

Code	311020
Subject	Loree Resnik of Suburban Temple Kol-Ami, discussing Lake View Cemetery
Date	12/2/2005
Interviewer	Erin Bell
Special Notes	lakeview cemetery, reform judaism, suburban migration

minutes:

- 1 introduction and background, brief history of Suburban Temple
- 2 establishing a congregational section in Lake View Cemetery
- 3 rules governing Suburban Temple's section
- 4 congregational rates of burial at Lake View
- 5 Jewish monument aesthetics at Lake View and abroad
- 6
- 7
- 8 Jewish death rituals
- 9
- 10
- 11
- 12
- 13
- 14
- 15
- 16
- 17
- "there's a very special feel to lake view cemetery that you don't necessarily see at
- 18 other cemeteries"
- public uses of the cemetery: "it's not so terrible that there are signs of life at a
- 19 cemetery"
- 20 Berkowitz-Kumin-Bookatz funeral home
- 21
- 22
- 23
- 24
- 25 Jewish neighborhoods and institutions in Cleveland's eastern suburbs
- 26
- 27 clarification
- 28 stone setting
- 29 Daffodil Hill section at Lake View
- 30 Lake View doesn't observe Sabbath restrictions
- 31 traditional jewish monument inscriptions
- 32 cemeteries as sites of civic and religious education
- 33
- 34 installation art at Lake View
- 35 other possible interview subjects
- 36 Glenville's past life as a Jewish enclave
- 37 end