

THE COURT: The first peremptory is with the defense, that is, the second peremptory.

MR. PETERSILGE: The defense will excuse Mr. Smith.

THE COURT: You will excuse him?

MR. PETERSILGE: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Mr. Smith, you are excused. Thank you very much, sir.

Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, now that you have been sworn as jurors for the trial of this case and you are about to leave this courtroom, the Court is going to do what the law of this state calls for and requires that he shall do. I have already stated to you what the law prescribes, and I will state it again in order that there be no misunderstanding whatever about it.

You are not to talk to anyone about this case or any matter in connection with it at any time during the progress of this trial. You are not to permit others to talk to you about it. You are not to remain anywhere where other people are talking about it among themselves, whether they have an interest in the case or not. You are not to discuss it among yourselves, either in your jury room or elsewhere.

It is the duty of a person who has been selected
