

Code	700031
Subject	Jay Gardner
Date	Date of Interview ex. 6/15/2010
Interviewer	Kieth Peppers
Abstract	Mr. Gardner discusses his lengthy involvement with non profit organizations and community projects. His current involvement with the Quebec Serenity Gardens and a connector pathway within the Fairfax neighborhood are discussed against the backdrop of the Reimagining Cleveland Grant. The steps involved in applying for the grants, designing a worthy project as well as some of the problems involved are discussed.
Special Notes
minutes:	25 minutes
	0 Background
	1 Occupational background
	2 Attraction to NPOs due to growing up in the 1960s
	3 Public service record
	4 Description of grants and Quebec Serenity Gardens
	5 Quebec Serenity Garden description
	6 Cont.
	7 Description of other project currently involved with is a connector pathway
	8 Selection of particular lots
	9 Master plan
	10 Selection process
	11 Problems faced
	12 Search for manpower
	13 Time line for redevelopment
	14 Materials needed
	15 Juggling 2 projects and the community's feelings about the projects
	16 Safety concerns
	17 Fairfax neighborhood description
	18 Future of grants involved with 19 Hopes for the future of the grants
	20 Community impact
	21 Are needs being met?
	22 NPI workshops
	23 Things learned through workshops
	24 Closing comments
	25 End