WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION DENIED: A REPLY
    Harold Ticktin ........................................ 430

HORSEPLAY BY EMPLOYEES
    Howard L. Oleck .......................................... 438

TRENDS IN DAMAGE AWARDS FOR SPINAL INJURIES
    Vivian Solganik ......................................... 451

WIFE'S ACTION FOR LOSS OF CONSORTIUM
    Keith Spero ............................................. 462

LIABILITY FOR LEAVING FIREARMS ACCESSIBLE TO CHILDREN
    William C. Gargiulo ...................................... 472

UNSEAWORTHINESS AND PERSONAL INJURIES ASHORE
    Frank R. Grundman ....................................... 481

ACCOUNTANTS' LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES
    Robert Stern ............................................. 490

THIRD PARTY PLAINTIFFS IN CIVIL RIGHTS DAMAGE ACTIONS
    Robert M. Didrick ........................................ 496

INSURANCE QUESTIONS IN VOIR DIRE
    Kenneth S. Kabb ......................................... 504

MECHANICAL TESTIMONY
    David J. Portmann ...................................... 519

FAIR AND REASONABLE ATTORNEY FEES
    Jack Griesmar ........................................... 530

MILITARY LAW AND THE MIRANDA REQUIREMENTS
    Gaylord L. Finch ....................................... 537

A CASE FOR COMPUTERS IN LAW PRACTICE
    Donald J. Elardo ....................................... 552

ERROR IN OMITTING "OR DIE" AFTER A TESTAMENTARY GIFT
    OF INCOME TO WIDOW
    Anthony A. Marano ..................................... 567

NEEDED: THE SOCIAL-SCIENTIFIC LAWYER
    Kent M. Weeks ........................................... 578

RECORDS AND SOURCES OF OHIO LAW FROM 1787 TO 1850
    William H. Vodrey ...................................... 583

BOOK REVIEWS
    Health Law Center, Problems In Hospital Law
    James K. Gaynor ......................................... 616

    Henderson and Lasher, 20 Million Careless Capitalists
    Frank D. Emerson ....................................... 618