LEE E. SKEEL

Judge Skeel was born in White City, Kansas in 1888, but has been a life-long resident of Greater Cleveland. After attending undergraduate school at Hiram College, he received his LL.B. degree summa cum laude from Cleveland Law School in 1912, and engaged immediately in the active practice of law. His practice was interrupted by a period of service with the 322d Machine Gun Battalion in France during World War I. Thereafter, Judge Skeel embarked upon a career characterized by achievement.

As a lawyer, he was Chief Counsel for the Cleveland Automobile Club from 1918 to 1922. As a man interested in the welfare of his fellow men, he has served as an executive officer of the Cleveland Safety Council, the Ohio State Safety Council, and the National Safety Council. As an instrumentality of justice, he has served successively as Chief Police Prosecutor of the City of Cleveland, Judge of the Municipal Court of Cleveland, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Cuyahoga County, and Judge of the Court of Appeals, a position which he still holds. As an educator, Judge Skeel has been a teacher of law in both Cleveland Marshall Law School and its predecessor, Cleveland Law School, since 1926; has served in the capacity of dean, trustee, and president of Cleveland Law School; and has been president of Cleveland Marshall Law School since 1946.

Lawyer, jurist, teacher, scholar and humanitarian, Judge Skeel is a rare combination of deep wisdom, keen intellect, humor and humility.
