Mrs. Gorman states that she and her husband are on the verge of separation and that she stays with her mother at 1371 Westlake Ave., Lakewood, Ohio. Her husband resides at residence on Frank Street. Upon learning of the tragic event at Sheppard's she came right home to Frank St., because she wondered if her husband might be involved. It seems that her husband had had heated words with Dr. Sam Sheppard over the telephone in which husband accused Dr. Sam of being the cause of their marital difficulties.

Mrs. Gorman suffered an injury to her brain; according to her, she struck her head on bunk bed. This injury required an operation on September of 1952. In December of 1953 her husband struck her on the head near point of operation and caused slight concussion for which Dr. Sam hospitalized her once more for a period of a week. It was after this incident that Dr. Sam called an attorney without the consent of either belligerent and sought his aid in securing safety for his patient.

Mrs. Gorman up to the time of this report had not seen her husband from 6:00 A.M. July 3rd but knew that he was supposed to be in Springfield, Ohio.

Mrs. Gorman had been so concerned that she had called the brother of Edward, Thomas Gorman, 925 LaGonda, Springfield, Ohio and asked him whether her husband had been there and when he arrived and when he left.

Suggested that Mr. Gorman come in and make a statement. See such statement on file.

July 8, 1954 checked in at Fairview Park Police Dept. and contacted Lt. Ralph Wurm in regards to a report from him that an Otto Wulf who resides at 22550 Macbeth Ave., in Parkview Village had reported that a D.P. woman neighbor who cleans at the Fairview Clinic had told him of a large man with bushy hair who had been at the Clinic on Saturday night.

With Lt. Wurm went to Chief Larsens home and after determining the exact location of this D.P. woman went to her residence at 22462 Macbeth, Parkview Village, Ohio. This woman is Mary Sakarnis. She does cleaning at this Clinic.

She stated that on either Thursday or Saturday night around 11:00 P.M. a large man, with black eyes, black bushy hair, sweating, shirt open and red and black squares in shirt, entered clinic wild eyed and was looking for the doctor. She said she is positive she could identify this man again if she saw him.

Upon questioning her further found that she would not reveal doctors name because he had just stepped out for a moment to get a cup of coffee and it was against the rules to do so. At this point this woman tried to make us believe that the incident took place a month ago. She is afraid of losing her job which she likes very much.

This woman is not stating the truth as to the date this happened.
