

I simply brought it to the Court's attention because I just learned of it, and I thought you were entitled to know. I realize it is not evidence.

As to Mrs. Uhrin, before we challenge --

THE COURT: As to Mrs. Uhrin, you are renewing your motion?

MR. BAILEY: That she be excused for cause.

THE COURT: That she be excused for cause, and that motion is hereby overruled. (Thereupon proceedings were resumed within the hearing of the jury panel, as follows:)

THE COURT: Counselor Sherman of Counselor Bailey, I believe the option is with the defense.

MR. SHERMAN: Your Honor, the defense will excuse juror number one, Mr. Severs.

THE COURT: Mr. Severs, the Court wishes to extend to you its gratitude on behalf of each of us who has participated in these proceedings.

You have been with us for several days and willing to serve as a juror if selected, and the Court wants again to commend you for your willingness to perform this important service.

The Court, however, instructs you and admonishes you that you are not to discuss this case, nor make any statements for publication, or to participate in any interview.

You are not to discuss this case even with a member of your family or make any observations that you may have with respect to the merits or the lack of merits or any other observation that you may have in connection with this case.

You shall be free to speak only about this case when a jury has returned its verdict in this courtroom, in open court.

Do you understand that, sir?

MR. SEVERS:           Yes, sir.

THE COURT:           Thank you, Mr. Severs.

Mr. Patrick will escort you from the room.

- - -