

Jewish Cleveland Haymarket to the Heights

© 2013 Jeff Morris
Cleveland, Ohio

West of the Cuyahoga River

Map # 9 14/12/2013

Bnai Israel est. 1912 and the newer Beth Israel—The West Side Temple est.1954 merged using the later name in 1957. The only other known Congregation on the West Side of Cleveland was Oheb Zedek in 1892. No add'l information could be found on this congregation.

Note:

Est., dates on this document are not the date of incorporation unless states as such.

A New Hebrew Congregation.
A new Hebrew congregation has been formed on the West Side to be known as Ohev Zedek (Disciples of Justice) and money is being liberally subscribed toward a West Side Synagogue. To further the cause an entertainment will be given on Tuesday evening, December 12th in Turn Hall on Mechanic street.

Clipping from the Cleveland Plain Dealer
December 2, 1882. No Other supportive material found.

Beth Israel -
The West Side Temple
14308 Triskett Road
1953 - Current

B'nai Israel -
West Side Jewish Center
1791 W. 57th
1924 - circa 1930s

B'nai Israel
West Side Jewish Center
4101 John Avenue.
1940 -1953

