

and if he did, I wanted him to be heard.

MR. CORRIGAN: But look at all the time we took on that woman.

THE COURT: But you are being heard,
too, you know, and we are not trying a one-sided case here.

Thereupon EDWARD GOLDMAN, being first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION OF PROSPECTIVE JUROR EDWARD GOLDMAN:

BY THE COURT:

Q Is your name Edward Goldman? ✓

A Correct.

Q 2597 Colchester Road?

A That's right, sir.

Q That's in Cleveland Heights?

A Cleveland Heights, yes.

Q And how long have you lived on Colchester Road, Cleveland Heights?

A It will be 10 years on January 10th.

Q And are you a married man?

A Yes, sir, your Honor.

Q And do you have a family?

A Yes, your Honor.

Q And what does your family consist of?

A Well, my wife and two married daughters. Do you want to know the rest of the family?

Q No. That's all. Those are all your children, just two daughters?

A Yes, your Honor.

Q And what is your occupation or profession, sir?

A Well, accounting and insurance.

Q And how long have you been in that business?

A Well, in credit and bookkeeping and office, oh, for over 40 years; insurance since '38, 16 years.

Q Are you in business for yourself, or connected with some organization?

A Well, with an organization.

Q And what is the organization, if I may ask?

A Dorsey Insurance Agency.

Q Will you repeat that, please?

A Dorsey Insurance Agency, in the Swetland Building, and Lincoln National Life Insurance in the 1010 Euclid Building.

Q I take it that you were in the courtroom yesterday morning when the Court addressed the panel generally?

A Yes, your Honor.

Q And you saw and heard these people who were introduced here to you?

A Yes, your Honor.

Q Do you know anyone that was mentioned here yesterday morning?

A Personally or by reputation?

Q Well, personally, to start with.

A Well, if my recollection is correct, some years ago when I was in the dress manufacturing business and we had a strike, if I remember correctly, Mr. Corrigan represented the union at the time. I may be in error.

MR. CORRIGAN: What company was it?

PROSP. JUROR GOLDMAN: J. L. Brock and Company, Incorporated, in the Artcraft Building. We were there from '33 --

MR. CORRIGAN: That was way back in '37, wasn't it?

PROSP. JUROR GOLDMAN: It could have been. Prior to that we were on West Ninth Street.

MR. CORRIGAN: International Garment Workers Union?

PROSP. JUROR GOLDMAN: That's right, with Abe Kotowsky, is that correct?

MR. CORRIGAN: Yes. I have represented them about 25, 30 years.

PROSP. JUROR GOLDMAN: That's right. It was a strike in 1930.

BY THE COURT:

Q We will come to that later. Assuming for the moment that you had some labor difficulty, as you suggest, at that time -- we are not interested in details at the moment -- and assuming that Mr. Corrigan did represent the Union or some parties involved, would that have any bearing on your judgment in this case?

A No, your Honor.

Q You have no personal quarrel with Mr. Corrigan?

A .Not personally, no. I was interested in the company.

Q You just disagreed with him?

A Well, it was a matter of business. We were in business, and they called a strike, and you know the things that --

Q And what year did you say that was, roughly?

A I don't know definitely. We had a strike in 1930.

Q Was it somewhere in the thirties?

A I think it was in 1930. We had one in 1918. That goes back a couple of years.

Q And do you know the County Prosecuting Attorney, Mr. Frank T. Cullitan, or any member of his staff?

A Not personally; only by reputation.

Q Do you know the sheriff or any member of his staff?

A No, your Honor.

Q Do you know the Coroner, Dr. Gerber, or any member of his staff?

A No, your Honor.

Q Have you any members of your family who are members of any Police Department anywhere or of any law-enforcing agency at all?

A No, your Honor.

Q Have you ever served on a jury, Petit or Grand, before?

A No. I was called before in Federal Grand Jury in Boston, but I didn't serve.

Q You didn't serve?

A No. Just to give evidence on an Interstate Commerce case.

Q Have any members of your family or yourself ever had violence visited upon them by anyone?

A No, your Honor.

Q I take it that you heard of this case before?

A Naturally.

Q Have you read newspapers concerning it?

A Quite a good deal.

Q Have you heard radio or television comments on it?

A I have, your Honor.

Q Have you formed an opinion on the basis of those or on any other basis as to the guilt or innocence of Dr. Sheppard?

A I have.

Q And is that opinion such that it would be controlling over evidence that you heard in open court and instructions of the Court as to the law, as to the principles of law to govern in this case? In other words, is your opinion of such a character that you couldn't change it even by evidence?

A Well, that's pretty hard to explain that.

Q We don't want particularly an explanation about your opinion, but what we are concerned about is that you have told us that you have formed an opinion and -- I will put another question entirely to you and see if that will help you at all, and I want you to be perfectly honest about it.

Could you sit here patiently and forget everything that you thought about the matter in the past and listen to the evidence as it comes from this witness stand and to the instructions of the Court as to the law of this case, and be guided entirely by those? You can answer that yes or no.

A I don't believe I could.

Q You don't believe you could? ✓

A No.

THE COURT: I take it you will have to be excused, sir.

You will be excused, Mr. Goldman. Thank you.
