

Cleveland State University EngagedScholarship@CSU

All Articles

Newspaper Coverage

8-1-1954

54/08/01 Sheppard Quizzed For 12 Hours

Cleveland Plain Dealer

Follow this and additional works at: https://engagedscholarship.csuohio.edu/newspaper_coverage How does access to this work benefit you? Let us know!

Recommended Citation

Cleveland Plain Dealer, "54/08/01 Sheppard Quizzed For 12 Hours" (1954). All Articles. 350. https://engagedscholarship.csuohio.edu/newspaper_coverage/350

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspaper Coverage at EngagedScholarship@CSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in All Articles by an authorized administrator of EngagedScholarship@CSU. For more information, please contact library.es@csuohio.edu.

CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER Competent critics tell CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER drama, music and movies in the Plain Dealer.

CHEVELLAND I LITAIN DELAME

113TH YEAR-NO. 213

Entered as Second Class Matter Post

270 PAGES—SECTION A

MAin 1-4500

TWENTY CENTS

SHEPPARD QUIZZED FOR 12 HOURS

CLEVELAND, SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 1, 1954

STORY IS UNCHANGED; DETECTIVES RESUME QUESTIONING TODAY

Sam Described as 'Very Well Coached;' Dr. Parries Queries Throughout Session; T-Shirt Found at Perkins Beach Shown to Prisoner;

Police Work in Relays BY JOHN G. BLAIR

Questioning of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, accused wife slayer, halted at 11:40 last night at County Jail after nearly 12 hours of interrogation. Homicide Chief David E. Kerr said teams of detectives would resume questioning at 8 this morning. "After all, we don't want to give the man a third degree," Kerr said. "We don't want our questioning construed as anything like a third degree." Dr. Sam had parried questions with teams of Cleveland detectives almost continously since 12:30 p.m. Kerr said the 30-year-old husband of murdered Marilyn Sheppard had been giving detectives 'a lot of pleasant conversation but nothing too pertinent." Eats Supper

The only break in the questioning came at 4:30 p.m., when

Dr. Sam ate his supper and took a quick shower. As one of the team of detecives left the fourth-floor inter-ogation room, Dr. Sheppard was described as "very well coached." Kerr described the Bay Village osteopath, who is charged with first-degree murder of his preg-nant wife, as "well coached by wife, as

Last night a T-shirt found at Perkins Beach at the foot of West Boulevard N. W. was taken in and shown to Dr. Sam.

T-Shirt to Be Tested Later it was taken to the homicide bureau at Central Po-lice Station, where it was said it would be tested to see if stains on it were blood. Kerr said Sheppard be "systematically ques-

Capt, K would be tioned" by tioned" by detectives most fa-miliar with the hack murder of Mrs. Sheppard, who was found in her blood-soaked bed at dawn July 4. Detectives are trying to break down the prisoner's story of a mysterious intruder who savage-ly chopped his wife 25 times in the face and head and "clob-

the face and head and bered" the handsome os when he went to her aid. osteopath Repeats Story

Absence of evidence of anyone else in the Sheppard home and indications that blood had been wiped up on stairs leading to the bedroom are chinks in the story Dr. Sam has stubbornly repeated.

and Robert E. Schottke, who told Sheppard they thought he mur-dered Marilyn when they talked dered Marilyn when they talked to him several hours after dis-covery of the tragedy, started the interrogation at 12:30 p. m. Taking up the questioning at 5 p. m. were Detectives William Lonchar and Peter Becker.

Take T-Shirt to Room Detective Sergt. Harold C. Lockwood and Detective John Doyle carried the T-shirt into the room in a paper sack at 8:15. When Lonchar and Becker left brought out the sack Whether Dr. Sheppard had identified the T-shirt as the one missing since the murder morning could not be learned. Perkins

Perkins Beach is several miles from the Sheppard lake-front home at 28924 West Lake Road, Bay Vil-

Doyle and Lockwood were succeeded by Detectives Adelbert O'Hara and James McHugh.

(Continued on Page 6-B, Column 3)

Doctor's Quiz Halting After 12 Hours: Resumes Today

(Continued From First Page) Just before the questioning be began ot noon, Dr Sam conferred briefly with William J. Corrigan, criminal attorney who has been advising him. Corrigan denied he had structed Dr. Sam not to talk to not guilty." Corshouldn't

"The man's not rigan said. "Why talk?" Corrigan added: "The more Dr. Sheppard co-operates, the sooner the mystery will be cleared up and the sooner he will be re-stored to active life again."

The lawyer bitterly berated

e police.

"They haven't investigated anybody in the case except Sam Sheppard," Corrigan said.

Dr. Sheppard seemed to be despite an earli detectives the despite an earlier statement by him that he had been advised not to talk to the police or anyone else.

Refuses Examination

The osteopath angered Pol-hief Frank W. Story in orning when he refused to Police morning when he refused to be examined by Dr. Spencer Braden, brain specialist, and Dr. George Greene, police surgeon. Story related that Dr Story related that Dr. Sam said he had been advised by his counsel not to submit to a physi-

The police chief quoted Shepas saying that, since an osteopath, he felt pard cal examination.

was an osteopath, he felt that he would not be given a fair and impartial examination by a medical doctor. Dr. Sam added that he considered Dr. Greene and Dr. Braden "reputable and gentlemen," however. honorable Not Wearing Collar have made him a bona-"We fide offer to give him a bona-fide offer to give him every benefit of checking his physical condition as to whether he is fit for questioning," Story said. "He cast aspersions on the physicians as to their integrity. So now we are going to go ahead with the questioning." questioning."

Sheppard was not wearing the leather therapeutic collar and the sun-glasses which have identified him in news photos when Story visited him. The prisoner spent a restful

The prisoner spent a restful night in his cell, jailors reported. He ate the usual prison breakfast of cereal and coffee after awakening at 5:15 a.m. After breakfast he went back to sleep on his cot. morning gene Mankovich, jail physician, made a routine examination of Sheppard and reported nothing wrong with his physical condition. Dr. Braden and Dr. Greene id they noted nothing wrong th Dr. Sam's condition during said the brief their conversation him. Fails to Get Writ

It had been planned to take Dr. Sam to Central Police Station for the interrogation.

However, it was decided to question him at the County Jail since a deputy sheriff would have had to accompany him and be present at the questioning if he the County Jail. An attempt by Corrigan to ob-tain a writ of habeas corpus and free Sheppard failed in the morn-

Common Pleas Judge Frank Merrick set the hearing on the application for the writ at 10:15 tomorrow morning at Lakeside tomorrow morning Avenue Courthouse. Charges Arrest Is Illegal Corrigan's application said Dr. Sam's arrest was illegal. The lawyer said the charging first-degree murder was illegal in that it was issued by Gershom M. M. Barber, Bay Vil-Gershom M. M. Barber, who president, who acted for Mayor Houk. It was contended that a mayor a justice of the peace cannot begate his authority in the delegate his delegate his authority in the issuance of a warrant.

Should the warrant be found illegal, county authorities probably would obtain another and bly would obtain another continue to hold Sheppard.

Ball to Be Asked Corrigan said he intended to ask for bail for Dr. Sam. There Corrigan There was considerable doubt that bail would be granted.

Dr. Stephen A. Sheppard, a brother of Dr. Sam, and Stephen's wife, Betty M., were denied permission by Sheriff Joseph M.
Sweeney to visit the prisoner.

carrying a portable radio and a bag resembling a medical kit. After waiting for an hour they the building.

They were told visiting hours are from 1 to 3 p. m. on Fridays.
Another brother, Dr. Richard N. Sheppard, did gain entrance into the solitary cell of the prisoner and visited briefly.

Sweeney said the exception

Sweeney said t was made because deness of the arrest." 'sud-County Prosecutor Frank Cullitan indicated immediate grand jury action was not anticipated.

It was pointed out that considerable preparation would be necessary before the case was submitted to the jury. In addition the constant of the tion, the current questioning may bring out vital information.

continued Detectives the Sheppard home

search for clews.

It was discovered there was blood on the upstairs hallway carpeting leading to the bed rooms of Chip, the Sheppard 6½ year-old son, and to a gues suite occupied by Dr. Lester Hoversten, who was in Kent, O. on the murder night.

Police received a report that the murdered woman had taken instructions in jujitsu and was capable of throwing a man weighing 250 pounds. They in tended checking this out to see if it would explain Dr. Sam's in juries. ł

Golf Club Examined Turned into police was a broken No. 2 stainless stee shafted golf club found at the West Side Market. The club head had a red stain. While it was not considered likely to be the murder weapon, it will be tested.

ı

tested.
Cleveland

Mayor Houk was revealed by Deputy Inspector James E. Mc-Arthur to have failed on two questions in a lie detector test taken by him voluntarily two mosks ago. questions in a ne detector test taken by him voluntarily two weeks ago.

The test showed reactions
when Houk was asked "What happened to the T-shirt?" and "Have you answered all questions truthfully?" Holds Detector Erred Houk said that he had told the full truth and that the lie detector was in error, not he.
Mrs. Esther Houk, the mayor's wife, said neither she nor her son, Larry, 16, would take the lie detector test.
Houk said the family no longer considered the examination as a valid test.
"If you only knew what onephone call could do to a family,"
he said. "Just because we were friends we were humiliated.
He added that he had taken two tests voluntarily and in the spirit of co-operation. He said he "told the truth and the whole truth."
Mrs. Houk Quizzed

Cleveland detectives reported Mrs. Sheppard's golf set was complete. It had been thought a No. 9 club was missing, but it was learned there was no No. 9 club in the set, a No. 8 iron being used by Marilyn.

Mayor Houk was revealed by Deputy Inspector James E. Mc-

Houk Quizzed Mrs. The Houk'c daughter, Lynette, 14, was asked by police what time she got home from a girl time she got home from a girl friends.

The girl was home in time to watch the late television movie before midnight July 3, Mrs. Houk said.

Richard S. Weygandt, Bay Village law director, disputed a printed report that Dr. Stephen Sheppard had been in contact with him prior to the issuance of the warrant.

the warrant.

He said the first time he talked to or saw the Sheppards was at the hearing at the Bay Village City Hall when Dr. Sam was brought in by police Friday night.

night.

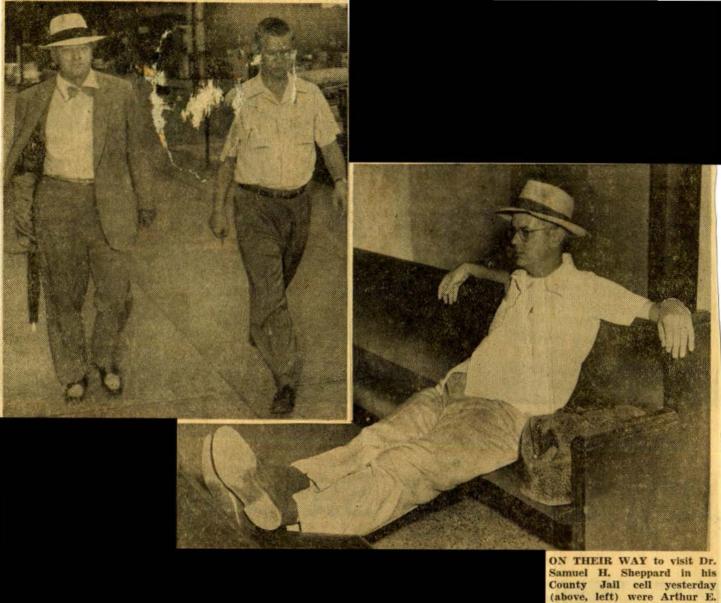

Houk denied he told Police Chief John P. Eaton that Marilyn was afraid of Dr. Sam's temper and feared for her life.

Chief Eaton said that, if Houk said he did not tell him, then it must have been someone else who relayed the information to him. He explained he had talked to many persons on the particular day the information was learned.

Houk was served a subpoena to appear at the habeas corpus subpoena hearing.

RELAYS OF DETECTIVES questioned Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard yesterday at the County Jail. Left: Detectives Patrick A. Gareau (left) and Robert E. Schottke leave the Criminal Court Building after questioning Dr. Sam for four hours. Right: Entering the building to take up where Gareau and Schottke left off are Detectives William Lonchar (left) and Peter Becker. Middle: William J. Corrigan, Dr. Sam's attorney, reads a statement to newsmen.

(above, left) were Arthur E. Petersilge (left), one of his lawyers, and Dr. Richard N. Sheppard, a brother. Right: Another brother, Dr. Stephen A. Sheppard, cooled his heels while waiting for permission to see Dr. Sam. Dr. Steve was told to come back on the regular visiting day, Friday, from 1 to 3 p. m.