For Mrs. Keith E. Weigle Date _____Address 1873 Grassmere St. Reg. No. E. Cleve.R Dear Aunt Helen,

Each day I think of "one year ago" and how I wish we'd traveled as far from this place as possible. I have wished we'd stayed in Cal. If our mother knew of this she would be crushed even more than "Mama". For Mother Sheppard had come closer to "Mama" in her eyes than any. Those responsible for my being here, killed Mother as you will realize.

I have seen since this mass tragedy was initiated almost one yr. ago.

I want to help you and you must know that only at my insistence you have seen chip.

How would you feel if this was one of your boys down here? Can you say you have given me the objective consideration you would one of them?

An expression of confidence would help me and you if genuine.

Love to you & all, Sam
