HISTORY

In the year 1916 a number of prominent attorneys of Cleveland desirous of raising the general standard of legal attainment, and feeling the need in the community of a school of law that should be rigidly thorough and at the same time entirely practical in its teaching, formed an association and founded The John Marshall School of Law. The new institution opened its doors on September 20, 1916, and so immediate was the response it received and so eminently successful were the results of its first year's instruction, that at the close of the year in May, 1917, it became affiliated with Ohio Northern University of Ada, Ohio.

After six years of the most cordial relations with the university, it was deemed advisable to secure a charter from the state of Ohio, authorizing The John Marshall School of Law to confer degrees in its own name. Such a charter was secured in January, 1924. This charter puts The John Marshall School of Law on a par with the best law schools in the state.

PURPOSE

The John Marshall School of Law is distinctly a lawyer's school. Its faculty is composed of successful attorneys in active practice, who are also experienced in teaching. Every effort is made to admit as candidates for a degree only such pupils as give promise by their education, attainments and character of becoming honorable and worthy practitioners of the law.

The most noteworthy feature in the progress of legal education in the United States, has been the development of efficient law schools. "Reading law" in a lawyer's office is of unquestionable value because of the familiarity it gives with the routine work and everyday practice of the profession, but in training a lawyer, it can never take the place of the thorough, systematic instruction given by a good law school. Such instruction, obtained from experienced teachers of law, will result not only in more thorough, but in more rapid preparation than any amount of desultory reading. The course of study covered by The John Marshall School of Law embraces the entire field of law and is designed to develop the student, and to fit him for the active duties of a practicing lawyer.

LOCATION

The John Marshall School of Law for the first three years was located in the Guardian Building, where it occupied comfortable quarters which were ample during the school's infancy.

The rapidly increasing attendance called for more commodious quarters. The school is now located at 242-248 Superior Avenue, opposite the Post Office, where it occupies approximately 4,000 feet of floor space—ample room for the present and immediate future.

The location is unsurpassed. It is only a step to the Municipal Court, the Court of Common Pleas, the Court of Appeals, and the United States District Court. The student is only a few minutes from the leading law firms of the city.

LIBRARY FACILITIES

The John Marshall has an excellent law library. Here the student has access to the Ohio State Reports and Digests, Ohio Court of Appeals Reports, the United States Reports and Digests, Cyc., Corpus Juris, the Ohio Statutes, law dictionaries and a stack of supplemental text books for reference. Students may also arrange to use the Cuyahoga County Law Library in the New Court House, one of the largest and finest collections of Law literature in America.

The student also has access to the public library, where he will find a fine collection of current literature. Adequate library facilities are a prime essential to the student of Law.

OPPORTUNITY FOR LEGAL STUDY

No city in the country affords better facilities for legal study than Cleveland. Here sit the District Court of the United States; the Appellate Court of Ohio; the Common Pleas Courts; the Probate Court of Cuyahoga County; the Cleveland Municipal Courts, and the Admiralty and Insolvency Courts. Cleveland affords an opportunity to follow the progress of a case from the lowest to the highest court, with few exceptions.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION, AND CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

Students may enter the School at any time, but in order to receive full credit toward graduation for work done must enter at the beginning of a semester.

Candidates for admission to the bar and for a degree will be required, upon their application for admission, to furnish satisfactory evidence of the completion of one year of college work. Such are known as Regular Students.

Students not candidates for admission to the bar and for a degree may enter upon proving to the satisfaction of the Dean that they possess such general education as will enable them to pursue the study of law intelligently. Such are known as Irregular Students.

Candidates for admission to the Ohio bar will be required to conform to the provisions of Rule XIV, as amended May 22, 1923, and promulgated by the Ohio Supreme Court, viz.:

RULE IV ADMISSION TO THE OHIO BAR

(As Amended May 22, 1923)

SECTION 1. Except as provided in Section 1703 General Code (506 R. S.) concerning persons who have been admitted and practiced in the highest court of another state, or in the Supreme Court of the United States, for a period of five years, no person shall be admitted to the bar except upon an examination and certificate of the Standing Committee on Examinations.

SECTION 2. There shall be appointed, to take effect on the first day of January, 1901, ten discreet and judicious attorneys and counselors-at-law to be known as the Standing Committee on Examinations. Two members of the committee shall be appointed for one year, two for two years, two for three years, two for four years, and two for five years. Their successors shall be appointed for a term of five years each.

SECTION 3. The Standing Committee shall hold an examination of applicants for admission to the bar in the city of Columbus, on the first Tuesday of each June and December. No other examinations will be held. Examinations must be conducted under the direction of the committee, a majority of whom shall report in writing for or against the admission of each applicant.

SECTION 4. No applicant shall be admitted to the bar unless a majority of the members conducting the examination shall certify that they find him to have a competent knowledge of the law and to have sufficient general learning to discharge the duties of an attorney and counselor-at-law, and shall recommend his admission. Such certificate shall not be made unless the applicant has sustained on his written answers to the printed questions of the examiners an average grade of 75 per cent on an examination embracing the following subjects. The law of real and personal property, torts, contracts, evidence, pleading, partnership, bailments, negotiable instruments, agency, suretyship, domestic relations, wills, corporations, equity, criminal law, constitutional law, and the canons of professional ethics adopted by the Ohio State Bar Association, at its 30th annual meeting, 1909.

None but citizens of the United States will be admitted to the examination and every applicant must be twenty-one years of age. The printed interrogatories and the answers of applicants thereto shall be submitted to the Court with the report of the examiners, and, together with all certificates and papers required under this rule, shall be filed with the Clerk and preserved.

SECTION 4. REQUIREMENTS AS TO GENERAL LEARNING. No one shall be admitted to the examination whose educational attainments are not clearly shown to be equal to those of a graduate of a first grade high school of this state. Evidence of such attainments shall be furnished by the applicant at the time he begins the study of law and shall be filed by him with his certificate of registration as a law student. Said registration shall not become effective until such evidence of attainments is furnished.

Any one of the following certificates may be presented:

*(a) A certificate of graduation from a first grade high school of this state, plus one year of college credits.

(b) A certificate of graduation from a college, university or other institution of learning, the standing of which has been approved by this court. Such certificate must evidence the completion of a course of study preparatory to the study of law which meets the approval of this Court.

(c) A certificate from the State Superintendent of Public Instruction authorizing the holder to teach in the high schools of the four-year grade of Ohio; a county or city board certificate is not sufficient.

(d) Certificates from colleges, universities, high school and college preparatory schools of recognized standings as to credits received by an applicant in high school, or college subjects (though not showing graduation) showing a total of sixteen units.

The Court will not receive applications for waiver of the requirements as to general learning.

All credentials presented under Paragraph D of this rule must be submitted to the Court and if the Court is satisfied that the applicant has the educational qualifications required he will be admitted to the bar examination. The credentials presented shall be filed with the Clerk.

The Clerk of this Court is authorized to accept certificates which clearly meet the requirements enumerated paragraphs a, b, and c, of this Section.

*CANDIDATES WHO REGISTER AFTER OCTOBER 15, 1927, MUST HAVE COMPLETED TWO YEARS OF COLLEGE WORK.

Diplomas should not be presented. Certificates which may be retained permanently are desired. They should be upon the official stationery of the high school, college or other institution of learning which the applicant attended.

This requirement shall not apply to those whose certificates of general learning have been approved prior to June 7, 1923. All students registered prior to June 7, 1923, will be required to qualify as to general learning on or before January 1, 1924.

SECTION 5. Every resident of the state who commences the study of law on and after June 7, 1923, either under the tuition of an attorney-at-law, or at a law school, whether located in this state or elsewhere, shall file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court his declaration of intention to commence the study of law preparatory to examination for admission to the bar together with the certificate of such attorney or of the chief officer of such law school, as the case may be, showing his name, age and residence, and the date when he commenced the study of law, which certificate shall be accompanied by a fee of one dollar. As to all such persons the period required for the study of law by the rules of this court shall date from the filing of such declaration and certificate.

Before any such certificate and declaration shall be filed such person shall present to the Clerk of this Court satisfactory evidence of general educational attainments as required by Section 4 of this rule.

SECTION 6. Repealed May 22nd, 1923.

SECTION 7. Every person who shall commence the study of law while a non-resident of this state, and who has not been regularly admitted as an attorney-at-law in some court of record within the United States, shall, on coming into this state to reside, file with the Clerk an affidavit showing that he has come into the state for the purpose of making it his permanent residence, and stating his name, age, present and former residence, and also the certificate of his preceptor, or of the chief officer of his law school showing the time when, and place or places where and under whom, he has studied law; which papers shall be accompanied by a fee of one dollar.

The one year's residence in this state required of such persons by Section 1701 General Code (560 R. S.) shall date from the filing of such papers.

SECTION 8. Every person entitled to be admitted to the examination under Section 1702 General Code, on the ground that he has been regularly admitted as an attorney and counselor-at-law in some court of record within the United States, shall, not more than sixty nor less than thirty days before the time fixed for the examination, file with the Clerk the following credentials:

1. An affidavit showing that he is a resident of this state or that he has come into the state for the purpose of making it his permanent residence, and stating his name, age and former and present residence.

2. His certificate of admission to the bar.

3. The certificate of a judge of the court of record in which he has practiced law, showing the time such judge has personally known him, the period of time he has practiced law and his moral and professional standing at such bar.

4. Certificate of his preceptor or the law school which he attended, showing the period of his study of law. (If the judge's certificate mentioned in No. 3 shows practice for three years or more, this certificate is not required.)

5. Certificate of general learning as required by Section 4 of this rule.

SECTION 9. Repealed May 22nd, 1923.

SECTION 10. Except as provided in Section 8, concerning persons who have been admitted to the bar in some court of record within the United States, every person who desires to have his name enrolled for examination must, not more than sixty days nor less than thirty days before the time fixed for the examination, file with the Clerk his application for admission, giving his name, age, residence and postoffice address, and with such application he shall present a certificate. (1) from a law school where instruction is given during the day time and in which the entire time of the student is devoted to study of legal subjects, whose standing is approved by the Court, certifying that the applicant has regularly and attentively studied in said law school for the period of three school years, or (2) from a law school where the entire time of the student is not devoted to the study of legal subjects, showing attendance and law study for a period of four school years, or (3) if the applicant has studied law under the supervision of an attorney in active practice, a certificate of his preceptor, showing that he has pursued the study of law for a period of four calendar years under his personal instruction, aggregating 800 hours, and in no case will the certificate of another attorney or counselor-at-law be received unless it be shown by the affidavit of the applicant that his preceptor is dead or that his certificate cannot, for some reason satisfactory to the Court, be obtained, but in such case the certificate must show that the certifier has personal knowledge of the length of time the applicant has been engaged in the study of law; also that the said certificate shall show the name and post office address of the applicant's preceptor. Each applicant for admission to such examinations shall be required to state in an affidavit filed by him on his application for admission to such examination, that he is a citizen of the United States and that he has resided in the State of Ohio for the year last past, and that he has read the Canons of Professional Ethics, adopted by the Ohio State Bar Association, July 7, 1909*, and has faithfully endeavored to make himself acquainted with the same, and that he will endeavor to conform his professional conduct thereto.

SECTION 11. No certificate, affidavit, or other paper produced in conformity with this rule, shall be deemed conclusive evidence of the fact therein stated, and in all cases the Court must be satisfied of the truth thereof before the applicant shall be admitted to examination.

SECTION 12. Every application for admission to an examination must be accompanied by an examination fee of $15.00 which will be returned to the applicant if his name is not placed on the examination roll. If his name is placed on the examination roll, and he fails to receive a certificate of qualification, he shall not be required to pay any further sum upon a second application. For each subsequent application a fee of $15.00 shall be paid. If the applicant, on examination, shall be rejected he may be admitted to the next examination upon filing a certificate that he has studied law six months subsequent to the date of his former examination; but no one shall be admitted to more than five examinations after the twentieth day of December, 1900, and the fifth examination shall not be less than two years after the fourth, and during the intervening two years said applicant shall regularly and attentively study law, and shall furnish the prescribed certificate thereof.

SECTION 13. After the expiration of the thirtieth day before the examination the Court will examine the papers filed by the applicant, and cause him to be notified whether he will be admitted to the examination unconditionally, or subject to the production of a supplemental certificate of additional study, when that may be necessary, and if so admitted, will cause his name to be placed on the examination roll which will be delivered to the Standing Committee.

SECTION 14. The Standing Committee may, subject to the approval of the Court, make rules not inconsistent herewith, for the conduct of the examinations, which, together with this rule, shall be published in pamphlet form for distribution by the Standing Committee.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF REQUIRED COURSES

FIRST YEAR

1. Contracts.

This course deals with the general principles of contract law, such as the nature, formation, interpretation, operation and discharge of contracts, and aims to furnish a foundation for the study of the special applications of contract law—as in insurance, bailments, negotiable instruments, agency, partnership, equity, jurisdiction over contracts, etc.—which are treated in separate courses.

*This course is offered twice a year. From February first to the time of the June examination, and from August fifteen to the time of the December examination.

TEXT: Clark on Contracts (3rd editon); Throckmorton's Cases on Contracts.

JUDGE MECK. Three hours per week; 66 hours.

2. Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure.

This course aims to give a comprehensive view of the criminal law, common and statutory, special attention being paid to definitions which form an important element in criminal law and frequently furnish the key to the solution of some of its most difficult problems.

The course in criminal procedure is designed to be as full and as realistic as possible. The case is dealt with in all of its phases, from the commission of the crime to the termination of the prosecution therefor.

The preliminary subjects of arrest, examination and commitment, and the like, are treated.

Then follows the formation of the grand jury and the indictment or presentment.

The student is then taught how to arraign the prisoner, enter pleas, and conduct the trial throughout.

TEXT: Clark on Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure.

MR. WOODS. Three hours per week; 42 hours.

3. Torts.

In this course is comprised a comprehensive study of the entire subject of wrongs to person and property. It includes, besides a consideration of specific wrongs, such as slander, libel, malicious prosecution, false imprisonment, assault and battery, fraud, trespass, nuisance, and the like, a survey of the nature of torts in general and of the principle of liability. To the subject of negligence is given the special consideration which its importance demands.

The subject of master and servant is taught as a branch of the law of torts. The topics treated are those of independent contractors; the master's liability for the torts and crimes of his servant; the master's liability for injuries to his servants; the servant's liability for his own torts; and the liability of third persons for torts to master or servant. Special consideration is given to the Federal Employers' Liability Act, and to State legislation along similar lines.

TEXT: Chapin on Torts and Chapin's Cases on Torts.

MR. LAWRENCE. Three hours per week; 54 hours.

4. Agency.

This course embraces the relations of principal and agent as formed by agreement, ratification or estoppel; the obligations of the relation; its legal effect as between principal and agent, principal and third persons, agent and third persons.

TEXT: Huffcut on Agency.

MR. MECK OR MR. LAUSCHE. Three hours per week; 42 hours.

SECOND YEAR

1. Real Property.

Since some knowledge of the history of the law of real property is essential to an understanding of its principles, the subject is taught historically as well as philosophically and practically. A series of introductory lectures is given on the fuedal land tenures, and the changes made therein are then explained and traced through the modern English tenures to the present system of land titles in the United States. Consideration is given to the different estates in land, whether corporeal or incorporeal, in possession or in expectancy, in fee, for life, or for years. Special attention is paid to remainders, executory limitations, dower and curtesy, and the modes by which the various estates in land may be created or transferred.

TEXT: Tiffany.

MR. WHITE OR MR. LINDEMANN. Three hours per week; 72 Hours.

2. Personal Property.

This course embraces a treatment of the nature of property, the kinds of personal property, distinction between real and personal property, and the nature and acquisition of rights in personal property.

TEXT: Bigelow's Cases.

The fundamental principles of this great system are thoroughly studied as well as the different kinds of actions under the Common Law, and particular attention is called to all such matters and things as are now employed in the modern procedure under the Code. After completing the history, philosophy, and different early methods of procedure, Code pleading is taken up and thoroughly studied from a general as well as a particular viewpoint—using Judge Phillips' text for the former and Whittaker's Annotated Code of Ohio for the latter. The petition, answer and reply as well as the motion and demurrer are thoroughly studied in detail and the student given special instructions how to prepare the necessary papers in bringing a case judicially to the Court's attention. In so far as time will permit, error and appeal are given consideration. Pleadings are also drawn by the student so that he may be familiar and at ease in presenting a case when admitted.

POST-GRADUATE COURSE

A law school course should not be confined to the study of the principles of substantive law. So far as possible a student should learn how to apply these principles to the more common problems encountered in practice.

Although it is true that the details of practice can be mastered only after years of experience, yet it is the function of a well organized law school to lessen the gap existing between the law graduate and the successful practitioner.

To this end and in response to the demand from her alumni for an opportunity for further study, The John Marshall submits a post-graduate course leading to the LL.M. degree.

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

The students of The John Marshall School of Law, to foster co-operation and good fellowship among themselves and to establish a harmonious relationship between the student body and the faculty, organized The John Marshall Forum. This organization supervises the school activities of the students, provides for competitions and contests among them, and establishes a "Forum" wherein students may freely express their views upon the various matters pertaining to the school and school life.

The officers for the ensuing year are:

RALPH MORRIS	Trustee
BERNARD LOFTUS	Trustee
ANN KIRBY	Trustee
ANTHONY FIORETTE	Trustee
PROFESSOR EDWIN E. MILLER	Trustee

The school organization maintains a periodical known as The Forum, which is under the leadership of Florence J. Dicker, as editor-in-chief.

To put school activities on a sound financial footing, the student body, at its annual meeting in May, 1921, levied an assessment of $2.50 as annual dues.

Membership in the school automatically confers membership in the student organization. The burdens and benefits are equally distributed.

Closely allied with The John Marshall Forum and co-operating with it are the several class organizations. The officers of the various classes for 1926-27 were:

KAPPA BETA PI LEGAL SORORITY

In 1908, ten women law students of Chicago, realizing that the ties formed as fellow-students are broken all too soon, and that the best of friendships may die simply from lack of contact, banded together and petitioned the State of Illinois for the charter of Kappa Beta Pi National Legal Sorority.

Kappa Beta Pi, in its eighteen years' existence has acquired an enrollment of 35 chapters, providing affiliation with the leading universities and law schools of the country.

Alpha-Alpha Chapter of John Marshall School of Law was installed in September, 1923, with six charter members. In three years it has doubled its active membership, has two honorary members and two pledges.

The active members have been prominent in all school activities serving as officers of the various classes and school organizations. Scholarship honors for the past three years have been awarded to Kappa Beta Pi members.

Alpha-Alpha Chapter prides itself upon its acquisition as honorary members, Judge Mary B. Grossman of the Municipal Court of Cleveland, and Miss A. N. L. McQuade, one of our most prominent women lawyers.

Estelle Thorpe Russell, who is serving her third term as Dean, is also Grand Chancellor of the Sorority.
