

Q That kind of a man?

A Yes, sir, I do. ✓

MR. CORRIGAN: Pass for cause.

THE COURT: The next peremptory is with the State, gentlemen.

MR. MAHON: If your Honor please,
the State is satisfied with the jury as now constituted.

THE COURT: Defense.

We will be at ease a moment, ladies and gentlemen, while counsel have a consultation, which is perfectly proper and quite usual.

MR. PETERSILGE: Your Honor, the defense requests that you excuse No. 6, Mr. Brown. ✓

(Thereupon Prospective Juror Fred Brown was excused.)

THE COURT: What about Virginia Lee Sinclair? I do not have any record of having excused her.

MR. GARMONE: She was excused, your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Which one have you got? We have now Harold F. Plagens. No. 65.
We excused Virginia Lee Sinclair.

MR. CORRIGAN: She is in Mexico City.

THE COURT: Sir?

MR. CORRIGAN: That is the lady that is in Mexico City.

THE COURT: Oh, yes. We could hardly do anything else, could we?

Thereupon HAROLD F. PLAGENS, being first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION OF PROS. JUROR HAROLD F. PLAGENS

By the Court:

Q. Your name is Harold F. Plagens?

A That's right.

Q And you live at 564 Hemlock Drive in Euclid?

A Right, sir.

Q And how long have you lived there?

A Two years.

Q And did you live at 14002 Beaumont Street in East Cleveland before that?

A That's right, sir, for eight years.

Q Are you a married man, Mr. Plagens?

A Yes, sir.
