A Yes, your Honor.

Q W-i-l-k-e-n-s?

A Yes, your Honor.

Q And you live at 3555 Kimmel, is it?

A That's correct.

Q Would that be Euclid?

A No. That's in Cleveland.

Q It's in Cleveland?

A Yes, sir.

Q And how long have you lived at that address?

A All my life, sir.

Q And are you a married man?

A No, sir.

Q You are a single man?

A Yes, sir.

Q You were here yesterday morning, of course?

A Yes, your Honor.

Q Do you know any of those good people who were introduced here yesterday morning in this courtroom?

A No, your Honor.

Q You don't know any of them?

A No.

Q Do you know the County Prosecuting Attorney, Mr. Frank Cullitan, or any member of his staff?

A No, sir, I do not.

Q Or the sheriff or any member of his staff?

A No, I do not.

Q Or the Coroner?

A No.

Q Have you anyone closely related to you that is a member of any Police Department or any law-enforcing agency?

A No, your Honor, not that I know of. I really don't know. I would say no at this time.

Q What is your business or occupation?

A I am an Inspector with the Ohio Inspection Bureau.

Q You fix our fire insurance rates?

A That is correct, your Honor.

Q How long have you been in that position?

A Seven or eight years, seven and a half years.

Q Have you or any of your people that you know ever been visited at any time by violence?

A No.

Q I mean at the hands of another person?

A No.

Q I take it that you heard of this case that we have here, the case of the State of Ohio against Sam H. Sheppard?

A Yes, your Honor.

Q You have read newspapers and heard radio comments, and so forth, about it?

A Yes, sir, I have.

Q Has the result of those or any reason formed an opinion in your mind as to the guilt or innocence of Dr. Sheppard?

A Yes, I have formed an opinion. ✓

Q Is that opinion such that you couldn't change it by evidence in this courtroom?

A No, I don't believe that would change. ✓

Q You don't believe you could change it?

A No, I don't think so.

THE COURT: All right. You may be excused.

PROSP. JUROR WILKENS: Thank you.

THE COURT: Are you Mr. Rossiter? ✓

PROSP. JUROR ROSSITER: I am, your Honor.

THE COURT: I think I gave counsel a letter from a physician concerning Mr. Rossiter.

MR. GARMONE: That's right.

THE COURT: Is there any question that you care to put to him, or is there any objection
