Dr. Sam's Patient Praises Him

Anyone knowing Doctor Sam knows he could not be guilty of such a crime. He has done wonders for many, many people; myself included.

I was in Bay View Hospital for 21 days last July and received excellent care and treatment. I was an emergency patient and Doctor Sam waited for me for over two hours at the hospital while the North Olmsted police, who are also to be commended on their thoughtfulness and patience, brought me in.

This also on a holiday week end and late at night. He performed brain surgery on me and did a wonderful job.

Bay View Hospital was always ready for emergency cases and gave them good service at any time. My children have been taken into Bay View twice on emergency; the last one this past Sunday.

We feel that either M. D.'s or D. O.'s are doctors to help people and we have had both on numerous occasions.

Advice From the Wigwam

We are getting the Press daily up here in Canada and these backwoodsmen enjoy its contents, especially the Boy Crime Comedy. Most everyone wants to know what crime school the bushy-hair man attended to learn how to do such a good job house cleaning after the job he did.

Chief Whoppam say this big bushy hair man Nobody, and dog No Bark. Chief say put dog in wigwam some night then let bushy man try to get upstairs and see if he barks.

Chief Whitefeather thinks Chief Lopez will scalp head off Yanks and crystal ball says looks like big noise in Cleveland Stadium later for tribe.

Flimsy

It seems to me the basis for the persecution of Dr. Sam is pretty flimsy. It's incongruous that the Sheppards indulged in arguments about whether to buy new furniture if they were contemplating divorce.

It's a rare husband that knows where to find his shirts—clean or dirty.

If The Cleveland Press hung every man that doesn't know where his shirt is and then hung every person suspected of being unfaithful to his marriage vows and then hung a person for every time a dog didn't bark at a stranger there wouldn't be a soul left in the world to see that justice is done.
