Get Their Man

Press Herald, 1954
After watching "Dragnet" last night, I was just wondering if anyone had thought of calling in Jack Webb and Frank Smith to solve the Sheppard case? They always get their man!

LAURA OLIVER, 280 Saddler Rd., Bay Village.

Awful Injustice Charged

What in the world is the world coming to? Isn't there anything decent The Press can print of the Sheppards?

Doesn't The Press realize the awful injustice it is doing to this wonderful family? There are children in the Sheppard family of school age. Can't The Press find anything else to print in order to sell their paper?

Two months ago I had two major surgeries and through the aid of the Sheppards, D. O., and am once more enjoying wonderful health, after suffering 15 long years and M.D. doctoring. I thank God every day that I met the wonderful Sheppards. I guess you never saw any of the Sheppards in surgery, saving a human life. I have.

You no doubt aren't familiar how the four Sheppards make the rounds in the hospital to inquire about the progress of each patient, well, I know—I lived in Bay View Hospital for 15 days, and my 16-year-old son can also tell you. He is in Bay View Hospital now—he was admitted Aug. 2.

He will tell you how a very busy O. D., Dr. Richard Sheppard Jr. took time out to explain my surgery to a very anxious husband and son. My son found the explanation so very interesting that when he went back to James Ford Rhodes High the youngster wrote a 20-page essay. The homeroom teacher also thought the essay very interesting and had my son read it in class.

There is an old saying that a leopard never changes his spots. Well, I am that leopard, for no one will change my feelings for Dr. Sam and his fine family, no matter what filth you may print in The Press.
