

Thereupon THEODORE J. MAYER, being first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION OF PROS. JUROR THEODORE J. MAYER

By the Court:

Q Will you state your name, please?

A Theore J. Mayer.

Q Where do you live, sir?

A 3921 Behrwald Avenue.

Q What principality is that in?

A Brooklyn --

Q Where?

A Cleveland.

Q It is in Cleveland?

A Cleveland.

Q How long have you lived there?

A 61 years.

Q And what is your occupation or profession?

A Electrotyper.

Q You have lived in Cleveland how long?

A 61 years.

Q Do you know anyone---do you know the County prosecuting attorney or any member of his staff?

A No, I don't believe I do.

Q Do you have any member of your family, immediate family, who is a member of any law-enforcing agency anywhere?

A No.

Q You have heard of this case before, I take it?

A I have.

Q Have you read any newspapers or heard any radio comment, television views or any other media of communication?

A I have.

Q And have you as a result of those formed any opinion at all?

A I have.

Q And is that opinion that you have formed such that you could not -- that could not be changed by evidence?

A Well, can I put that in my own way?

Q Yes.

A I am against capital punishment, and I don't --

Q You are against capital punishment?

A I am, yes.

Q How long have you been against capital punishment?

A I always have been.

Q Is your objection on religious grounds?

A No, it is not.

Q Not on religion?

A No.

Q But you have entertained it a long time?

A I have.

Q Do I understand from what you say that if a jury was to reach the point where they were convinced that they should find the defendant guilty, that you could not join in that verdict if it meant capital punishment?

11 A I don't believe I could. I don't believe I could.

MR. MAHON: Challenge for cause,
if your Honor please.

THE COURT: All right. I take it there is no objection to excusing the gentleman?

MR. GARMONE: We have no objection, your Honor.

THE COURT: You will be excused, sir.
Thank you very much.

(Prospective Juror Theodore J. Mayer excused.)

THE COURT: Let's have quiet, please.
