

Lecture Series on Chinese Calligraphy

Chinese calligraphy is an elegant art and an important part of Chinese culture, dating back several thousands of years. This series of lectures will cover the history of Chinese calligraphy and Chinese script patterns. Participants will have the opportunity to hold Chinese brushes, write Chinese characters, and fully appreciate the beauty of Chinese calligraphy.

With Master Chinese Calligrapher & Seal-Engraving Artist

Yongze He

- Forty years of artistic experience
- Member of the Chinese Calligraphers' Association (CCA)
- Awards from 10 major national & international exhibitions
- Committee member of the Beijing Calligraphers Association Seal-Engraving Art Committee
- Counsel, Qi Baishi Arts Research Center
- Vice President, Beijing Xicheng District Calligrapher's Association

October 31st & November 14th
3:00 p.m.

Cleveland State University's Michael Schwartz Library
Room 416

Please send registration to
Zijie Li at l.li89@csuohio.edu or 216-687-5471

孔子学院
CONFUCIUS INSTITUTE
AT CLEVELAND STATE UNIVERSITY