much enthusiasm for Mount Sinai as they did at the time of its inception many years ago. After Herculean efforts on the part of the members, encouraged by the late Herman Sampliner, a Jewish hospital was insured, and May 3, 1903, Mount Sinai Hospital, on East Thirty-seventh street, was dedicated. The trustees of this institution will, after the dedication of the new hospital, turn over this property to the trustees of the new hospital.

The Jewish Women's Hospital Society, organized in 1892, under the name of the Young Women's Hospital Society, was founded by Mr. Herman Sampliner, who was also its first president. The first woman president was Mrs. L. Rich.

East Side Free Dispensary

The East Side Free Dispensary was opened at 2433 E. 55th St. in 1913. It was founded by a staff of thirteen physicians, who undertook to give their time and money to support a dispensary where the Jewish poor of the city, who had been accused of "dispensary abuse" by the other free dispensaries, could go for free treatment and cared for in a sympathetic manner. There are at the present time twenty-nine Jewish physicians who visit the dispensary. During the past year 10,000 visits have been made by patients. A social service director does the welfare work and keeps in close touch with the condition of the patients.

The following are the officers and trustees: Jay Iglaucr, president; Dr. P. A. Jacobs, secretary; Fred C. Keeler, treasurer; Dr. W. G. Stern, president of medical staff; Dr. P. A. Jacobs, secretary of medical staff; Miss Malvina Friedman, social service director; Morris Rohrheimer, Alex Printz, Ben Corday, J. L. Einstein, Dr. A. Steiner, Dr. J. Goldfinger, Dr. M. E. Blahd, Dr. S. L. Bernstein.

Hebrew Relief Association

Early in the 50's the first Jewish charity society was organized in Cleveland, but the Hebrew Relief Association, which undertakes to do the combined work of most of the local Jewish charities, was organized about 1875. The association has a home of its own on East Fortieth street near Woodland avenue, the business being conducted in the Isaac N. Glauber memorial building, the gift of the Glauber brothers, which was dedicated December 5, 1911. Mr. Alex S. Newman, the superintendent, has been acting in that capacity a number of years. From his last annual report this extract will illustrate the kind of cases the association has to deal with:

"Our assistance is, as a rule, given chiefly on account of such causes as tuberculosis, desertion, general sickness, widows and dependent child-dren, old age and debility, accidents and physical and mental defects. From the nature of all these it will be readily apparent that material assistance, frequently long continued, is an indispensable necessity, and that industrial conditions, no matter how excellent, cannot be taken advantage of by these unfortunates."

These figures are taken from the last available financial report:
Received from Federation, $32,985.94; received from other sources, $2,191.28; total, $35,177.22. Total disbursements, $35,177.22.

Jewish Orphan Asylum

The Jewish Orphan Asylum is a monument to the Independent Order B'nai B'rith, now under the jurisdiction of District Grand Lodges 2 and 6. It was during the Civil War when the first steps were taken by District No. 2, then having a membership of 2,200, to build an orphan asylum. In 1863 it was decided to tax each member $1 a year and the sum amounted to $10,000 in four years. At the district convention, held in Milwaukee, in 1867, it was decided to use this fund as a nucleus for an orphan asylum. Trustees were elected, they met in New York in July, 1867; again in St. Louis, February 4, 1868, where it was decided to buy what was then known as the Cleveland Water Cure property. Trustee Chairman Jacob Aurb appointed a committee of members of Cleveland B'nai B'rith lodges to buy the property, which they did for $25,000. This committee consisted of Abraham Wiener, S. Newmark, Kaufman Hays, Jacob Rohrheimer and Jacob Goldsmith. This property had then a frontage of 165 feet on Woodland avenue, with a depth of 680 feet, containing a large brick building. March 3, 1868, the trustees took possession and the property was deeded to District Grand Lodge No. 2. Next day additional property, with a frontage of 165 on Woodland avenue, was bought for $6,000. The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge was held in Cleveland, in July, 1868, and the Water Cure property was deeded to District Grand Lodge No. 2. The trustees then held an annual meeting of the Grand Lodge in Cleveland, in July, 1868, and the Water Cure property was deeded to District Grand Lodge No. 2.

ABRAHAM WIENER.  KAUFMAN HAYS.
Two Well Known Clevelanders who Bought the Orphan Asylum Property.
Cure building, converted into an orphan asylum, was formally dedicated July 14, 1868. The dedication ceremonies were impressive. Members of the Order B'nai B'rith marched with music and banners to the asylum grounds and among the orators were Dr. Isaac M. Wise, of Cincinnati; Mayor Stephen Buhrer, of Cleveland; President Bamberger, of the Grand Lodge; Miss Theresia Aub, of Cincinnati; Benjamin F. Peixotto; Isidor Bush, and Simon Wolf.

During the session of the Grand Lodge, the following trustees were chosen: Abraham Aub, President; Abraham Wiener, vice president; Jacob Rohrheimer, treasurer; William Kriegshaber, secretary; Isidor Bush, and Henry Greenebaum.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Aufrecht, of Cincinnati, were elected the first superintendent and matron, and September 29, 1868, the doors were thrown open for the first orphan children.

Six years later a new wing was built. Later Recording Secretary Buchman took charge and an industrial department was added. In 1879 Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Wolfenstein became superintendent and matron. Mrs. Wolenstein passed away July 25, 1885. In 1880 more land was bought and the Abraham Aub Memorial School was dedicated. In 1881 Mr. A. Wiener was elected president.

On the twentieth anniversary, in 1888, the present beautiful new building was dedicated. The manual training school was opened in 1892.

Numerous improvements have since been made and under the guiding hand of Dr. Wolfenstein, it acquired the reputation of being the most perfect institution of the kind in the land. A short time ago a wonderful demonstration in Dr. Wolfenstein's honor was given, when members of the J. O. A. Alumni Association and other friends of the institution gathered here from all over the country. Since his resignation, Dr Wolfenstein has lived in retirement, but continues to take the same interest in the Home he has always done.

Following Dr. Wolfenstein's resignation Rabbi Simon Peiser was elected superintendent and Mrs. Peiser, matron.

The plan to remove the institution into the country and conduct it on the cottage plan has all but materialized and it is hoped to celebrate the semi-centennial in 1918 in the country.

The officers of the Jewish Orphan Asylum Alumni are: President, Joseph Dembe; vice president, Aaron Wirpel; secretary and treasurer, Miss Celia Marcus.

Educational League

The Educational League is an organization established for the purpose of contributing to the culture, efficiency and good citizenship of this nation by affording pecuniary aid for higher education to deserving orphans of genius. It seeks to open the door of opportunity to the talented orphan boy or girl who early in life is bereft of father or mother and sometimes both.

It was organized in 1896 at the Jewish Orphan Asylum at the suggestion of Mr. Martin A. Marks. The idea was given endorsement by the trustees and directors of the asylum, and shortly afterwards by various district lodges of the Order B'nai Brith, until gradually the aims and purposes of the League became known.

In 1899 the League extended its first aid to a beneficiary who graduated from a western medical college with the highest honors of his class. Each succeeding year has added to the number, until today the League numbers sixty young men and women of high mental ability, equipped to take their places in life beside their more fortunate sisters and brothers. They are living testimonials to the foresight and generosity of those who planned and sustained the League.

Council Educational Alliance

The first Council Educational Alliance at Woodland avenue, near East Twenty-second street, was the gift of Mr. Moritz Joseph. It had been the Joseph home and the owner turned it over for Educational Alliance purposes unconditionally. The home was sold at the time the Jewish community moved further east and the present beautiful building, formerly the home of the Excelsior Club, also located on Woodland avenue, opposite East Thirty-eighth street, was bought and remodeled for a modern, ideal settlement house. The headworkers of the Alliance from the time of its organization up to the present were as follows: Isaac Spectorsky, Henry Woolf, Max Carton, Emanuel Sternheim and the present efficient headworker, Walter Leo Solomon. The house has a large number of clubs for boys and girls and grown folks. It has baths for men and women, swimming classes for boys and girls, a library, pool room, dramatic clubs, a magnificent auditorium, game rooms, sewing and cooking classes, music classes, gymnasium, domestic science classes, dancing classes, millinery classes, printing classes, art classes. There is also a Mothers' Club, a Yiddish Dramatic Club and scores and scores of other activities.

Headworker Solomon's idea of a settlement house, taken from an introduction to his last annual report, is this:

"The Council Educational Alliance during the past year has addressed itself particularly to two of the many problems confronting it. First, to build within our doors that subtle and invaluable something called House Spirit; and, second, to bring to the community at large a realization of our belief that the Council Educational Alliance is not a place where one pockets one's self respect and gets something for nothing."

Miss Ida Schott is doing good work as director of the girls' and women's work.

The Martha House, a home where self-supporting girls can live comfortably for a nominal fee, is supported by the Council. Its capacity is taxed to the utmost. Infant Orphans’ Home

In 1880 a few women banded together for the purpose of providing a sheltering home for infants. In the same year a charter was granted under the name of the Infant Orphan’s Mother Society. After a hard struggle the society succeeded in acquiring a large house and lot on Forest street, now East Thirty-seventh street, for $5000. August 4, 1901, the Home was dedicated. Three days after the opening the first child was admitted. When the Federation of Jewish Charities was organized, the Home was asked to become affiliated with it, which was agreed to. The inmates increased to such an extent that the Home was compelled by necessity to increase its housing capacity and it was decided to purchase the Goldsmith property at 2200 East Fortieth street, where the Home is now located, for $14,000. The Home cares annually for over 200 children, the average during a year being sixty, at a cost of about $11,000. The society now has over 900 paying members and holds monthly meetings. At the annual meeting, besides the officers for the society, a Board of Directors to govern the Home is elected. Individual contributions received are placed in a sinking fund, which in a few years may grow large enough to enable the Home to become self-supporting.

WHY WE ADVERTISE

Not simply to prove to advertisers that we believe in taking our own medicine; not simply to fill up space in our own publication;

But we DO advertise to convince merchants that The Jewish Independent offers enormous possibilities; that it is responsive to a consistent advertising campaign; that every merchant can, at a reasonable cost, reach most of the Jewish people of Cleveland.

Montefiore Home for Aged

The Sir Moses Montefiore Home for Aged and Infirm Israelites, located at the corner of Woodland avenue and East Fifty-fifth street, is one of the most complete institutions of the kind in the world. It is cheerful and home-like and just the sort of home the aged yearn for in their declining years. The Home harbors both sexes, even married couples.

For years there has been an agitation to sell the property and build out in the country near Cleveland, but this was always opposed by the inmates, and their wishes are respected.

"Too lonesome," they said.

In the summer they love to sit on the broad lawn and watch the traffic on the busy corners. And, besides, they are among their own people, who frequently entertain them with dinners, wine and cigars.

District No. 4, Kesher Shel Barzel, a fraternal order, now a thing of the past, founded the Home in 1881, Hon. Simon Wolf, of Washington, being one of the leading spirits at the time of its inception and dedication. The Home harbors on the average sixty inmates.

The Home sustained a serious loss through the death of Treasurer Jacob Mandelbaum, who passed away December 16.

Another of Cleveland's charities is the Hebrew Free Loan Association, founded a number of years ago and recently reorganized on a more businesslike basis, which loans money without interest to men and women who are anxious to establish themselves in some small business. In other words it helps the poor to help themselves and prevents them from pauperizing themselves. The association has a large membership, the members' dues making it possible to carry out the object the association was organized for. The officers, trustees and standing committees are as follows:

Hebrew School and Institute

The Talmud Torah, also known as the Cleveland Hebrew School and Institute, is the culmination of many years of hard work coupled with enthusiasm on the part of the Orthodox Jewish community. Rabbi S. Margolies was the leader of the movement and he had many ardent followers. Money was raised in various ways, such as donations, bazaars and other forms of entertainment. It was a difficult task, but success finally crowned their efforts. The institute is located on East Fifty-fifth street, at Portland avenue, in buildings formerly used as a family hotel. The projectors hope that in course of time these buildings will give way to modern brick structures.

The original Talmud Torah is on East Thirty-fifth street, formerly Longwood avenue, near Scovill, and many classes in Hebrew, beginners... and advanced, including the Talmud, are being taught in both the East Thirty-fifth and East Fifty-fifth street institutions. The former is called the branch school.

ADVANCING UNDER FIRE

When a newspaper forges ahead in these troublous days, it has passed the supreme test. It amounts to promotion on the field. More people than ever are reading The Jewish Independent. In advertising it has climbed steadily.
There are 100,000 Jews in Cleveland, and they do not all read the same newspaper. Neither do they wear the same kind of hat, go to the same synagogue, or vote the same ticket.

If you really want to "cover" the territory, use The Jewish Independent. "The Best Jewish Newspaper in America."

WHY WE ADVERTISE

Not simply to prove to advertisers that we believe in taking our own medicine; not simply to fill up space in our own publication;

But we DO advertise to convince merchants that The Jewish Independent offers enormous possibilities; that it is responsive to a consistent advertising campaign; that every merchant can, at a reasonable cost, reach most of the Jewish people of Cleveland.

During an experience meeting at a colored church, a brother who had recently been converted, arose and said:

"Brethren, I'se been a sinner—a low-down, contemptible, black-hearted sinner—dese many yeahs, and I nebber knowed it."

"Don't let that fac' molest you any, brudder," put in a sympathetic old deacon. "De rest ob us knowed it all the time."

Each new advertiser who finally tries The Jewish Independent and finds that results roll in with regularity and promptness, flatters himself that he has discovered a new medium. He has not. The rest of us knew it all the time.
The Jewish Independent

Are you reading The Jewish Independent?
If not, you have something to live for.

Some ten years ago The Jewish Independent took its place among Cleveland's publications. Its constructive efforts in behalf of Jews and Judaism and the championing of vital issues without coddling to any peculiar theory or special group, branch or issue, has won for it immediate recognition, not only in the field of local, but of national journalism.

The Jewish Independent was founded in March, 1906, by Aaron W. Newman as business manager and Maurice Weidenthal as editor. The last named has been on the editorial helm ever since and for a number of years William R. Weidenthal has been and is at the present time the business manager and at the head of the advertising department. The Jewish Independent adhered to its policy of being independent ever since Vol. I, No. 1, and has never once deviated from that path. It has always pointed out what it believed to be the best in every Jewish movement and those among its readers who have not shared all these views at all times have been ready to concede that its judgment has always been honest, dictated by the best motives.

The Jewish Independent has many victories to its credit. Its tremendous fight against "The Merchant of Venice" in the public schools has become not only nationwide, but worldwide. When The Jewish Independent started its crusade against the vicious Hebrew comedian, it was regarded by many of its friends and contemporaries as quixotic, but the struggle was finally taken up and pursued vigorously by nearly all the national Jewish organizations of the country.

To enumerate these and other victories at this time would be time and energy wasted, for all of the many thousands of Jewish Independent readers in this and other cities are familiar with them.

The Jewish Independent has always advised against the "turning of the other cheek" when assailed, but never advocated the doctrine of strutting about with a chip on your shoulder. It never knew any distinction between Jew and Jew, except the good Jew and the bad Jew. And to conclude:
If you are not already a subscriber, this is the time to get in line.

Taking the "T" Out of Can't

"It can't be done!" Many predicted disaster. Few prophesied success. Nevertheless The Jewish Independent pushed all obstacles aside and today stands alone in its field, the "Greatest Jewish Newspaper in America." Are you reading it?
JOSEPH DAVID.

Joseph David was born in 1866, and was left an orphan at the age of five. At eleven he migrated on foot from the border line of Russia, thence to Halle, in Saxony, and through the good offices of a charitable institution, obtained passage to Frankfort-on-the-Main. After four years' of study in the seminary of Funkstadt, he received the degree of the Science of Cabala, Psychology and Metaphysics. Then followed two years devoted to teaching Hebrew history in Darmstadt. Then he came to the United States and began chemical work in the laboratory department of the Briar Hill Iron and Coal Co., Briar Hill, O.

In 1893 he arrived in Cleveland, where he began contracting, under the supervision of Architect Barnum, who constructed the foundation of the Goodrich House and the Caxton building. Among other contracts, Mr. David constructed the first reinforced concrete arch in Cuyahoga county, under the Evers Engineering Co. He also filled other contracts under the Osborn Engineering Co. On one occasion an accident happened to an engineer's instrument for the Illinois Central Railroad, and Mr. David carried a three mile grade, with all the curves and reverse curves, in his eye with marvelous accuracy—in fact, a subsequent survey proved his grade to be perfect within two-tenths per station.

A letter from the secretary of the Society of Engineers of U. S. A. substantiated his qualifications for the Panama Canal construction. Presenting himself to Colonel Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama Canal, he asked employment purely on his competency and efficiency, with no political favor. This opportunity was given him with the result that after the completion of his services Mr. David was presented with a medal by F. C. Boggs, major, corps of engineers, U. S. A., for excellent service.

At this time, the financial field attracted Mr. David's attention. The great achievement credited to him is his introduction of the system of second mortgage loans, of which over $16,000,000 worth are in Cleveland alone. He, by this plan, has shown thousands of families how to survive misfortune.

His principle of politics is novel—for he stated to Judge Neff: "Your defeat is not due to incompetence—but due rather to the fact that when the scales of justice are given to a man, party politics are ignored, neither race nor creed enters into the influences of choice—a judge must be non-partisan."

Mr. David is a member of B'nai B'rith and other fraternal organizations.

RABBI MOSES J. GRIES.

Rabbi Moses J. Gries was born in Newark, N. J., January 25, 1868. At the age of eleven he graduated from the grammar school, the youngest graduate in the history of his native city.

At the age of thirteen he entered the Hebrew Union College, for eight years attended the college, at the same time studied four years at Hughes High School, and four years at McMicken University, now the University of Cincinnati. At the age of twenty-one he graduated from the university as Bachelor of Letters, and in the same year was ordained as rabbi by his friend and teacher, Isaac Mayer Wise.

His active work in the ministry was begun in Chattanooga, Tenn., in the fall of 1889, where he continued until called to Cleveland, in November, 1892.

Under his leadership the Temple advanced to the third position in number among the congregations of the country. The Temple Sabbath school is the largest Jewish congregational school in the world. Rabbi Gries has rendered faithful service to the Temple and to Cleveland—he has influenced Jews and non-Jews. He has given himself to Jewish and non-sectarian charities. His voice has been eagerly heard upon all important public occasions.
About two years ago the Misses Carman and Toot, Graduate Nurses who were trained at the Lakeside Hospital, Cleveland, and the Lyin-In Hospital, New York City, commenced the work of furnishing Sterling Obstetrical Supplies for the Prospective Mother. Their wide and varied experiences proved their ample fitness for so vital a task and today they are able to furnish the most practical outfit on the market.

That there was a needed and urgent demand for this class of supplies has been thoroughly proven by the fast increasing call for their product.

The time is past when the life of a mother can be jeopardized in any way—much less because of the lack of properly sterilized supplies—and the Misses Carman and Toot have filled this long felt want.

Modern surgery is constantly reducing the mortality rate of operated patients, and as the principles of sanitation and hygiene are being applied by preventive medicine, the death rate is lowered.

Indeed, every department of medical science, with the exception of Obstetrics, deserves our utmost praise for the steps taken to conserve human life.

The really great wonder is that more mothers have not been sacrificed because of the using of any sort of improvised supplies—sterilized in a kitchen oven or otherwise carelessly made.

These two nurses determined to put on the market an outfit that was absolutely clean and wholesome—in a word "sterile" in all the name implies. It is thus that the attending nurse, who has no facilities for providing "sterile supplies," is relieved of much important work and can give more attention to the patient. The untiring efforts of Misses Carman and Toot are very much appreciated by physicians and nurses of Cleveland and vicinity, where their supplies are well known and largely used.

The Carman-Toot Sterile Supplies are fast gaining a wide reputation in many cities outside of Cleveland, where physicians and nurses who believe in the absolute necessity of sterilization are highly recommending them.

Patients are enthusiastic over the results achieved and are telling their friends of the splendid efficiency and economy and the assurance of absolute safety by using them.

That The Carman-Toot Company has had marked success in supplying their goods is the best evidence of the careful and accurate methods employed in their manufacturing plant.

Although a very heavy expense has been entailed in making their product the best, their establishment is flourishing because of the fact that their goods are superior to any other like product on the market.

To educate expectant mothers to a new order of cleanliness and sterilization and to further educate them to pay a price that is in some way commensurate for good services rendered is a worthy task for all nurses.

The nurse who is fortified with one of The Carman-Toot outfits is "armed to the teeth"—as they represent absolute safety.

MARTIN A. MARKS.

Martin A. Marks, secretary and treasurer of the Cleveland Worsted Mills Company, a native of Madison, Ind., was born February 6, 1853. He was reared in his native town and attended the public schools until thirteen years of age, when the necessity of assisting his father compelled him to lay aside his school books. He had cherished the idea of securing a good education, however, and had selected the legal profession as a life work, but had to face the disappointment of not being able to carry out his plans, on account of entering his father's store. Finally he became a member of his father's firm and took a prominent part in the business life of Madison. He was also closely identified with public affairs and originated many novel plans for municipal progress and development, displaying a public spirit second to none in the town. He also took a keen interest in charitable work, even as a young man. He was elected a director of the Jewish Orphan Asylum, of Cleveland, and while in attendance at one of its business meetings in this city he became acquainted with Miss Belle Hays, whom he made his wife October 28, 1885.

After his marriage Mr. Marks continued to reside for more than a year in Madison, and then, in February, 1887, he removed to Cleveland, where he has ever since made his home. He became a member of the firm of Klein, Marks & Co., wholesale dealers in men's furnishing goods. In 1890 he severed his connection with that firm to associate himself with the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company. After eighteen months he was offered and accepted the position of manager for northwestern Ohio of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York. Four fourteen years he continued in this field and then resigned because of ill health. Heeding the advice of his physicians, he went to Europe and spent a number of months abroad in travel. He returned to Cleveland greatly improved and soon after again took up active business. For many years Mr. Marks has been identified with the Cleveland Worsted Mills Company. July 11, 1902, he was elected a director, and April 13, 1904, he was made a member of the Executive Committee. January 25, 1905, he became assistant secretary and treasurer, and January 31, 1906, was chosen secretary and treasurer, in which capacity he continues to serve, of the largest independent worsted mill in the United States. He is also a director of the First National Bank and a member of its Finance Committee, a director and member of the Executive Committee of the Guardian Savings and Trust Company, and is well known in club circles as a member of the Excelsior, Oakwood, Cleveland Athletic and Cleveland Automobile Clubs, of this city. He was a member and officer of Union Lodge, No. 2, A. F. and A. M., at Madison; Madison Chapter, No. 1, R. A. M., and also the Council at that place.

Mr. Marks was one of the founders of the National Jewish Hospital for Consumptives, at Denver, Colo.; a member of the Independent Order B'nai B'rith, and is past president of the district. He is likewise one of the prominent members in this country of the Improved Order of Red Men, a fraternal order having over 500,000 members.

He was one of the founders of the Visiting Nurses' Association, of Cleveland; organized and devised the plan of the Educational League for the higher education of orphans, of which he is the president; is a member of the Executive Board of the Cleveland Humane Society; is the vice president of the National Jewish Conference of Charities, and honorary president of the Temple.

Mayor Baehr, of Cleveland, offered Mr. Marks the position of Director of Public Safety, which he declined, owing to his inability to give it the attention which it should have. He was one of the organizers and one of the first presidents of the Indiana Society of Cleveland, and is a member of the Ohio Society of New York. Since 1890 he has been treasurer of the Covenant Endowment Fund of the I. O. B. B., the reserve fund of which amounts to over $400,000, since which time the organization has not lost a single dollar through investment. He is a member of the Executive Board of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. He is a member of many other charitable and philanthropic societies.

and philanthropic societies. He was the first president of the Cleveland Federation for Charity and Philanthropy.

While yet a resident of Madison, where no movement for the public good ever lacked his support, and where he wielded a strong influence, political and otherwise, and did much for his friends, Benjamin Harrison, then United States Senator from Indiana, once remarked: "Mr. Marks never asked for anything for himself, but when he wanted anything it was always for a friend."
