

Code	311012
Subject	carol hornick of western reserve historical society (WRHS), cleveland ballet, and cleveland playhouse
Date	11/21/2005
Interviewer	nicole kiehl
Special Notes	playhouse square theatre district, euclid avenue, downtown holiday events

minutes:

introduction, background, memories of downtown/euclid avenue (esp. during the 1 holidays)

2

3

professional history (cleveland ballet, western reserve historical society, cleveland 4 playhouse)

5 WRHS "millionaire's row" exhibit/history of euclid avenue

6

7

history of the Connecticut Western Reserve, mission of WRHS and affiliated 8 museums and properties

9

10 cleveland ballet [9:40 forward]

11

12 promoting the ballet in both traditional and unexpected ways

13

14

15 playhouse square

16

17

18 cleveland playhouse

19

20 holiday events and other programming at the playhouse

21

22 affiliation with Case Western Reserve University Drama Program

23 good things happening on euclid avenue

24

25 cleveland playhouse's Festival of Trees holiday event

26

27

28 cleveland playhouse's upcoming season

29 meeting prominent individuals at playhouse square

30

31

32 comparing experiences at different local theatres

33

34 the present and future of cleveland's theatre scene [33:30 forward]

35

36

37 working at cleveland playhouse

38

39

40 playhouse square as a destination

41

42 end