ANNUAL RECOGNITION LUNCHEON
TO HONOR OUTSTANDING ALUMNI

On May 8, 1992, the Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association will honor two outstanding alumni, John J. "Chips" Sutula ’53 and Aaron Jacobson ’59, at its Annual Recognition Luncheon at Swingos at the Statler. Both gentlemen have accomplished much in their lives and have demonstrated superior business and professional skills throughout their careers. They are known for their warmth, generosity, dedication, and leadership. Each has made many valuable contributions to a large variety of professional, business, and community organizations, including the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law and its Alumni Association. Please plan to join us on May 8 to celebrate the accomplishments of these deserving honorees and to renew old friendships with your fellow alumni. (For ticket information, contact the Alumni office at 687-2368).

John J. “Chips” Sutula received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Cleveland College of Western Reserve University in 1947. He graduated from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law in 1953. He was admitted to practice law in the state and federal courts in August of 1953. He is a member of both the Cleveland and Cuyahoga County Bar Associations.

Chips has enjoyed successful careers as both a businessman and a lawyer. He was associated with the General Electric Company for 22 years, rising to the position of Manager, Personnel Accounting, where he was responsible for payroll and associated activities for 12 G.E. manufacturing plants. He left G.E. and entered the full-time practice of law in 1970. In 1972, he established the law firm of John J. Sutula & Associates and became a general partner in the law firm of Chattman, Garfield, Friedlander & Paul when both firms merged in 1989. Thus, while most people aspire to one successful career in their lifetimes, it can be said that Chips has had two.

Chips has dedicated his considerable talents and leadership skills to a number of civic and religious organizations during the past 40 years. For many years, he served on the Board of Trustees of Notre Dame College. He helped found the First Friday Club of Cleveland and served on its Board of Trustees during its formative years. He was a founding member of the Serra Club, East, served as its first president, and later as District Governor for Serra International. In the early 1970’s, he served as a member of the Selective Service Board. In 1977, he helped found the House of David in Uniontown, Ohio, a home for homeless and disadvantaged youth. He continues to serve on its Board of Trustees. He has also served on the Board of Trustees of Lexington Square Foundation, a community organization dedicated to improving the quality of life in the Hough-Lexington neighborhood.

In his service to the community, Chips has not forgotten the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. He has been an active member of the Board of Trustees of the Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association for many years and served as its President in 1988-89. He is a Life Member of the Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association. In addition, he has served on the Board of Governors of the Cleveland State University Alumni Association and in July of this year, Chips will take his seat as President of that organization.

Aaron Jacobson was born on January 14, 1922 and was raised in Dayton, Ohio. As a youth, he was interested in challenging subjects including astronomy, the natural sciences, rocketry, and biography reading. He graduated from Ohio State University in 1940, with a major in bacteriology and a minor in chemistry. He is a veteran of World War II. He enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1942 and served with the 104th Infantry Division ("Timberwolf") as a combat medic in Holland and Germany. After his service in the Army, he returned to Ohio State University to pursue postgraduate studies.

Aaron’s successful career in law began in journalism. He was a newspaper reporter on general assignment for The Dayton Daily News in 1947 and 1948. He then moved to Cleveland and worked The Cleveland News as a beat reporter and on special assignment. From 1954 to 1959, he covered legal news and events at the Lakeside Courthouse for the Cleveland News, including the early parts of the infamous Sam Shepard murder trial. He developed an interest in the law and attended Cleveland-Marshall Law School beginning in the fall of 1955. He served as interim editor of the Law Review and graduated cum laude in the winter of 1959.

Throughout his career, Aaron has contributed his many talents and valued leadership to a variety of organizations. He has been an active member of the Cleveland Bar Association, serving as chairman of a number of committees. At present, he authors a regular feature in the Cleveland Bar Journal entitled “Summary Judgment” in which he profiles fellow lawyers. He is a Life Member of the Judicial Conference for the Eighth Appellate District. He is a Life Member of the Cleveland Newspaper Guild, and a past member and chairman of the Board of Trustees of Suburban Hospital. Aaron is also a Life Member of the Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association, and served as President of its Board of Trustees in 1965-66.

Aaron is married to Bonnie M. Jacobson, poet, and has three children, all of whom are lawyers. He has two grandchildren.
PROFESSIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

The Professional Opportunities Committee, chaired by Tina Weckler '85 and Gary Maxwell '88, hosted its second annual Super Saturday Career Day at the College of Law on January 25, 1992. The program was designed to give our law students the chance to hear and meet top practitioners speak about their various fields of interest. Speakers included area attorneys from small, medium and large firms, as well as public offices and private institutions, who shared their perspectives on the “practice of law”. We would like to acknowledge the following attorneys who dedicated their time and talent to such an invaluable project:

Mary Balazs  Johnson, Balazs & Angelo
Brian Bash    Kahn, Kleinman, Yanowitz & Arnson
Steven Bell   Ulmer & Berne
Richard Berris  Weisman, Goldberg, Weisman & Kaufman

Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association Alumni Directory

Beginning April 13, 1992, representatives of Harris Publishing Co., Inc. will start telephoning alumni for the verification phase of our Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association Directory project.

Much of the information to be verified on each individual's listing will be going into the Directory. Specifically, current name, academic data, residence address and phone number (if applicable). The scope of this information is an indication of the thorough and complete quality of the entire volume. The Directory will be divided into separate sections of the book. Also included will be a special message from the Alumni Association as well as photos and information on the school.

Soon locating fellow Alumni will be as easy as turning a page with the Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association Directory. You may reserve your personal copy when your Harris rep phones, but don't delay. This will be your only opportunity to order this comprehensive new directory.

C-M STUDENTS SHINE IN LITTLE ROCK!

Congratulations to Cleveland-Marshall students Lillian Earl and Carla Elliott, who received awards for Best Respondent's Brief, Best Overall Brief, and First Place Team at the 1992 Frederick Douglass Moot Court Competition, Midwest Region, in Little Rock, Arkansas in February. The annual competition is sponsored by the National Black Law Students Association.

The Cleveland-Marshall team and the runner-up team from the University of Michigan will represent the Midwest region in the national competition, which will be held in New York this month. Other participating schools in the Midwest Region were University of Akron, Case Western Reserve University, University of Cincinnati, Indiana University, University of Illinois, University of Wisconsin, Hamline, Northwestern, University of Minnesota, John Marshall, IIT-Chicago Kent, Detroit College of Law, Drake College of Law and William Mitchell College of Law.
LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

STATE OF THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

With all the interest we place in hearing the state of the state, and that of the nation, I thought I would take this opportunity to address the state of our Alumni Association. It is hard to believe that more than half of my term as President is completed and that by the time this article is read we will be approaching the May 8, 1992 Annual Recognition Luncheon, honoring Aaron Jacobson, and John J. "Chips" Sutula. A lot has taken place since June of 1991 when I took office, yet there is a lot to be done before the end of my administration.

The focus of our attention has been directed to enlisting support for CSU's 17th-18th Street Block Project, of which the Law Library is an essential component. The Law Alumni Association has shown unprecedented support for this project and many of you have provided countless number of hours in attending meetings and planning sessions in an effort to see that this much-needed project becomes a reality.

When this article went to press, the issue concerning the current capital budget and the impact that it will have on the proposed Law Library was still unresolved. As President of this Association, I have made it my goal, through the creation of the Outreach Committee and through the fine efforts of the officers and trustees of the Association, to provide whatever support is necessary so that everyone realizes the utmost importance of building a new Law Library as part of the 17th-18th block. I thank all of you who have participated to date on this project and encourage everyone to continue to spread the word about the crisis we face if a new Law Library is not a part of the state's funding in this biennium.

The Annual Recognition Luncheon this year will take place on May 8, 1992. This luncheon will honor Aaron Jacobson '59 and John J. "Chips" Sutula '53. I am extremely excited about this upcoming event and am confident that it will be an outstanding success and will be a luncheon that everyone in attendance will enjoy immensely. This year we have included an opportunity to place congratulatory announcement space in the brochure that will be distributed at the luncheon. The proceeds generated from the announcement space will be used to continue to provide the type of quality programs that this Association has become known for.

The work of our various committee chairs has been spectacular! The Professional Opportunities Committee, chaired by Tina Wecksler '85 and Gary Maxwell '88, recently held its Super Saturday program to provide law students with an exposure to practitioners in various areas of the law. This Saturday morning program was well-received by the students and will continue in the future. The Mentoring Program, which was piloted last year by the Minority Concerns Committee, has expanded school-wide and is providing first, second and third year students with a lawyer to talk about various concerns faced by law students, and to help with career planning.

The Second Annual Scholarship Awards Reception is planned for April 23, 1992. This reception, directed by Scott Spero '89, was of huge importance last year and will undoubtedly be of equal success this year. Through the work of the Student Assistance and Scholarship Committee, scholarships are being provided to many deserving students who would not normally be recognized.

Your CLE Director, Professor Stephen J. Werber, has continued to provide exceptional CLE programs that afford quality, convenient and timely education. We have attempted to provide basic seminars directed to the general practitioner. If you have not taken advantage of these special CLE seminars, I strongly urge you to do so.

As the road to the end of my administration approaches, I am saddened to report that Laurie F. Starr '85, my President-Elect, has resigned as an officer. Her many professional commitments forced her to step aside as President-Elect; however, she will remain active as a trustee of the Association for many years to come. I am pleased to indicate that Sheryl King-Benford '79, is now the President-Elect.

I am genuinely pleased to report that membership in the Association has increased by approximately 20% over the membership of last year.

While this is an impressive increase, we still are far below the membership that this organization should have. If you are not currently a paid member, or know of anyone that has failed to join, please encourage their financial and emotional commitment to this organization. Without participation, financially and through hard work, we simply cannot continue to provide the services and benefits currently available.

In closing, a lot has taken place in the first six months of my administration. The challenges that face the Law School have taken center stage and will remain the focus of this administration. Because of the hard work of the officers and trustees of the Association, we have continued to prosper and to reach new levels not previously seen at the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law.

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN
by Steven R. Smith

In my last report to you, I noted that the law school was undergoing a sabbatical reinspection by the American Bar Association and Association of American Law Schools. All law schools have such visits every seven years and it was our turn this year. That visit has now been completed. Although it will be some time before we will receive the formal, written report from the team, the team’s oral comments may be of interest to you.

The team had great praise for the academic programs of the school. They noted a particularly strong faculty, a student body of full-time and part-time students that has grown progressively better over the last seven years, many good teachers, and increasingly important research. The team also noted the important work of the Law Alumni Association on behalf of the school. The chair of the team, Professor Claude Sowle from the University of Miami, indicated that the self study and supporting materials were the strongest he had seen in his many years of conducting ABA/AALS site evaluations.

While the team had praise for most of the academic programs of the school, it noted that the progress the school has made is at risk primarily because of the lack of resources and space. During recent years, the law school administration and faculty have noted these concerns. Of major concern in the area of funding were the law library, faculty compensation, and legal writing and research instruction. In response to the comments of the team, the university has announced a major commitment of funds to help support the law library, faculty salaries and the legal research and writing program. In future editions of Law Notes, I will report in more detail on developments in these areas.

Regarding the physical space in the law school, the team informed me that, “The law library’s need for additional space is both obvious and acute and the non-library wing of the current is very seriously overcrowded.” This, of course, did not come as a surprise. As you know, we have requested that a library addition be built as quickly as possible. The legislature and governor are now considering the request for construction funds. The law alumni have been very active in lobbying for these funds.

The accreditation process is intended to continuously improve legal education. The process of preparing for the visit, the visit itself, and our response to the team’s suggestions will all be important components in continuing to improve the quality of the academic programs at Cleveland-Marshall.

SCHOLARSHIP

The Scholarship and Student Assistance Committee of the CMLAA, chaired by Scott Spero ’89, has been hard at work during the winter months. The committee was pleased with the number of applications and the growing interest of the students in this program, which is in its second year. The scholarship recipients will be honored on April 23, 1992 at 5:00 P.M. in the Moot Court room at the College of Law.

OBITUARIES

The Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association expresses its condolences to the families and friends of the following alumni who have passed away:

Maurice M. Weltman ’26
Charles W. Lazzaro ’51
Wells Hugo Smith ’53
Hon. Rodney H. Reed ’61
Patrick H. Deegan ’80
David A. Beck ’81
Thomas McGinnis ’83

Thank You for Your Support!

The CMLAA-CLE committee, chaired by Scott Finerman ’87 and Jim Tavens ’86, appreciates the support which our alumni and other area practitioners have given to our continuing legal education seminars to date. We encourage all of our fellow attorneys to register early and often for these Saturday morning programs.

Your attendance provides a major source of funding for many of the events which the Law Alumni Association promotes throughout the year. Substantial enrollment in the 1991-92 fall and spring programs indicates that the topics, speakers and materials continue to be well-received. We urge all of our Law Notes readers to promote and publicize these seminars, as their strength is dependent upon your participation.

THIRD ANNUAL DISTRICT DIRECTOR’S CONFERENCE ON FEDERAL WEALTH TRANSFER TAXATION

A program covering Federal estate and gift tax issues, co-sponsored by the Cleveland District of the Internal Revenue Service and the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, will be held at the law school on Wednesday, May 27, 1992, from 9 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. A reception will follow the conference. The program will consist of presentations of leading questions of the day followed by Internal Revenue Service responses covering:

MORNING SESSION:
CURRENT CLEVELAND DISTRICT
ESTATE AND GIFT TAX EXAMINATION ISSUES

- Post death estate settlements and their effect on the Marital Deduction.
- Making effective annual exclusion gifts through Durable Powers of Attorney.
- Proper filing of the estate tax return Form 706, how returns are selected for audit, the examination process and determination of final estate tax liability.

AFTERNOON SESSION:
VALUATION QUESTIONS

- Valuation of closely held corporate interests including discounts for controlling and minority interests, lack of marketability, inherent tax liability and capitalization of Subchapter S earnings.
- Valuation of real estate including fractional and partial interests.
- Valuation of limited and general partnership interests.
- Impact of environmental liability on business valuations.

John MacEachen, Senior Trial Attorney, Office of Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service will deliver the luncheon address on “Current Estate and Gift Tax Issues Being Reviewed and Set for Trial Before the Tax Court”. Mr. MacEachen is primarily responsible for reviewing all cases litigated in the Tax Court to assure governmental consistency.

Register by returning the tear sheet below. For additional information, contact Sandra Natran, Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, Cleveland, OH 44115, (216) 687-2354. CMLAA WELCOMES

William E. Powers, Jr., a 1968 graduate of Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, is the principal in the firm of Powers, Quaschnick & Tischler, which practices labor relation law representing management in Tallahassee, Florida. Before opening his practice, Mr. Powers was a partner in a large Florida-based law firm.

Prior to private practice, Mr. Powers served as General Counsel of the Florida Public Employees Relations Commission and was subsequently appointed its Chairman by then Governor and current U.S. Senator Bob Graham. Mr. Powers also served as a trial specialist and supervisory attorney in the Cleveland region of the National Labor Relations Board.

Mr. Powers is a member of the Florida and Ohio Bars and is admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court and other federal appellate and district courts. In addition to serving as the Practice and Procedure Co-Chairman of the ABA state and Local Government Bargaining Committee, he serves on the advisory committee of the Stetson University Law School Center for Labor-Management Dispute Resolution, and as an adjunct professor in labor law at Florida State and Nova Universities’ Colleges of Law. He is an arbitrator admitted to the American Arbitration Association’s labor panel and is a member of Who’s Who in Practicing Attorneys.

A 1963 graduate of the University of Dayton, Mr. Powers also obtained an L.L.M. degree in labor law from New York University School of Law in 1969.

December 27, 1991

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed is a check for $1,000.00 for a life membership in the Alumni Association Fund a Scholarship program. I am pleased to submit this contribution to acknowledge the substantial personal and professional assistance which Professor Ted Dyke provided me at the inception of my labor law career. In my opinion, the dedication and respect which he held for his students was the hallmark of Professor Dyke’s service to the law school. I am forever indebted to and have many fond memories of him. Enclosed also is a short biographical sketch for your records.

Sincerely,

William E. Powers, Jr.
NEW LIFE MEMBERS

Joseph H. Weiss, Jr. received his B.A. from John Carroll University in 1965 and his J.D. from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law in 1970. For over twenty years he has been in private practice in Chesterland and has served as Corporate Counsel and Secretary-Treasurer of the Famicos Foundation. He has also served as Special Counsel to the Attorney General of Ohio since 1975. During the course of his legal career, Mr. Weiss was also an Assistant Prosecutor and later a Public Defender for Geauga County.

Mr. Weiss has served on the Board of many organizations including the Geauga County Board of Mental Retardation, where he was chairman for two terms, the Geauga County Board of Elections, the Geauga County Planning Commission, and the Geauga County Democratic Party, where he served as chairman from 1980 to 1990. In addition, he is currently serving as Chairman of the Ohio Public Defender's Commission and as a Corporate Counsel Trustee for the Cleveland Housing Network. He is a member of the American, Ohio, Geauga County and Cleveland Bar Associations, and the Cleveland State University Alumni Association.

Mr. Weiss resides in Chesterland and is the father of a daughter, Wendy, who currently attends Miami University and is a member of the track team and the President’s List, with a 4.0 average.

WELCOME, WELCOME, WELCOME!!

We would like to thank our newest Life Members and welcome them to a most distinguished group of supporters of the Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association:

Joyce E. Barrett ’71
Hon. Edwin T. Hofstetter, Judge Emeritus ’52
Timothy G. Kasparek ’74

Hats off to Judge Stanley M. Fisher, who recruited the most new members for the Law Alumni Association in the months of January and February. Judge Fisher is a CMLAA Honorary Trustee and an active member of its CLE committee.

Welcome home to Kenneth O. Heise after a 15 year absence from the North Coast. Mr. Heise is living in Lakewood and is planning a summer wedding.

John J. Kuchinski writes from Woodland Hills, California, where he is the Vice President Legal for Sebastian International, Inc. Prior to his move to California, he was a councilman in Oxford, New York, as well as Vice President of Revlon in Jacksonville, Florida. Mr. Kuchinski and his wife of 28 years, Mara, reside in Westlake Village and are the parents of four children.

C. Larry Watson was recently named the regional attorney for the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's district office in Cleveland. Mr. Watson and his wife, Sandra, live in Shaker Heights and have a son, Eric and a daughter, Aubrei.

Congratulations to James A. Hudak, who joined the firm of Hahn Loeser & Parks as a partner in their Cleveland office, where he will chair the firm's Intellectual Property Practice group. Mr. Hudak and his wife reside in Bentleyville.

Judge Lesley Brooks Wells has been selected by the Ohio Democratic Party as the Democratic candidate for the Ohio Supreme Court in 1992. The vacancy was created by Justice Herbert Brown's decision not to seek re-election.

Double Congratulations . . . Cornelia Byrne was appointed referee in the Shaker Heights Municipal Court and was the co-recipient of the Rose L. Vormelker Award at the School of Library and Information Science, Kent State University. The award is presented annually to a library science graduate student who ranks high academically and shows the most promise for special library work. Connie and her husband, Gordon Bruce '76, live in University Heights and are the parents of three boys.

Wedding bells . . . Richard S. Koblenz and Phyliss Day are engaged to be married in July. Best wishes to the happy couple!

The Allen-Bradley Co., Inc. has named Mike Reitzel as Vice President, Business Development for A-B Corporate Development. Mr. Reitzel will be primarily responsible for coordinating special business relationships with third-party organizations that involve the transfer of technologies or special product development. Congratulations!

CMLAA Life Member Lou Damiani was the subject of an in-depth feature article in the Plain Dealer entitled "Former miner has hard-hat approach to law". Damiani is a partner in Armstrong Gordon Mitchell & Damiani, which concentrates on property tax work for the school boards of Cleveland, Akron and many suburbs.
ADORABLE with a capital A . . . Congratulations to Alisa and Bill Cowen on the birth of their daughter, Lindsay, who joined big sister, Halle, in June of 1991.

Wenda Sheard writes from Athens, Ohio, where she is not only President of the Athens County Bar Association, but Vice President of the Athens League of Women Voters, and the mother of three children, Sarah, Adrian and Anna. She is employed by Judge Peter B. Abele, of the Ohio Fourth District Court of Appeals.

Lorraine C. Holmes recently joined Marcus & Marcus, P.A. in Homestead, Florida as an associate, where she will concentrate on general civil litigation, and federal, civil and criminal appeals.

Eliot J. Katz and his wife, Claude, are pleased to announce the arrival of their second child from Korea, Audrey Maeng, at the age of six months. Mr. Katz is an editor at Lawyers Cooperative Publishing Company and a member of the New York Bar. He and his family reside in Rochester.

CMLAA trustee Ann T. Mannen is a candidate for Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, General Division.

Congratulations to Murray Richardson and his wife, Joan, on the birth of their son, Avi Chaim.

Making us proud . . . Grace A. Kilbane received the 1991 Dean’s Distinguished Alumni Award presented by Cleveland State University’s Levin College of Urban Affairs. Ms. Kilbane is regional administrator of the Labor Department’s Employment and Training Administration, where she is responsible for programs in Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska.

Kudos to Kathleen Keogh on her election as partner of Calfee, Halter & Griswold. Ms. Keogh, whose practice concentrates on labor and employee relations, has represented both unionized and non-unionized corporations and public sector clients in all aspects of the employer-employee relationship, including civil rights and employment litigation, collective bargaining, arbitration, unfair labor practice and other administrative proceedings.

Richard G. Witkowski has joined the firm of Ulmer & Berne as an associate in the Litigation Department. Congratulations!
Congratulations to Craig I. Baron, who has joined the firm of Ulmer & Berne as an associate in the Litigation Department.

Welcome to the world...Lisa Belkin Laureno and her husband, Gary, are pleased to announce the birth of their first child, Kevin Charles, on November 7, 1991. Congratulations!

Karren Brower has opened her own law office in Wheaton, Illinois, where she will concentrate in the areas of bankruptcy, domestic relations and real estate.

Congratulations to Catherine A. Furio, who has joined the firm of Stege, Delbaum & Hickman as an associate.

Christina M. Janice has become an associate with Kabat, Mielziner & Sobel, where she will conduct a suburban civil litigation practice. Congratulations!

Congratulations to Vincent Macauda, who has been named an associate with Hahn Loeser & Parks. Mr. Macauda will concentrate in the areas of Business and Corporate, as well as Real Estate.

Congratulations to Nancy F. Zavelson on being named an associate with Reminger & Reminger.

Kudos to Robin S. Levine, who has joined the General Electric Research and Development Center in Schenectady, New York, as a patent agent.

ALL THE NEWS THAT'S FIT TO PRINT!

Please keep us informed for Alumni Happenings (and correct mailing address).
