The Cleveland Jewish Society Book

Vol. III 1919

Published by
The Jewish Independent Publishing Company

The Cleveland Jewish Society Books were published from 1915 to 1925 by the Jewish Independent Publishing Company, a locally owned publisher that published the weekly Jewish Independent. The books were similar in appearance to the Cleveland Blue Book, a guide for society’s elite. The listings in the Cleveland book listed individuals by country club. The Jewish books list individuals by congregations. In many cases there are separate lists of the congregations’ ladies auxiliary, along with information on social service agencies. The book also included advertisements.

The books are a valuable resource for those conducting genealogy researches within the time period. The advertisements and information on the various social service agencies provide insight into the times. Eight editions were published over the ten year period.

men, women and children,
composing the scores of organizations that helped to build up an idea: Jewish community in Cleveland

Volume I of the Jewish Society Book is local Jewish history. Volume II became a necessity, because time brings many changes in a large community. Volume III is published so that Cleveland may have a record of what its thousands of Jewish soldiers and sailors accomplished. Many of the men and women who had figured conspicuously in our first Book laid down the burdens of life and are no more, and others have taken their places. Young men and women conspicuous a year ago are now active in the community and these must be given proper recognition.

Being virtually a directory of members of Jewish organizations, many of those whose names and addresses appeared in the last volume have moved to other quarters, some organizations have ceased to exist, new ones have taken their places. New officers have been elected in many organizations, clubs, fraternal, philanthropic and other societies, and all these changes must be accounted for.

Never before in the history of Cleveland, until the publication of Volume I, has an effort been made to compile in one volume the manifold activities, including the history of the Cleveland Jewish Community. With the knowledge that the city has a Jewish population of more than one hundred thousand—a large city in itself—the necessity and convenience of such a compilation became evident.

Anyone may at a glance ascertain by reading this volume the religious, social, philanthropic, charitable and other activities of the community. It is intended to show not merely the object of each organization, but its officers, trustees and membership as well.

What are the various synagogues in Cleveland? Who are the rabbis, officers and leading spirits? What nationalities do they represent? Are they Orthodox or Reform?

How about the clubs and the different charities, the fraternal and other organizations?

Whatever you wish to know regarding them will be answered in this book, to the best of our ability.

You may see at a glance that this directory is something Cleveland should have had decades ago, but on the supposition that it is never too late to begin a good thing, we experimented on Volume I, and now we offer this volume to the Cleveland community, trusting that it will be duly appreciated.

When the First Jewish Pioneers Arrived

Volume III of the Jewish Society Book is a reflection of the continued phenomenal growth of the city and the commensurate development of the Cleveland Jewish community with its many splendid enterprises.

Cleveland has attained a conspicuous position among American cities during the past half century and the most remarkable strides have been made within even a more recent period.

In 1837 when Simson Thorman reached Cleveland, the Forest City had a population of about 5,000. Ohio City, now the West Side had a population of about 1,600.

Today Cleveland is a city of 860,000 people and of that number about 125,000 are of the Jewish faith. Cleveland, Sixth City in total population is Fourth in Jewish population.

Volume I of the Jewish Society Book was the initial record of the achievements of Cleveland Jews, their many religious and philanthropic enterprises, their social and fraternal organizations, and their noble institutions which rank with the greatest of the country.

Volume II was an evidence of the continued growth and expansion of the Cleveland Jewish Community. The newest issue of the Jewish Society Book, Volume III, reveals the more recent forward strides of Jewish enterprises and institutions. It is an attainment of which every Jew may well be proud.

As a compact and clear and securable record of this attainment, the Jewish Society Book in its revised form is offered to the Cleveland community.

History of the Jewish Community.

The story of the Cleveland Jewish community, its growth and development extends back to the year 1837.

Cleveland had been a city for the brief period of one year when the first Jewish settler, Simson Thorman, a native of Unslaehn, Bavaria, arrived. John W. Willey, a brilliant young attorney was then mayor. He had been named at an election arranged by the last body of village trustees in 1836 and his re-election occurred the following year.

Cleveland's pioneer Jewish resident took an active interest in the civic affairs of early Cleveland as well as in the upbuilding of the religious and communal life of the early Jewish settlers who came to America because of the restrictive legislation in Germany. He became a member of the Cleveland City council and was also active in B'nai B'rith movements. In addition he was one of the organizers of the Anshe Chesed Congregation. Later he became a member of Tifereth Israel Congregation. Mr. Thorman was married to Miss Regina Klein, who came to Cleveland with her parents. The couple were the parents of Samuel Thorman, Mrs. Joseph Erlanger, Mrs. Philip Schloss, Mrs. Kaufman Hays, Mrs. Jacob Wiener, Mrs. M. Wiener, Frank Thorman, Judah Thorman and Simon Thorman. Simson Thorman's death occurred nearly forty years ago at Terre Haute, Ind. His remains are interred at Old Willet cemetery on the West Side.

Other members of the earlier Jewish community were Aaron Lowen-tritt, Samson Hoffman, Simon Newmark, Moses Alsbacher, Gerson Strauss, S. L. Coleman and Kalman Roskopf. It was in the year 1839 that Samson Hoffman and his family settled here and the home of this first Jewish family to arrive became the gathering place of the young men. Not long afterwards plans for the organization of a congregation were formulated and the Israelitische Society was established. Its original membership was twenty and Isaac Hoffman was its first spiritual leader. The organization of the Israelitische Society took place in 1839. The following year the congregation purchased the first cemetery. For the sum of one hundred dollars the tract that is now the site of the Willet Cemetery was acquired.

Three years later there occurred a division among the members of the society. A number of whom withdrew and formed the Anshe Chesed Society. One congregation worshipped in a hall on old South Water street, and the other in a hall in Farmers' block on Prospect avenue. Rev. Asher Lehman was the spiritual head of the Anshe Chesed Society. union eventually followed and the offshoot of the two was the Israelite Anshe Chesed Society, now the Euclid avenue temple, worshipping in the temple at Euclid avenue and E. 82nd street. Leonard Case presented this congregation with a lot on Ohio street, now Central avenue, which was exchanged for property on Eagle street where, at a cost of $1,500, the first Anshe Chesed synagogue was built. Prior to the erection of the synagogue on Eagle street, the united congregation worshiped in a room in Farmers' block, under the leadership of S. L. Stearn.

There was a large number of Jewish arrivals in Cleveland in 1848 owing to then raging revolutions in Germany and with the new settlers came differences of opinion regarding modes of worship and another split much more serious than the first followed, resulting in the formation of the Tifereth Israel congregation two years later, with forty-seven members worshipping in private homes and in a hall in Kelly's block, on Superior street. The first temple of the congregation was dedicated in 1854 on Huron street, a bequest from Judah Touro of $3,000 making the purchase of the land possible. This congregation now worships in the Temple, at the corner of Central avenue and E. 55th street, and a new temple much further east following the migration of the Jewish population is one of the things of the near future.

Tifereth Israel was regarded as the Reform and Anshe Chesed the Orthodox congregation.

Anshe Chesed had its Shochet, also a committee to zealously guard the meat sold to members of the congregation, to see that it contained the necessary Kosher seal. The first move in the direction of Reform in this congregation was the abbreviation of the Sabbath service. In November, 1858, it was decided to engage a cantor and leader of the choir who was also able to preach in both German and English and teach the Sabbath school besides. The first rabbi of the congregation was Rev. E. Hertzman, who was elected in 1860 at a salary of $600 a year. For this sum he was obliged to conduct services in Hebrew, chant the prayers, deliver an occasional sermon and to teach an hour a day in the religious school.

In December, 1860, Eagle street temple was enlarged and rededicated by Rabbi Isaac M. Wise, of Cincinnati. There was some trouble a year later when the organ was introduced, some of the members objecting to the innovation.

Rabbi Hertzman served one year only and at the close of his ministry Rabbi Gustave M. Cohen was elected in July, 1861, serving the congregation five years. Rabbi Cohen introduced the voluntary choir. In 1865 there was a serious disagreement between congregation and rabbi. A short time later the rabbi resigned and took with him a score or more influential members of the congregation.

Then came Rabbi Nathan, who remained one year and on his resignation Rabbi Cohen was triumphantly reinstated as spiritual head at double the salary of his former rabbinate.

In 1869 another addition was built to the temple.

Rev. Dr. M. Tintner was the next Anshe Chesed rabbi. He came highly recommended as a rabbi with a university education, was elected for five years at the then princely salary of $3,000 a year, but at the close of the first year of his rabbinate he resigned. Dr. Tintner was the first of the Anshe Chesed rabbis to adopt a Reform prayer book.

Next came Rabbi M. Machol, a graduate of a theological seminary and of the University of Breslau, then rabbi of Anshe Maariv congregation, Chicago. Dr. Machol was called on recommendation of Dr. Samuel Wolfenstein. The congregation continued to grow and reforms were instituted, one of which was the setting aside of the second day of the holidays. When Eagle Temple was too small and too far downtown it was decided to follow the trend of the Jewish population and the temple on Scovill avenue and Henry street, as it was then called, was decided upon. The building committee was composed of Simon Newmark, Simon Skall, Simon Fishel, Moses Halle, M. Wyman, Abraham Strauss, E. J. Well and Ferdinand Strauss. September 2, 1887, the temple was dedicated.

The presidents of the congregation since its organization were as follows:

Frederick Goldsmith, Simon Newmark, Aaron Halle, Abraham Strauss, Simon Thorman, S. Goodhart, J. Rohrhelmer, A. Schwartz, M. Loeser, N. New, M. J. Moses, I Reinthal, S. Skall, Moses Halle, Isaac Levy, Simon Fishel, and Nathan Loeser, the present incumbent who has been president since the death of Mr. Fishel.

Dr. Machol, who was elected in 1876, continued as spiritual leader until August, 1907, when he was succeeded by Rabbi Louis Wolsey, who came here from Little Rock, Ark. Rabbi Machol was then elected rabbi emeritus, a post of honor he held until the day of his death.

On Saturday morning, March 16, 1912, farewell services were held in Scovill Temple and March 22, 23 and 24 the Euclid Avenue Temple which had been erected at a cost of $250,000 was dedicated.

In this connection it should be remembered that the original Eagle street synagogue was built at a cost of $1,500.

May 26, 1850, is the exact date of the organization of Tifereth Israel. The membership was forty-seven, and the first officers were: A. Schwab, president; Kaufman Koch, vice president; E. Pincus, secretary; G. A. Davis, treasurer; D. Hexter, S. Loeb, I. Englehart, W. Richlander, trustees.

Rabbi Isidor Kalisch was the first teacher, minister and chazan, from 1850 to 1855, at a salary of $400 a year.

Four years following the dedication of this synagogue Hebrew and Sunday schools were established, the teachers being Benjamin F. Peixotto, Jacob Englehart, Miss Lehman, Miss Louisa Koch and Miss Hannah Cohen.

Tifereth Israel was the Reform congregation of the city and as far back as 1861 an organ and choir were installed, then followed the adoption of a new prayer book by Dr. Merzbacher. Rev. Wolf Fassbinder served as rabbi from 1855 to 1857; Jacob Cohen from 1857 to 1866.

In 1866 Rev. G. M. Cohen was the cantor, choir leader and Sabbath school teacher, and about the same year at the suggestion of Rabbi Isaac M. Wise, of Cincinnati, the Minhag America prayer book was adopted.

Rev. Dr. Jacob Mayer, of Cincinnati, was elected rabbi in 1867 when reform followed reform in quick succession. He resigned in 1874 and was succeeded by Dr. Aaron Hahn, at present an honored member of the Cleveland bar.

Rabbi Moses J. Gries, who came from Chattanooga, Tenn., was Dr. Hahn's successor. He was elected in 1893, and served as spiritual leader of the congregation for a period of twenty-five years. His death which occurred October 30, 1918, brought to a close a career which was closely and conspicuously identified with Cleveland Jewish community's remarkable development. He was associated with many religious and philanthropic movements and as a religious leader attained nation-wide prominence. The Temple grew with remarkable strides during his ministry and at his suggestion many of the institutional activities which have since became permanent features of Temple organizations throughout the country were in-April 29, 1894, Huron Temple was abandoned and Tifereth Israel worshiped with Anshe Chesed until the dedication of the new temple, September 21 to 24 of the same year. Dr. Wise came to Cleveland to speak at the dedication and the then rare fellowship meeting was one of the features, also confirmation exercises. The Temple has been known as an Open Temple and has been an institutional house of worship since its dedication, the first of the kind among Jewish places of worship in the world.

The presidents of Tifereth Israel from 1850, the date of its organization, up to the present time have been as follows: A. Schwab, M. Wolf, Selig Hexter, D. Kaufman, S. Wolf, S. Hyman, M. Ezekiel, A. Halle, Kaufman Hays, S. Mann, J. Rohrheimer, S. Sampliner, H. Richman, M. Grossman, Martin A. Marks, A. Lewenthal and B. Lowenstein. Mr. Lowenstein is the present president of the congregation.

Several years ago at an annual meeting of the Temple congregation it was decided that the present temple is not only too small but too far removed from the membership and a committee was appointed to look for an available site some place much further east.

The Hungarian Congregation, B'nai Jeshurun, was organized in 1865 with a handful of members worshiping for a number of years in private residences and public halls for the great Holy Days until 1887, when members moved into the Anshe Chesed synagogue on Eagle street, after the dedication of the Anshe Chesed Scovill avenue synagogue. About eight years ago it erected a beautiful temple on Scovill avenue and E. 56th street.

There have been a number of secessions from the first Hungarian congregation, mainly due to differences of opinion concerning mode of worship, the most important of these offshoots being the Oheb Zedek synagogue on Scovill avenue, at the corner of E. 38th street, and Kneseth Israel on E. 46th street.

Herman Sampliner was the father of B'nai Jeshurun. He surrendered two rooms in his home, on California alley, where a congregation of sixteen was organized, and worshiped. A Sepher Torah was bought. The second year of its existence it had a membership of twenty-five and worshiped in the residence of Mr. Lerner, on St. Clair street, now avenue. The third year the congregation removed to the home of Mr. Well, on Hamilton street, now avenue, and for the great holidays when about 400 attended, Gallagher's hall, corner of Superior and Erie street, now E. 9th, was rented. The site is now occupied by the modern Cuyahoga Hotel. Mr. Sampliner remained the president and Mr. Salzer the religious teacher and chazan. In the fourth year a synagogue was established in what was then known as Halle's hall, on Superior street, near the present location of the Arcade, and in 1876 Rev. M. Klein was engaged as rabbi, cantor, teacher and collector. The next step was a synagogue on Michigan street, now Prospect avenue, in what had been a German theater, also the purchase of land in Glenville for a cemetery.

Notwithstanding desertions and an attempt to organize a Hungarian Reform congregation which failed, the congregation prospered and at the time of the removal of Anshe Chesed from Eagle street to Scovill avenue, B'nai Jeshurun bought the Eagle street property for $15,000. Simultaneously with the removal to the first real synagogue, in 1887, Rabbi Sigmund Drechsler was engaged as spiritual head, remaining the congregation's beloved rabbi until the day of his death.

B'nai Jeshurun is now prospering in its location fronting on E. 55th street at Scovill avenue. Rabbi Drechsler was succeeded by Rabbi A. E. Dobrin and after the latter's resignation Rabbi Samuel Schwartz was selected, installed June 18, 1909, and re-elected. Rabbi Schwartz resigned to take up a rabbinate in Jacksonville, Fla. He was succeeded by Rabbi Jacob Klein, who came here from Peoria, Ill., and was spiritual leader of the Cleveland Congregation until July 1, 1918.

The first Polish congregation, Anshe Emeth, was organized forty-eight years ago with a synagogue near the Central market house. This is the fourth congregation in the Jewish history of Cleveland. Prior to the erection of the synagogue on E. 37th street between Woodland and Scovill avenues, the congregation worshiped in a structure in old Erie street near Woodland avenue. Among its members are some of the best known Jewish families of Cleveland.

Rabbi Samuel Margolees who became the rabbi of the congregation in 1904 was an active religious and communal leader in Cleveland for twelve years. His death occurred, July 6, 1917, as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident. Rabbi Margolees was not the spiritual leader of the congregation at the time of his death, having resigned shortly before to take up a business career. He was the son of Following his resignation from the spiritual leadership of Ansche Emeth, that congregation consolidated with the Beth Tephilah congregation, which had been established in 1912. The temple of the consolidated congregations is at E. 105th street and Hampden avenue.

Beth Hamidrash Hagodol congregation was organized shortly after the establishment of Ansche Emeth congregation. Chevra Kadiska, Temple Israel was organized by Bohemian Jews. The congregation worshiped for years in the structure at 2641 E. 40th street. The Ohavu Amunah congregation was organized in 1882, by Rev. E. Rothschild and Rev. Platrowitz. The first temple was at Central avenue and E. 9th street and a year later the congregation built a structure on Hill street. Fifteen years later the congregation moved to a synagogue on E. 22d street, and in 1908 the structure at Scovill avenue and E. 37th became the Ohavu Amunah synagogue. The Oheb Zedeh congregation was organized in 1904 with forty members. The temple at Scovill avenue and E. 35th street was built in 1905. The congregation now has a branch on E. 107th street, near Superior avenue. The Knesset Israel congregation has a beautiful structure on E. 46th street between Woodland and Scovill avenue; and a branch at Columbia avenue and E. 105th street. Cleveland Jews have been actively associated with civic and national movements and the splendid achievements of the Cleveland Jewish community during the recent war is familiar to all.

Cleveland’s Jewish young manhood responded to the nation’s call and in organization work in the community Cleveland Jews were active and helpful. During the days of the Civil war the Jewish community was small, but there were many enlistments and the record of Cleveland Jews during the Spanish-American war is also notable.

Cleveland Jews have also been conspicuously identified with the city’s remarkable business and industrial advancement. They are the leaders in the garment industry, they own large department stores, they conduct large manufacturing establishments of various kinds and Jewish men and women are engaged in every kind of trade and all kinds of occupations. They are among the foremost physicians, attorneys, and architects, and rank high in other professions as well.

There are a large number of social organizations in the city. The Excelsior Club is among the leading organizations of that kind in the country, the Oakwood is a country club.

The Excelsior Club was organized forty-three years ago and New Year day, 1909, the beautiful building on Euclid avenue, just east of Wade Park, and near Western Reserve, was opened.

The Oakwood Club and grounds occupy more than a hundred acres out Mayfield way and was opened in 1906.

Many social and literary organizations meet at the B'nai B'rith building and a congress of clubs has recently been formed by a number of organizations, which are centered there. The B'nai B'rith building also contains the Jewish Welfare Board recreation rooms.

A number of boys' and girls' and young men's and young women's clubs are affiliated with the Educational Alliance, also the Hiram House, and scores of independent Jewish clubs and social organizations are scattered through the city.

The Hungarian Aid Society and the Hungarian Benevolent and Social Union are among the oldest organizations in town. The Independent Aid Society is one of the largest.

All the national Jewish fraternal organizations are represented in the city.

The important Jewish charities of Cleveland are affiliated with the Federation of Jewish Charities, organized about fifteen years ago. The first officers elected were: Charles Eisenman, president; Julius Feiss, vice president; Meyer Weil, treasurer, and Edward M. Baker, secretary.

The Cleveland Council of Jewish Women is closely allied with the Educational Alliance and Camp Wise and also conducts the Martha House, a home for working girls. The Council was organized twenty-one years ago by the amalgamation of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, the Ladies' Sewing Society, the Personal Service Society and later the Progressive Mission. Rabbi Moses J. Gries was the first president. Since then the presidents have been women.

There is no better orphan asylum in the world than the Cleveland Jewish Orphan Asylum. The institution on Woodland avenue was founded by the B’nai B’rith and was dedicated July 14, 1868. The first superintendent and matron were Mr. and Mrs. I. Aufrecht. Dr. Samuel Wolfenstein took charge in July, 1878, and the honor conferred upon him on the occasion of his Seventy-fifth birthday anniversary as well as at the recent Golden Jubilee of the Institution, celebrated recently with special exercises and a remarkable gathering at the Hippodrome are still fresh in the minds of all.

At Dr. Wolfenstein’s resignation he was succeeded by Rabbi Simon Peiser. The home is always filled to its capacity which means 500 boys and girls. Changes will soon come at the Institution as a tract of land known as the Cherry Farm, on the Cleveland-Painesville & Eastern Electric line, has been acquired for a new group of buildings.

The mortuary record of the Jewish Orphan Asylum is most remarkable, the death rate being the smallest of any similar institution in the world. Associated with the home is the Educational League for the higher education of orphans and a thriving alumni association, both of which are national in scope. Camp Wise through the united efforts of the council and alliance was opened in 1907. The property was given to the Camp Wise Association by Mr. Samuel D. Wise. It includes more than seventeen acres along the lake front east, and contains a number of buildings suited to country life. During the summer it gives new life and energy to boys and girls and some men and women. Volunteer workers are in charge.

The Montefiore Home for Aged and Infirm Israelites located since 1881 in the building at E. 55th street and Woodland avenue was founded by District No. 4, Kesher Shel Barzel, a fraternal order now out of existence. A beautiful new structure on Mayfield road near Forest Hill has been completed for this institution. Mr. Samuel Friedman was superintendent of the Home for many years. At his death, which occurred recently, Dr. J. Feuerlicht was appointed superintendent.

The Orthodox Old Home on Scovill avenue, east of E. 55th street, came into being at a time when members of the Orthodox community determined that this city must have a home for old men and women where they can spend their declining years amidst strictly Orthodox surroundings.

The Hebrew Relief Association was organized about forty years ago, although prior to that time as far back as the '50's Jewish charitable societies existed in the city. It does the combined work of the local Jewish charities. Mr. Alex S. Newman is the superintendent and Mr. Sigmund Sblesinger the president. The home of the association is on E. 40th street, near Woodland avenue, the business being conducted in the Isaac N. Glauber memorial building.

The Hebrew Free Loan Association was organized in 1905 and reorganized two years later. It has a large contributing membership list, loans money without interest and helps the poor to help themselves.

The home for little orphans, known as the Jewish Infant Orphans' Home, with Superintendent Rosenberg at the helm, is one of the finest institutions in town. It cares for infants from the day they are born until they are five years old. The society was organized by a handful of enthusiastic women and was known as the Infant Orphans' Mothers' Society. Later a house was bought on E. 37th street, and in 1907 the Home on E. 40th street was opened. Another purchase of the adjoining property was made later. In July, 1917, a 6½ acre tract in Euclid village on the Euclid car line was purchased as a site for a new home.

The first step toward the building of Mount Sinai Hospital was taken in 1900, when the Jewish Women's Hospital Society was organized. Two years later a house was bought on E. 37th street and was dedicated as a hospital in May, 1903.

The cornerstone of the magnificent structure on E. 105th street overlooking Wade Park, now occupied by the institution, was laid June 6, 1915.

Immigrants too poor to locate, wayfarers who are stranded without funds find temporary quarters in the Montefiore Shelter Home, located on Orange avenue, and opened in 1904. It furnishes shelter and meals until the moneyless stranger finds work or a friend or relative to take him in.

However, these are not all the Jewish welfare societies of the city. There are scores and scores of them and it would be impossible to name them all. Among the oldest of these are the Daughters of Israel, which was organized in 1860, and the Ladles' Progressive Society.

Women affiliated with the various temples are actively identified with charitable, commercial and religious movements throughout their organizations.

The Judea was organized ten years ago to aid the Talmud Torah. Other organizations prominent in the welfare service of the city are the Instant Aid Society and Maternity Relief Society. The Cleveland Council of Jewish and Junior Auxiliary Council are prominent among Cleveland women's organizations.

Among the Jewish college fraternities is the Zeta Beta Tau. The Menorah is also a national organization.

The city also has a large number of Trades Unions composed of Jewish members.

Final resting places for the dead?
Cleveland has many of them and include picturesque Mayfield and Willet cemeteries, the joint property of the Temple and Euclid Avenue Temple. There is also the Chesed Shel Emeth Cemetery Association, which is one of the best charities in the city and gives the poor free burial.

On Lansing there are cemeteries for Agudath Achim, Ohel Chesed, Beth Hamidrash Hagodol, Oheb Zedek and Knesseth Israel congregations. Then there is the Glenville cemetery for the B'nai Jeshurun Congregation, and a Hungarian cemetery in Fir avenue, the Ohav Amunah place of burial is on Harvard avenue, the Anshe Emeth on Fir avenue, B'nai Abraham on Fir avenue, the Chevra Kadisha on Baxter avenue.

The "Loafing" Range

Dual Personality

WHATEVER your riding mood the Two-Power-Range Eight will meet it.

The "loafing" range supplies at low fuel cost a smooth, steady flow of power to carry you through crowded streets.

The "sporting" range matches your courage with its constantly increasing power as you race with the wind.

In either range you enjoy the greatest ease of control.

May we give you a thrilling demonstration.

Five Times One Are Six

Each apple by itself is deliciously attractive, but all of them together in the basket have an extra attraction.

The trade of a single consumer is worth while, but the trade of a family is worth five times as much.

Every one in the family has a hundred wants, and the family together has an extra hundred.

Every copy of The Jewish Independent goes to a family averaging five, and is the newspaper of all. It reaches them all. In its columns YOU may reach them ALL.
DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Use MUSTEROLE. Made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of a pleasant white ointment. Takes the place of the out-of-date mustard plaster. Will not blister.

MUSTEROLE gives prompt relief from Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Chest Colds (it often prevents Pneumonia).

B'nai Jeshurum Temple

The history of the Jewish community, at the beginning of this volume, gives a detailed history of the B'nai Jeshurun Temple. The Congregation B'nai Jeshurun now has an enrollment of 777 members.

There are 600 children enrolled in the Sabbath School and 350 in the Hebrew School, which is in session four days a week.

Mr. Lester I. Relch is acting superintendent of the schools. Miss Selma F. Jacobs, clerk.

During the war, 109 young men of the congregation were enlisted in Service. The Service Flag has two gold stars, one for Walter Atlas, who died in camp, the other for Milton Sandler, who was killed in action.

Cantor Jacob Schraeter has been with the B'nai Jeshurun Congregation since 1913.

A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE
Quality Leaders

Success in merchandising consists not of following the leader, but of being the leader. It is our privilege to be the Exclusive Representative of the Richelieu Brand Food Products, which we pride because of the correct relationship they maintain between price and value. Richelieu Products are leaders in this community, because of their dependably uniform character and quality, which naturally attracts and retains for all time the most desirable trade. We are always on the alert for the best also, constantly comparing our products with other local offerings, and have yet to find any to equal the high quality which we have placed as a mark of character in our establishment. We, at no time purchase merchandise for special sales, and you may rest assured that all special sales, and you may rest assured that all specials offered here are always taken from our carefully selected stock. A thorough investigation of our lasting structure of confidence will convince you that our prices on all commodities are as low as can be obtained anywhere.

Also have at your disposal our ample telephone and delivery service, which will save you time, energy and annoyance.

Garfield 7440 Princeton 620

EMPLOYMENT

We list and place in suitable positions, carefully investigated applicants (both male & female) and save both employer and employee time, by being brought together for immediate, definite consideration. Fourteen years has proven the merits of the Interstate way, as a high class employment medium.

Keep It Up
One step won't take you very far,
You've got to keep on walking;
One word won't tell folks what you are,
You've got to keep on talking;
One inch won't make you very tall,
You've got to keep on growing;
One little "ad." won't do it all,
You've got to keep 'em going.

Oheb Zedek Congregation

The Oheb Zedek congregation was organized October 23, 1904, with forty members. The following were the first officers: Jacob Klein, president; H. Mandel, vice president; D. Labowitz, treasurer; I. Fisher, secretary and collector; M. Kleinman, M. Lichtig, J. J. Klein, M. Hecht, A. Lefkowitz, S. Wasserstrom, D. Lieberman, Ed Stark, S. Fertel, L. Rich, B. Selmanowicz, D. Grossman, G. Selmanowitz, M. Baumoel and Jacob Haas, trustees. March 12, 1905, the synagog site was purchased for $7,000, and in October, 1905, the building was completed at the cost of $42,000. The congregation has a daily Hebrew school, also a Sunday school. It has established a branch on E. 105th street. It has a cemetery of nine acres which cost $9,000.

Anshe Emeth Congregation

The story of the Anshe Emeth congregation is told in the general history of the Jewish community.

The Anshe Emeth congregation on E. 37th street, one of the oldest, and the Beth Tephilah on E. 105th street, one of the newest, are now one. At a recent meeting it was decided to build a new synagog for both congregations at the earlist possible moment.

Ohavu Amunah Congregation

The Ohavu Amunah congregation was organized in 1882. The late Rev. E. Rothschild and Rev. Platrowitz were the organizers. The temporary house of worship was on Central avenue and E. 9th street. In 1883 the first synagogue was built on Hill street. In 1898 the congregation moved into another synagogue, located on E. 22d street. Rev. R. Rogoff was cantor for several years and Rabbi Fremer and the late Rabbi Ravinson were the spiritual leaders. In 1908 they moved to the present synagogue, located on Scovill avenue and E. 37th street. In 1909 they extended a call to Rabbi N. H. Ebin, of Scranton, Pa., who about a year ago accepted a call to Buffalo.

Kneseth Israel Congregation

When B'nai Jeshurun was organized about half a century ago, the Hungarians of this city could scarcely muster up members enough for a Sabbath Minyan. Today there are three powerful Hungarian congregations in Cleveland, the Kneseth Israel, on E. 46th street, between Woodland avenue and Scovill avenue, being the latest. The synagogue is of recent construction and is an ornament to that part of the city.

THE Advertiser’s Fondest Dream never included anything better than every-copy-to-a-family circulation. That is exactly The Jewish Independent’s circulation—Every copy finds FIVE READERS.
It pays to advertise in “America’s Greatest Jewish Newspaper”
The Secret Difference

in Pathe Tone is held in the Sapphire Ball—it glides—never wears out. You have no needles to change. There is as much difference between the tone of the Pathe Phonograph and a talking machine as there is between a priceless violin and an ordinary fiddle. Hear the full round tone of the Pathe, and remember it costs no more. $32.50 to $215.00

FROM 30,000 shares, par value $100 each, Cities Service Co. Common stock of the unissued stock of the company, have been issued non-voting certificates in registered form to be known as Bankers' Shares, representing one-tenth (1/10) of a share of Cities Service Co. Common Stock of $100 par value.

Therefore, there are issued 300,000 Bankers' Shares against the 30,000 Shares of Cities Service Co. Common Stock deposited under the agreement.

The percentage of dividend on the Bankers' Shares is the same as on the $100 par value shares, and is paid in cash, which is approximately 14% on the present market value.

Excelsior Club

The Excelsior Club was organized forty-seven years ago. Here is the story of the Excelsior Club.

The Excelsior Club grew to its present proportions from a humble beginning.

Cleveland, in 1872, was a small town. Her Jewish population was quite large, but scattered, and Cleveland Jews needed a social club. Mr. Solomon Austrian and a few others decided to call a meeting to organize a club for the promotion of the social and intellectual side of the Jew. Twenty-two responded, and the meeting was held October 20, 1872, in Halle's Hall, on Superior street, nearly opposite the old city hall. Mr. A. Wiener was chairman, and Mr. Meyer Weil the secretary. Two weeks later another meeting was held; thirty had then signed the membership roll. At a subsequent meeting a name was chosen.

December of the same year, the first permanent officers were elected as follows: President, S. Austrian; vice president, A. Wiener; secretary, B. Landau; treasurer, J. Sloss. Directors: Dr. James Horwitz, Meyer Weil, Ferdinand Strauss.

That was the beginning of the Excelsior Club.

After the inaugural ball, which was held in December, 1872, arrangements were made for the use of Weisberger's Hall, Prospect and Brownell, where the balls and other social entertainments of the club were given. But at that time the club had no permanent home.

A little less than a year later, In October, 1873, the Corlett frame building on Erie street, now E. 9th, at the corner of Sumner, next to Erie cemetery, was leased at $1,000 a year. This little house was fitted up for club requirements, consisting of a ball room, stage, reading room, parlors, dining room and the like, but in May, 1875, it was decided to find more commodious quarters, and arrangements were entered into with Mr. L. Hale, who was about to erect a building at the corner of Woodland and Erie, the second and third floors of which were fitted up to suit the needs of the growing club.

In October, 1877, when the club membership list had grown to seventy, it took possession.

This remained the home of the club for more than ten years. The present home of the Educational Alliance was built by the Excelsior Club and upon property that had been owned by Dr. Horwitz, on Woodland avenue, opposite E. 38th street, and was opened with a stag party, December 24, 1887.

But the first real event was a New Year’s ball, December 31, of that year. There were innovations in plenty with the event of the elegant new club house. Bowling clubs flourished, open air concerts were given, a gymnasium was introduced and dramatic and literary entertainments were constant features.

Excelsior Club IV has few if any peers among club buildings in the United States. The cost of the building was $160,000. The property, which has been purchased for $30,000, is 600 feet in depth, and fronts 100 feet on the north side of Euclid avenue, some 400 feet east of Wade Park entrance, and a short distance west of the entrance to the College for Women.

Independent Order B'nai B'rith

Early in B'nai B'rith history Cleveland had three lodges, Solomon Lodge, No. 16; Montefiore Lodge, No. 54, and Baron de Hirsch Lodge, No. 454. The last named of these was organized in 1896 and in the course of its career had the following presidents:

1896—Dr. Marcus Rosenwasser
1897—Rabbi Moses J. Gries
1898—Michael A. Moses
1899—Samuel Friedman

1900—First half, Herman S. Kanton
1900—Second half, Adolph I. Newman
1901—First half, Charles A. Klein
1901—Second half, Nathan Loeser

Solomon is the pioneer among the Cleveland lodges and Montefiore a fairly close second. In course of time, the members of these lodges decided to have one strong organization, so steps were taken to consolidate. On Sunday, February 9, 1902, in the chapel of the Jewish Orphan Asylum, these three lodges were made one. Jacob Furth, of St. Louis, then vice president of the Order, was in charge of the consolidation exercises. The united lodge was named Cleveland Lodge, No. 16, of which the first officers were: J. C. Bloch, president; A. Lewenthal, vice president; Dr. S. Wolfenstein, monitor; Joseph Hays, treasurer; Jonas Cohen, recording secretary; Dr. Leo Wolfenstein, financial secretary.

Since the consolidation Cleveland Lodge had the following presidents:

1902—Joseph C. Bloch
1903—Sig. Shlesinger
1904—E. A. Schwarzenberg
1905—Max P. Goodman
1906—Isador Grossman
1907—Abraham Kolinsky
1908—Max E. Meisel
1909—Dr. M. Metzenbaum
1910—S. J. Kornhauser
1911—S. J. Kornhauser
1912—Sig. Schlesinger
1913—Fred J. Brunl
1914—Reuben Shapiro
1915—Alfred A. Benesch
1916—William R. Weidenthal
1917—Emile L. Strauss

October 10, 1915, Cleveland Lodge, began a ten-day campaign for an additional thousand members. The "drive" was conducted by the then vice president, William R. Weidenthal. There were ten teams of ten members and one captain in each team, and on the memorable night at the Hotel Statler at the close of the campaign a banquet was given, at which Hon. Simon Wolf, of Washington, was the guest of honor. Initiations preceded the banquet. About a thousand members were added to the membership.

The lodge acquired ownership of the leasehold of the Standard Club property on Euclid avenue, corner of E. 71st street, one of the most desirable spots for the purpose in Cleveland. The building is complete in every detail and fitted for the purpose of a B'nai B'rith Home. Ownership is through the Fraternal Building Company, a stock concern composed of B'nai B'rith members.

In Realty Buying Knowledge of Values Predicts Satisfaction. Thoughts to keep in mind when selecting a Commercial or Manufacturing Location:

POINTS FOR MERCHANTS:—

(1) See that all signs point to proposed location holding or drawing even more trade than estimated drawing power.
(2) That no influences are at work to divert existing foot travel.
(3) Keep to main highways—Think of street car service. Judge buying power of foot travel—Is it a hurrying transient travel or a slow moving, buying travel?
(4) Remember all foot travel has not same buying power.
(5) Rent values are created by buying power of foot travel.
(6) Is space adequate, or laid out right to handle an expanding business?—If so, cinch a long lease in view of rising rents.

N. B.—A customer needs individual attention. A Realtor may suggest a location costing more money than you thought of spending in rent; yet it may be infinitely cheaper than some other location, due to the character of the foot travel. A specialist should know more about this than the cursory observation of the merchant.

POINTS FOR MANUFACTURERS:—

(1) A manufacturer should select a location that will permit of doing maximum business at least fixed charges.
(2) Fixed charges are governed by Railroad facilities and by being located convenient to the residential section providing necessary labor.
(3) If labor must come by a long street car ride—it brings the men to work tired and irritable. This causes labor to shift frequently, as they prefer to work as near their homes as possible.
(4) To hold labor at outlying locations wages must be 10 to 20 per cent higher.
(5) Output always lessened where labor arrives tired and irritable.
(6) Increase in wages may be interest on a very large sum that had better be put in a site close to your labor market.
(7) Locating a factory on cheap outlying piece of property usually adds 15 to 25 per cent to cost of construction of buildings. Why not put this money in a better located site.
(8) An outlying site adds to trucking charges. Usually water, gas, electricity and sewer facilities are inadequate. Far from raw materials. Inconvenient to get to.
(9) For some lines do not overlook prevailing winds as they effect cleanliness. Proper light is also a necessity in many lines.

Independent Aid Society

Twenty-one years ago Mr. Joseph Folkman requested a few of his friends to meet at his residence, 161 Orange street, now Orange avenue, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of instituting a new society, and the Cleveland Independent Aid Society, now increased to 500 representative men, was the result. The growth of the society necessitated a change of its meeting place from Joseph Folkman's kitchen, on Orange street, to its present quarters. The society was named by its father, Joseph Folkman, and its first recording secretary, Herman Feniger. The objects are to help afflicted members; to assist worthy poor, and to aid charitable organizations and beneficial institutions.

The first officers were: Joseph Folkman, president; Adolph Spitz, vice president; Herman Feniger, recording secretary; Adolph Sicherman, financial secretary; David Friedman, treasurer; Jacob Engel, L. Feuer, M. M. Neuman, trustees.

The tenth anniversary of the society was commemorated at the Chamber of Commerce, October 31, 1905. Ten years later the twentieth anniversary was observed with a dance in Chamber of Commerce Hall.

ECONOMY: The Economy plan of loaning money has met with public approval for 25 years, we being the first in the field to advocate the making of small loans at a rate of interest that was fair to borrower and lender alike.

Women are approached as often as men by friends and acquaintances for a loan of a few dollars and as these accommodations are many times productive of unpleasant consequences, it is better to send such applicants where they can be accommodated in a business way and where they will be treated fairly.

Hungarian Benevolent and Social Union

Some thirty-six years ago, when the Hungarian population of Cleveland was comparatively small, they gave their "affairs" in Schleley's Hall, St. Clair avenue; Gesangverein Hall, then on Ontario street, near High; Halle's Hall on Superior avenue, or National Hall on the Public Square.

About that time the younger element of the Hungarians gave a masquerade and the day after they were so elated over their success that they considered the advisability of starting a permanent organization. Henry Newman and others mingled freely among the Hungarians, obtained a large number of signatures, and the Hungarian Benevolent and Social Union was the result.

A permanent organization was effected in 1881 and the first officers elected were as follows: Ben Schlesinger, president; H. Sandrovitz, vice president; Louis Meth, recording secretary; A. Klein, financial secretary; J. Farkash, treasurer.

Here are the officers for 1882: Henry A. Newman, president; A. J. Haas, vice president; J. C. Bloch, recording secretary; A. Klein, financial secretary; J. Farkash, treasurer.

The organization has prospered amazingly since, new acquisitions being recruited constantly. The object, as the name indicates, is social and benevolent, and during the thirty-six years of the society's existence it has been a great factor for good in the community.

Hungarian Aid Society

Mr. Morris Black, father of Colonel Louis Black and of the late Joseph Black, was one of the city's Hungarian pioneers, and at the organization of the Hungarian Aid Society, in 1863, was elected the first president. The celebration of its golden jubilee took place in the Eagles' Hall, Oct. 28, 1913.

The society was organized in a little red brick house located at what was then the corner of Hamilton and Erie streets, in the home of Mr. Black. The first officers elected at that meeting were: Morris Black, president; David Black, vice president; Joseph Perley, recording secretary; Herman Sampliner, treasurer; Dr. James Horwitz, with the officers, trustees.

On the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary, Henry A. Newman was the toastmaster. An address was delivered by Colonel Louis Black, which was reminiscent of the early days, when the society was organized in his father's home. The other speakers were Dr. Aaron Hahn, Mr. Joseph H Sampliner, Dr. Harris Cooley, Mr. Ben J Schwartz and Mr. S. H. Littman.

The present officers are:

Council of Jewish Women

The Cleveland Council of Jewish Women is the result of the amalgamation of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, the Ladies' Sewing Society, the Personal Service Society and the Progressive Mission. This took place about twenty-one years ago, when a beginning was made with 271 members. The late Rabbi Moses J. Gries was the first president. In 1896 Mrs. Moses B. Schwab was elected to that office and ten years later she was succeeded by Mrs. Abraham Wiener, who served in that capacity until the election of Mrs. Siegmund Joseph, who in turn was succeeded by Mrs. Nathan Rosewater and Mrs. Julius Fryer, the present executive.

In February, 1896, the Cleveland Council became a section of the National Council, resigning from that body in June, 1908.

The Cleveland Council does a tremendous amount of work, the Council Educational Alliance on Woodland avenue, one of the most complete settlement houses in the world, being its principal charge. This building, formerly the Excelsior Club, represents in land, building and equipment about $100,000.

The first Alliance building was the princely gift of Mr. M. Joseph, absolutely without conditions.

Through the generosity of Mr. Samuel D. Wise, who gave for that purpose nearly twenty acres of land on the lake shore east, including the cottages and houses on the property, a summer camp for boys and girls and known as Camp Wise, was opened in 1907.

The Council is also conducting the Martha House, named after Martha Wolfenstein, as a home for working girls. The Home was located on E. 48th street, but recently purchased and moved into its new home on E. 90th street.

This year marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization. The appended list includes the members of the Council and of the Junior Auxiliary. The officers of the Council of Jewish Women are:

The Cleveland Chapter of Hadassah

The Cleveland Chapter of Hadassah is the local branch of the Woman's Zionist Organization in America, first known as the Daughters of Zion, and now called Hadassah. It consists of fifteen chapters in as many cities of the United States. Each local chapter is affiliated with the Federation of American Zionists. The double purpose of the organization is to promote Jewish institutions and enterprises in the Holy Land and to foster Zionist ideals in America. In pursuance of the first purpose, the major part of the funds is devoted at present to establishing a system of district visiting nursing in Palestine.

The Jewish Welfare Board

(Written for the Cleveland Jewish Society Book, by Jacob Wattenmaker, Community Representative)

"The Jewish Welfare Board represents American Jewry in the Camps in this country and abroad in its endeavor to assist men of the Jewish faith in whatever way it may be in a position to give them of its advice, counsel, and comfort in co-operation with the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Knights of Columbus, American Library Association, the Salvation Army and the Red Cross. Its aim during the war period and during the present demobilization period is to minister to the needs of all enlisted men and to make adequate provision for the special needs of Jewish soldiers, sailors, and marines. It is not only a representative board of all the leading Jewish organizations, but also is officially recognized by the War Department and is under the direct supervision of the Fosdick Commission in the War Department.

The Jewish Welfare Board has been organized since the summer of 1917 and during the war period has aimed to keep up the morale of the American fighting forces in this country. It not only has had paid workers in every large camp and community in this country, but through its volunteer workers under the direct supervision of the Jewish Welfare Board, it has carried out this work as outlined in the following:

In the camps and naval training stations the Board has established Jewish Welfare Board buildings where the boys have come and may come to satisfy their special Jewish needs and make it their home while in camp.

The camp activities of the Jewish Welfare Board may be divided into four classes of service: First, religious; second, personal service; third, educational; fourth, social and recreational.

The religious activity is guided by the principle of conserving each shade of religious belief represented by the Jewish men in the camp population. Religious work consists of meeting the problem of satisfying the Orthodox, Conservative and Reformed boy, and as a result, there are as a rule, Friday evening services for the Orthodox boy; Sunday morning services for the Reformed boy; services for mourners; services in the hospital. During the Holy Days special services are conducted.

The personal service is a distinctive and specialized feature of the Jewish Welfare Board's camp activities. The transition from civil to military life brings in its wake the problem of adjustment which must be adequately met by the Field Representative that the morale of the soldier is not to be impaired. What may be called the reconciliation period in a soldier's life, which results in worry itself, lonesomeness, and the general lowering of the physical, mental, and spiritual tone of the men, was met by the field representatives in the camps through their special knowledge of Jewish life. In order to keep in close touch with the families of the soldiers, the Jewish Welfare Board representatives in camp established a close relationship between the camp and the communities. The field representatives not only rendered this personal service to men who came to their buildings or who have been visited in the barracks, but also reached out into the hospital and guardhouse. They visited the bedside of the sick soldiers, especially during the influenza epidemic; wrote letters for them both in English and in Yiddish; read to them interesting books. The educational activities consisted of classes in French, Jewish History, English, and such other classes that were found necessary. During the war period and after the war period emphasis was laid on vocational training. In several camps throughout the country group meetings and lectures were also conducted by the Jewish Welfare Board. Social and recreational activities were conducted two or three times a week, consisting of moving picture shows, vaudeville acts and dances, and other entertainments. In the communities the Jewish Welfare Board Branches were established during the war for the purpose of keeping in touch with the soldier's family, while he was in service, and at this time the community branch is called upon to help solve the immediate demobilization problem of assisting in the work of bringing the soldier back to civilian life and welcome him home on his return.

In its community work the local branches co-operate with all other welfare agencies in the city or town. They conducted religious services for the men, in the temples and synagogues, arranged dances, musicales, vaudeville shows, lawn parties, and automobile rides for the soldiers. Through the efforts of the branches, soldiers were invited to enjoy the home hospitality of private families, as they arranged farewell meetings to other men on their departure from camp, so they are now arranging welcome home receptions for men returning from service. The local branches furnished writing material, comfort kits, cigarettes, and delicacies for the men in the camps. Bureaus of information were established in permanent centers in the community, where enlisted men could come for information as to rooming accommodations, personal matters, military regulations, and all subjects relating to their welfare and that of the families.
An important activity of the Jewish Welfare Board Branches is the collection of statistics regarding the Jewish men in service, whose names are referred to the bureau of statistics of the American Jewish Committee, which is compiling an historical record of the part the boys in this country took in the recent war.

Community centers have been established by these local branches, which are open to all men in uniform. Reading rooms, gymnasiums and other facilities are provided for.

In the overseas work the Jewish Welfare Board had been compelled for many reasons to proceed cautiously in its work. It was for that reason that its overseas work was not carried out as was intended. By this time, however, the Jewish Welfare Board has branches abroad at such places as Paris, Brest, Bordeaux, St. Nezaire, Dizon, Le Mans, Tours, etc. It has recommended chaplains to the War Department, in accordance with the authorization and recommendation of General Pershing. It has many workers over there now laying a great deal of emphasis on entertainment and vocational training with the men. Jewish Welfare Board representatives have been placed on the transports coming from France at the points of embarkation and Jewish Welfare Board representatives meet the men at Hoboken, Newport News, etc.

The Cleveland Branch of the Jewish Welfare Board was established early in the history of the present war. At its inception the local branch was organized in the following manner: Two representatives were chosen from each Jewish organization in the city of Cleveland to form the executive board. Various committees were appointed to carry out the intent and purpose of the organization. Very soon after the armistice was signed it was decided that in order to meet the immediate problem, it was necessary to open a Jewish Welfare Board office in Cleveland with a uniformed representative in charge. It was decided to open a downtown office in the Lennox building, so that the soldiers may be reached soon after their entrance into the city, and a Community Center was established at the B'nai B'rith building, E. 71st street and Euclid avenue, where returning soldiers or transient soldiers may meet and take advantage of the accommodations offered, such as dormitory facilities, pool room, billiard room, bowling alley, social room, and library. Jewish soldiers and sailors arriving in Cleveland during the demobilization period are given what information and assistance they require. Questions relating to employment and problems of men still in service, as well as those who have received discharges, are handled at the new headquarters and the men are aided in every way during the change from army to civilian life. A joint committee of Jewish Welfare Board and the B'nai B'rith was found necessary to carry out the work at the B'nai B'rith building.

To meet the employment situation the board circularized the employers of labor in the city, announcing the establishing of the office. An extensive campaign is being planned to circularize all associations of employers to bring before them the work of the local branch. It is the policy of the Cleveland Branch to call upon the soldier's former employer first, and, in many cases, the firm that employed him was glad to receive him and give him some form of employment.

The Personal Service Committee aims to offer the services of the Jewish Welfare Board to returning soldiers. The names of these soldiers are received through various channels from welfare representatives in the various camps of the country; from the Y. M. C. A.; the chaplains in the camps, and from the morale officers. These names are distributed by the chairman of that committee among the various members of the mittee and a personal visit is given to these soldiers, offering them service. It is hoped through this committee the Jewish Welfare Board be better able to get in close contact with the returned soldier and assistance to him in re-establishing himself in civilian life.

RABBI SILVER AT THE RUINED SYNAGOG AT VERDUN
The Statistics Committee is collecting all names of Jewish soldiers who have entered the service from Cleveland, in order to get some idea of the service rendered in the war.

A representative in charge at Camp Sherman forwards this office weekly a list of Cleveland Jewish men discharged, so that we may be in a position to get in touch with them soon after their arrival here, and be of service to them.

The aim of the Federation are:

First—To eliminate indiscriminate and unauthorized forms of solicitation, ticket selling, bazaars, fairs, etc.

Second—To assure the community a fair and equitable distribution of the funds collected, to the end that the greatest number may benefit in the largest measure possible.

Third—To insure to the public a full and detailed accounting of the distribution of funds, both of the central body and the constituent organizations.

Fourth—To enable the institutions to give their full time and attention to the work before them.

Fifth—To investigate proposed philanthropic undertakings and advise as to their necessity or merit.

Sixth—To represent for the community an organized effort for good.

The Federation was organized about thirteen years ago with the following officers: Charles Eisenman, president; Julius Feiss, vice president; Meyer Weil, treasurer; Edward M. Baker, secretary.

120,000 Jews in Cleveland Require Food, Clothing and Supplies

Do they know you, Mr. Advertiser?
Do they know your merits and your bargains?
The Jewish Independent is waiting for you—and will carry your message quicker and better than any other Jewish newspaper.

Mount Sinai Hospital, beautiful and imposing, overlooking from an elevation, E. 105th street at Wade Park, has made such a reputation for thoroughness in all things that ever since its opening there has always been a waiting list.

The hospital contains 268 beds, and patients of all creeds or of no creed will be admitted. There is a children's ward, also a maternity ward, and the entire building is strictly fireproof. The construction is of brick, concrete and steel. The main building is four stories high and there are three wings of three stories, a power house, laundry, etc., of two stories. The cost of the ground, building and furnishings is not far from three-fourths of a million dollars.

The first shovelful of earth was lifted on Sunday, February 7, 1915, by President Paul L. Feiss, in the presence of the board, and the cornerstone was laid on Sunday, June 6, 1915. Mayor Newton D. Baker and Mr. Feiss, president of the Hospital Association, made the principal addresses. The invocation was given by Dr. S. Wolfenstein. The cornerstone was laid by Mr. B. Mahler, chairman of the Finance Committee; Mr. Salmon P. Halle, chairman of the Building Committee, and Mr. Charles Eisenman, president of the Federation of Jewish Charities.
Mayor Blankenburg, of Philadelphia, was present at the ceremony.
The dedication and formal opening of the building was an outdoor event and one of the most interesting in local Jewish history.

The memorable campaign for $500,000 for the purchase of the property and the construction of the building was swift and wonderfully successful, Mr. B. Mahler, the chairman of the Finance Committee, being the man behind the gun, who managed the financial end of the campaign.

The first meeting to discuss the advisability of building a new hospital and devising ways and means was held December 9, 1912. When time for action was at hand the committee went at it with such enthusiasm that within the short time of a few months, without publicity, incident to campaigns similar to this, about one-half million dollars was pledged by the Jewish community of this city. Practically for the first time in the history of Cleveland all the elements among the Jewish people were united in a bond of fellowship and brotherhood, including the Orthodox, Reform and Conservative, and all pitched in for one grand united effort and again illustrated the old adage that there is strength in union.

The quick work of the beginning of the actual construction is due to the efforts of Chairman S. P. Halle, of the Building Committee, who has made a close study of hospital construction here and in other cities.

George P. Post & Sons, of New York, were the architects, who have been working in conjunction with Dr. S. S. Goldwater as expert.

A kosher kitchen for the Orthodox patients is one of the features. Mr. Frank E. Chapman is the superintendent.

Jewish Women's Hospital Society

A group of enthusiastic young women originated the Jewish hospital project. The organization is still in existence and its members are working with as much enthusiasm for Mount Sinai as they did at the time of its inception many years ago. After Herculean efforts on the part of the members, encouraged by the late Herman Sampiner, a Jewish hospital was insured, and May 3, 1903, Mount Sinai Hospital, on E. 37th street, was dedicated. The trustees of this institution will, after the dedication of the new hospital, turn over this property to the trustees of the new hospital.

The Jewish Women's Hospital Society, organized in 1892, under the name of the Young Women's Hospital Society, was founded by Mr. Herman Sampiner, who was also its first president. The first woman president was Mrs. L. Rich.

The Jewish Orphan Asylum is a monument to the Independent Order B’nai B’rith, now under the jurisdiction of District Grand Lodges 2 and 6. It was during the Civil War when the first steps were taken by District No. 2, then having a membership of 2,200, to build an orphan asylum. In 1863 it was decided to tax each member $1 a year and the sum amounted to $10,000 in four years. At the district convention, held in Milwaukee, in 1867, it was decided to use this fund as a nucleus for an orphan asylum. Trustees were elected, they met in New York in July, 1867; again in St. Louis, February 4, 1868, where it was decided to buy what was then known as the Cleveland Water Cure property. Trustee Chairman Jacob Aub appointed a committee of members of Cleveland B’nai B’rith lodges to buy the property, which they did for $25,000. This committee consisted of Abraham Wiener, S. Newmark, Kaufman Hays, Jacob Rohrheimer and Jacob Goldsmith. This property had then a frontage of 165 feet on Woodland avenue, with a depth of 680 feet, containing a large brick building. March 3, 1868, the trustees took possession and the property was deeded to District Grand Lodge No. 2. Next day additional property, with a frontage of 165 feet on Woodland avenue, was bought for $6,000. The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge was held in Cleveland, in July, 1868, and the Water Cure building, converted into an orphan asylum, was formally dedicated July 14, 1868. The dedication ceremonies were impressive. Members of the Order B’nai B’rith marched with music and banners to the asylum grounds and among the orators were Dr. Isaac M. Wise, of Cincinnati; Mayor Stephen Buhrer, of Cleveland; President Bamberger, of the Grand Lodge; Miss Theresa Aub, of Cincinnati; Benjamin F. Peixotto; Isidor Bush, and Simon Wolf.

During the session of the Grand Lodge, the following trustees were chosen: Abraham Aub, president; Abraham Wiener, vice president; Jacob Rohrheimer, treasurer; William Kriegshaber, secretary; Isidor Bush, and Henry Greenebaum.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Aufrecht, of Cincinnati, were elected the first superintendent and matron, and September 29, 1868, the doors were thrown open for the first orphan children.

Six years later a new wing was built. Later Recording Secretary Buchman took charge and an industrial department was added. In 1879 Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Wolfenstein became superintendent and matron. Mrs. Wolfenstein passed away July 25, 1885. In 1880 more land was bought and the Abraham Aub Memorial School was dedicated. In 1881 Mr. A. Wiener was elected president.

On the twentieth anniversary, in 1888, the present building was dedicated. The manual training school was opened in 1892.

Numerous improvements have since been made and under the guiding hand of Dr. Wolfenstein, it acquired the reputation of being the most perfect institution of the kind in the land. A short time ago a wonderful demonstration in Dr. Wolfenstein's honor was given, when members of the J. O. A. Alumni Association and other friends of the institution gathered here from all over the country. Since his resignation, Dr. Wolfenstein has lived in retirement, but continues to take the same interest in the Home he has always done.

Following Dr. Wolfenstein's resignation Rabbi Simon Peiser was elected superintendent, and Mrs. Peiser, matron. In 1917 the Cherry Farm on Mentor avenue, was acquired as the site for the new Home. The property contains 170 acres and is on the C. P. & E. electric line. The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Home was celebrated July 14, 1918.

Hebrew Relief Association

Early in the '50's the first Jewish charity society was organized in Cleveland, but the Hebrew Relief Association, which undertakes to do the combined work of most of the local Jewish charities, was organized about 1875. The association has a home of its own on E. 40th street, near Woodland avenue, the business being conducted in the Isaac N. Glauber memorial building, the gift of the Glauber brothers, which was dedicated December 6, 1911. Mr. A. S. Newman, the superintendent, has been acting in that capacity a number of years.
Council Educational Alliance

The first Council Educational Alliance at Woodland avenue, near E. 22d street, was the gift of Mr. Moritz Joseph. It had been the Joseph home and the owner turned it over for Educational Alliance purposes unconditionally. The home was sold at the time the Jewish community moved further east and the present beautiful building, formerly the home of the Excelsior Club, also located on Woodland avenue, opposite E. 38th street, was bought and remodeled for a modern, ideal settlement house. The headworkers of the Alliance from the time of its organization up to the present were as follows: Isaac Spectorsky, Henry Woolf, Max Carton, Emanuel Stern helm and the present efficient headworker, Walter Leo Solomon. The house has a large number of clubs for boys and girls and grown folks. It has baths for men and women, swimming classes for boys and girls, a library, pool room, dramatic clubs, a magnificent auditorium, game rooms, sewing and cooking classes, music classes, a gymnasium, domestic science classes, dancing classes, millinery classes, printing classes, art classes. There is also a Mothers' Club, a Yiddish Dramatic Club and scores and scores of other activities.

Miss Ida Schott is doing good work as director of the girls' and women's work.

Educational League

The Educational League is an organization established for the purpose of contributing to the culture, efficiency and good citizenship of this nation by affording pecuniary aid for higher education to deserving orphans of genius. It seeks to open the door of opportunity to the talented orphan boy or girl who early in life is bereft of father or mother and sometimes both.

It was organized in 1896 at the Jewish Orphan Asylum at the suggestion of Mr. Martin A. Marks, who was its president at the time of his death. The idea was given endorsement by the trustees and directors of the asylum, and shortly afterwards by various district lodges of the Order B’nai B’rith, until gradually the aims and purposes of the League became known.

In 1899 the League extended its first aid to a beneficiary, who graduated from a western medical college with the highest honors of his class. Each succeeding year has added to the number, until today the League numbers sixty young men and women of high mental ability, equipped to take their places in life beside their more fortunate sisters and brothers. They are living testimonials to the foresight and generosity of those who planned and sustained the League.

The officers and Board of Governors of the Educational League are as follows:

Martha House

The Martha House, a home where self-supporting girls can live comfortably for a nominal fee, is supported by the Council. Here the working girl lives in clean and wholesome surroundings under the good influence of capable directors, who study each girl, and, by their advice, are of constant assistance. The institution is located on E. 90th street, near Euclid avenue. This property was acquired recently. The original site of Martha House was on E. 46th street.

Infant Orphan's Home

In 1889 a few women banded together for the purpose of providing a sheltering home for infants. In the same year a charter was granted under the name of the Infant Orphans' Mother Society. After a hard struggle the society succeeded in acquiring a large house and lot on Forest street, now E. 37th street, for $5,000. August 4, 1901, the Home was dedicated. Three days after the opening the first child was admitted. When the Federation of Jewish Charities was organized, the Home was asked to become affiliated with it, which was agreed to. The inmates increased to such an extent that the Home was compelled by necessity to increase its housing capacity and it was decided to purchase the Goldsmith property at 2200 E. 40th street, where the Home is now located, for $14,000. The Home cares annually for over 200 children, the average during a year being sixty, at a cost of about $11,000.

In 1917 the Home purchased six and a half acres of land at Stop 3½, Euclid, O., where a modern and much larger Home will be built.

Hebrew Free Loan Association

Another of Cleveland's charities is the Hebrew Free Loan Association, founded a number of years ago and recently reorganized on a more business-like basis, which loans money without interest to men and women who are anxious to establish themselves in some small business. In other words, it helps the poor to help themselves and prevents them from pauperizing themselves. The association has a large membership, the members' dues making it possible to carry out the object the association was organized for. The officers, trustees and standing committees are as follows:

PRINTING SERVICE

THE "WHY" OF GOOD PRINTING

The four essential factors in the production of good printing are:

1. ECONOMICAL MANAGEMENT.
2. EXPERT WORKMANSHIP.
3. COMPLETE MODERN EQUIPMENT.
4. "A-1" MATERIAL (INKS, PAPER, ETC.)

A proper mixing of all four is the formula that is securing for us scores of Cleveland's particular users of printing.

Proper "mixing" is illustrated on the next two pages. If you need further proof as to our ability, a visit through our plant will dispell any lingering doubt.

The "Men Behind The Guns" In Our Organization Are:

WILLIAM R. WEIDENTHAL, President and Business Manager of The Jewish Independent

H. B. RYMOND, Vice-President and General Manager of Printing Department

LEO WEIDENTHAL, Treasurer

Montefiore Home For Aged

The Sir Moses Montefiore Home for Aged and Infirm Israelites, is now located in the beautiful new structure on Mayfield road, near Lee road. The institution was situated at Woodland avenue and E. 55th street for about thirty-eight years. The late Samuel Friedman was superintendent of the Home for twenty-eight years. His death occurred on Nov. 17, 1917. Dr. J. Feuerlicht succeeded him as superintendent.

NEW MONTEFIORE HOME

The Home was founded by District No. 4, Kesher Shel Barzel, a fraternal order, in 1881, Simon Wolf, of Washington, being one of the leading spirits at the time of its inception. Montefiore Home is one of the most complete institutions of its kind in the world. Every attention was paid to the comfort of the aged inmates in planning the new structure.

Kadimah

Kadimah, an independent society of young men and women, has as its object, "the study, investigation, and discussion," as the constitution states it, "of all subjects pertaining to and of interest to Jews." To accomplish this object a two-fold program was devised, with the double purpose first, of investigating and gaining a more thorough knowledge of Jewish achievements of the past; and secondly, of inquiring into and discussing the most noteworthy problems before the Jewish people today. Topics of present interest so far announced as on the program of 1919 are: The Present Status of the Jews in Poland; The Present Status of the Jews in Russia; The Jews in Galicia and Rumania Today; The Case for Zionism; David Pinski; The Reform Movement; The Course of Asimilation in America; The Hebrew Renaissance, and Persecution as a Cause of Jewish National Consciousness.

A nucleus of Kadimah membership consists of college graduates or students in colleges, and the membership is sought chiefly among persons having at least a part of a college education or its equivalent. But persons giving evidence that they are able to undertake the work of the society, are also admitted. The program is directed by a committee consisting of S. J.
Beck, chairman; Miss Anna Tilles, and Mrs. Celia Garber. The membership committee consists of Joseph Silber, chairman; S. J. Rehmar, and Miss Bessie Stashower; publicity committee, S. J. Beck, and Suggs Garber. The officers and members are: Morris Berick, president; Miss Jennie Rehman, vice president; Miss Gertrude Applebaum, secretary and treasurer; Miss Anna August, S. J. Beck, Miss Sarah Flock, Mrs. Cella Garber, Suggs Garber, Miss Gertrude Heller, S. J. Rehmar, Isidore Silber, Joseph Silber, Jack Silverberg, Miss Bessie Stashower, and Miss Anna Tilles.

Orthodox Old Home

The Orthodox Old Home was organized December 13, 1906, with 200 members, who paid 10 cents a month. The first officers were: President, H. Rosenstein; vice president, H. Cooper; treasurer, M. Burstein; financial secretary, J. Landy; recording secretary, Joseph Rosenberg. The income was $3.70 at the first meeting.

May 30, 1907, a frame house at 5912 Scovill avenue was purchased for $5,000, of which $3,000 was paid down. The house was remodeled at a cost of $3,000 July 1, 1907. The first inmate, Mr. Noah Schwenger, aged ninety-six, was admitted. The house was not completed and he was boarded with a private family for a short time. On September 1, 1907, the Home was opened. October 3, 1907, H. Peskind was elected president. January 1, 1911, contract for a new brick addition was opened and the mortgage was settled early in 1915.

Seventeen men and seventeen women are in the institution at present.
Western Reserve Menorah Society

"The officers of the Western Reserve Menorah Society are as follows: President, Everett E. Loeb; vice president, Malvine Sands; secretary, Harry L. Wolpaw; treasurer, Harry S. Rosenstein; associate treasurer, Ida Katz.

The Menorah societies have been organized by university students for a threefold purpose: To study and advance the culture and ideals of the Jewish people and the conditions and problems which confront the Jews in the world today; to strengthen the Jewish idealism of Jewish students; to enrich the common treasury of American culture and ideals with the spiritual resources of the Jewish people.

The first Menorah Society was founded in Harvard College in 1906 and since that time thirty-eight branches have sprung up, embracing practically every large university and college in the United States.

The Western Reserve branch was founded in 1913. Membership is

The society this year contains an active membership of sixty young men and women of the university. The Western Reserve Menorah is a member of the Intercollegiate Menorah Association, with headquarters in New York City."

Ladies’ Hungarian Aid Society

The Ladies’ Hungarian Aid Society in 1915 celebrated their fiftieth anniversary. The Society was organized in 1865. Mrs. Morris Black, Mrs. James Horwitz, Mrs. Theresa Loveman, Mrs. J. S. Perley, Mrs. Jacob Cohen and Mrs. Judd were among the charter members.

Charity was the watchword of the society from the very beginning not only to its own members in distress, but to others, irrespective of race and nationality, who needed help. The society not only assists individuals who need quick aid, but gives to institutions. It has helped the Orthodox Home for the Aged, the Chesed Shel Emeth and other institutions. At the time of the agitation for a new Jewish hospital, the Ladies’ Hungarian Aid Society gave $500. Mr. N. L. Holstein has been the president about two decades.

"Philippic Literary Society"

"The Philippic Literary Society is a club of young men, devoted exclusively to literary work. At this club are conducted the various forms of literary work such as speaking, debating, mock trials and open discussions. Various lectures are given by prominent men of the city. The club was organized in November, 1918, and is now located in the B’nai B’rith building, where meetings are held every Wednesday evening. The members of the club are: President, Arthur E. Sobel; secretary and treasurer, Harold E. Grossman; publicity manager, Simon J. Green; Edward Leidner, Irvin Koenig, Lloyd Koenig, Herbert Recht, Irvin J. Schwartz and William Seltzer.

The Makheilah

A new factor in the Jewish activities of Cleveland is the Makheilah, or Choral Society, which is an outgrowth of the Tarbuth. It was organized by Mrs. Moses Garber, and is now under the instruction of Mr. Charles de Harrack, noted pianist and composer. The aim of the Mawheliah is to foster the study of Jewish and Hebrew melodies. The meetings are held weekly, on Sunday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, at the B'nai B'rith building. The formation of an orchestra is anticipated. The officers of the club are: Miss Ida Rosen, secretary, and Mr. Isaac Halperin, treasurer. Miss Gertrude Appelbaum is pianist. The members are:

The Talmud Torah

The Talmud Torah, also known as the Cleveland Hebrew School and Institute, is the culmination of many years of hard work coupled with enthusiasm on the part of the Orthodox Jewish community. Rabbi S. Margolies was the elader of the movement and he had many ardent followers. Money was raised in various ways, such as donations, bazaars and other forms of entertainment. It was a difficult task, but success finally crowned their efforts. The institute is located on E. 55th street, at Portland avenue, in buildings formerly used as a family hotel.

The Jewish Relief Society

The Jewish Relief Society was organized twenty-five years ago by Messrs. K. and I. Laufman, Max Cohen and S. Rocker. Mr. G. Laufman, who is president, has been holding this office since the society's organization.

The purpose of the society is to give funds to those who do not wish to apply to other charitable organizations.

There are four hundred members. Meetings are held every second Wednesday at the Jewish Shelter Home, on Orange Avenue. The officers are: President, G. Laufman; vice president, J. Karklin; secretary, M. Zeman; treasurer, M. Weinberg.

William H. Scheinman Lodge

The William H. Scheinman Lodge, Independent Order Brith Sholem, No. 378 is among the Cleveland new lodges. The young lodge organized about a year ago with about forty members and has now about a hundred. It expects to double that number shortly.

In addition to giving its members and wives insurance protection, it is opening a sick benefit and negotiating for burial grounds. The lodge is also working strongly with the Zionists movement. It meets Thursday at the B'nai Brith Building. Mr. Maurice Kahn is State Grand Deputy and one of the organizers of the order. Mr. William H. Scheinman, of Cleveland is the namesake of the organization.

The Paragon Club

The Paragon Club was organized in 1918. Meetings are held every Friday evening in its clubrooms in the Penn Square Building. The Club was organized for the purpose of promoting a sociable and friendly feeling among the Jewish young men of Cleveland. The present officers are: H. Perelman, president; O. Eisenberg, secretary; E. Klineman, treasurer; S. Goldstein, publicity manager.
The K. B. Y. Club

The K. B. Y. (Kehilla B'noth Y'srcel) is an organization of Jewish young women, organized for the purpose of building a club where all Jewish young women may meet and find that in life in which they are most interested.

The program is social and intellectual development. Meetings are held every Wednesday evening at the I. O. B. B. Speakers are invited to talk on different interesting topics, after which questions are asked. Musical numbers and recitations are also given.

On the alternate Wednesday evenings, there is a "Current Events" group, to which the girls bring news items of interest, which they have taken from newspapers or magazines. These are read, and a general discussion follows.

The K. B. Y. was organized November, 1916, by Miss Fannie Kohn, who was the president until January, 1919.

Our present officers are as follows: President, Miss Malvine Klein; vice president, Miss Mildred Fishel; recording secretary, Miss Regina Brenner; financial secretary, Miss Esther Kichler; treasurer, Miss Fannie Kohn; sergeant-at-arms, Miss Belle Kichler and Critic, Miss Dorothy Eichenbaum.

In the Jewish homes of Cleveland The Jewish Independent is a necessary part of the household—a constant conveyor of news—society, instructive, pleasure.

Phone Main 732 or Central 7821-W and we will mail it to you.

Ellen Terry Club

The Ellen Terry Club was organized in 1911, for the purpose of studying dramatics and literature. Each year the club has presented some program as a result of the year’s work. The Club is now meeting at the B’nai Brith Building. The officers of the club are: Miss Gussie Gottfried, president; Miss Esther J. Weiss, secretary and treasurer; Miss Yetta Rosenberg, vice president. The following are members of the club: Misses Betty Rosenberg, Yetta Rosenberg, Sophia Baker, Frieda Kohn, Henrietta Braunstein, Mathilda Rose, Edna Hochheiser, Helen Kraus, Gussie Gottfried. The club is under the leadership of Miss Florence Rosenthal.

The Tyrean Society

The Tyrean Society was organized in April, 1918, by the following charter members: Robert Hays, Alfred Sinks, Paul Hexter and Paul Einstein. It was enlarged until the present membership is fourteen young men. During the past year the organization had several interesting debates and has conducted a very interesting mock trial. The members of the society are: Frank Joseph, president; Paul Hexter, vice president; Robert Anspach, secretary; Paul Einstein, treasurer; Max Wertheim, Jr., sergeant-at-arms; Howard Wise, Morton Stone, Alfred Stotter, Oliver Klein, Felix Lowenstein, George Heubsch, Jerome Klein, Robert Hays, Richard Klein.
